Looking Both Ways Art Of The Contemporary African Diaspora:

Looking Both Ways Valentijn Byvanck, Allan DeSouza, 2003 Looking Both Ways Art of the Contemporary African Diaspora considers the work of artists from North South East and West Africa who live and work in Western countries including Belgium France Germany the Netherlands Portugal the United Kingdom and the United States As its title indicates Looking Both Ways refers to the artists practice of looking at the psychic terrain between Africa and the West a terrain of shifting physical contexts aesthetic ambitions and expressions It examines the relationship between physical contexts emotional geographies ambition and freedom of expression while focusing on the increasing globalization of the African Diaspora Looking Both Ways is not a survey but rather an intimate consideration of the work of twelve artists Fernando Alvim Ghada Amer Olad I Bamgboye Allan deSouza Kendell Geers Moshekwa Langa Hassan Musa N Dilo Mutima Wangechi Mutu Ingrid Mwangi Zineb Sedira and Yinka Shonibare The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies The New African Diaspora Isidore Okpewho, Nkiru Nzegwu, 2009-08-26 The New York Times reports that since 1990 more Africans have voluntarily relocated to the United States and Canada than had been forcibly brought here before the slave trade ended in 1807 The key reason for these migrations has been the collapse of social political economic and educational structures in their home countries which has driven Africans to seek security and self realization in the West This lively and timely collection of essays takes a look at the new immigrant experience It traces the immigrants progress from expatriation to arrival and covers the successes as well as problems they have encountered as they establish their lives in a new country The contributors most immigrants themselves use their firsthand experiences to add clarity honesty and sensitivity to their discussions of the new African diaspora A Companion to Contemporary Art Since 1945 Amelia Jones, 2009-02-09 A Companion to Contemporary Art is a major survey covering the major works and movements the most important theoretical developments and the historical social political and aesthetic issues in contemporary art since 1945 primarily in the Euro American context Collects 27 original essays by expert scholars describing the current state of scholarship in art history and visual studies and pointing to future directions in the field Contains dual chronological and thematic coverage of the major themes in the art of our time politics culture wars public space diaspora the artist identity politics the body and visual culture Offers synthetic analysis as well as new approaches to debates central to the visual arts since 1945 such as those addressing formalism the avant garde the role of the artist technology and art and the society of the spectacle

Without Boundary Fereshteh Daftari, 2006 Is it possible to speak of a contemporary art with an Islamic difference This question will be the subject of an exhibition that brings together artists who come from the Islamic world but who live and work mostly in Europe and the United States Tapping into certain aesthetic political and spiritual notions commonly associated with the Islamic world the book seeks to highlight the nuanced reactions of each individual artist

Travel & See Kobena Mercer, 2016-02-04 Over the years Kobena Mercer has critically illuminated the visual innovations of African American and black British artists In Travel & See he presents a diasporic model of criticism that gives close attention to aesthetic strategies while tracing the shifting political and cultural contexts in which black visual art circulates In eighteen essays which cover the period from 1992 to 2012 and discuss such leading artists as Isaac Julien Ren e Green Kerry James Marshall and Yinka Shonibare Mercer provides nothing less than a counternarrative of global contemporary art that reveals how the dialogical principle of cross cultural interaction not only has transformed commonplace perceptions of blackness today but challenges us to rethink the entangled history of modernism as well

Art History and Fetishism Abroad Gabriele Genge, Angela Stercken, 2014-12-15 By focusing on the various modes and media of the fetishised object this anthology shifts the debates on thingness into a new global art historical perspective The contributors explore the attention given to those material images in both artistic and cultural practice from the heyday of colonial expansion until today They show that in becoming vehicles and agents of transculturality so called fetishes take shape in the 17th to 19th century aesthetics psychology and ethnography and furthermore inspire a recent discourse on magical practice and its secular meanings requiring altered art historical approaches and methods

Contested Cultural Heritage
Helaine Silverman, 2010-11-02 Cultural heritage is material tangible and intangible that signifies a culture's history or legacy. It has become a venue for contestation ranging in scale from protesting to violently claimed and destroyed. But who defines what is to be preserved and what is to be erased? As cultural heritage becomes increasingly significant across the world, the number of issues for critical analysis and hopefully mediation arise. The issue stems from various groups: religious, ethnic, national, political, and others come together to claim appropriate use, exclude or erase markers and manifestations of their own and others' cultural heritage as a means for asserting, defending or denying critical claims to power, land and legitimacy. Can cultural heritage be well managed and promoted while at the same time kept within parameters so as to diminish contestation? The cases herein range from Greece, Spain, Egypt, the UK, Syria, Zimbabwe, Italy, the Balkans, Benin and Central America.

Ghada Amer Maura Reilly, Ghada Amer, 2010 Text by Maura Reilly, Laurie Ann Farrell Interview with Martine Antle
Earth Matters Karen E. Milbourne, 2013-11-12 Featuring more than 100 extraordinary works of art from 1800 to the present, Earth Matters reveals how African individuals and communities have visually mediated their most poignant relationships with the land, whether it be to earth as a sacred or medicinal material, as something uncovered by mining or claimed by burial, as a surface to be interpreted and turned to for inspiration or as an environment to be protected. Both internationally recognized and emerging contemporary artists are represented from the continent and diaspora, including El Anatsui, Ghada Amer, Sammy Baloji, Ingrid Mwangi, and William Kentridge. Highlights include a pair of rare Yoruba onile figures, a one-of-a-kind Punu reliquary from Gabon, and 3 bocio figures from the personal collection of legendary French dealer Jacques Kerchache. The text includes statements by contemporary African artists including Wangechi Mutu, Clive van den Berg, Allan de Souza, and George Osodi. National Museum of African Art curator Karen E. Milbourne explores how diverse African concepts of healing, the sacred, identity, memory, history, and environmental sustainability have all been formed in relation to the land in this pioneering scholarly study.

Curating and the Legacies of Colonialism in Contemporary Iberia
Carlos Garrido Castellano, Bruno Leitão, 2022-06 This book provides the first systematic genealogy of postcolonial and decolonial practices emerging from Iberian art spaces. The title redefines Iberian Studies through a decolonial lens. It expands current debates on curating and contemporary art by exploring how cultural programming has engaged with the legacies and continuities of colonialism in contemporary European societies.
