Neoliberalism and Contemporary Literary Culture Mitchum Huehls, Rachel Greenwald Smith, 2017-09-19 How has the pervasive spread of free market thinking affected contemporary literature Neoliberalism has been a buzzword in literary studies for well over a decade but its meaning remains ambiguous and its salience contentious In Neoliberalism and Contemporary Literary Culture Mitchum Huehls and Rachel Greenwald Smith offer a wide ranging exploration of contemporary literature through the lens of neoliberalism's economic social and cultural ascendance Bringing together accessible and provocative essays from top literary scholars this innovative collection examines neoliberalism's influence on literary theory and methodology literary form literary representation and literary institutions A four phase approach to the historical emergence of neoliberalism from the early 1970s to the present helps to clarify the complexity of the relationship between neoliberalism and literary culture Layering that history over the diverse changes in a US Anglo literary field that has moved away from postmodern forms and sensibilities the book argues that many literary developments including the return to realism the rise of the memoir the embrace of New Materialist theory and the pursuit of aesthetic autonomy make more coherent sense when viewed in light of neoliberalism's ever increasing expansion into the cultural sphere The essays gathered here engage a diverse range of theorists including Michel Foucault Wendy Brown Giorgio Agamben Bruno Latour Maurice Merleau Ponty Gary Becker and Eve Sedgwick to address the reciprocal relationship between neoliberalism and conceptual fields such as biopolitics affect phenomenology ecology and new materialist ontology These theoretical perspectives are complemented by innovative readings of contemporary works of literature by writers such as Jennifer Egan Ben Lerner Gillian Flynn Teju Cole Jonathan Franzen Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Salvador Plascencia E L James Lisa Robertson Kenneth Goldsmith and many others Neoliberalism and Contemporary Literary Culture is essential reading for anyone invested in the ever changing state of literary culture The Last Utopians Michael Robertson, 2020-04-28 The Last Utopians delves into the biographies of four key figures Edward Bellamy William Morris Edward Carpenter and Charlotte Perkins Gilman who lived during an extraordinary period of literary and social experimentation The publication of Bellamy's Looking Backward in 1888 opened the floodgates of an unprecedented wave of utopian writing Morris the Arts and Crafts pioneer was a committed socialist whose News from Nowhere envisions a workers Arcadia Carpenter boldly argued that homosexuals constitute a utopian vanguard Gilman a women's rights activist and the author of The Yellow Wallpaper wrote numerous utopian fictions including Herland a visionary tale of an all female society These writers Robertson shows shared a belief in radical equality imagining an end to class and gender hierarchies and envisioning new forms of familial and romantic relationships They held liberal religious beliefs about a universal spirit uniting humanity They believed in social transformation through nonviolent means and were committed to living a simple life rooted in a restored natural world And their legacy remains with us today as Robertson describes in entertaining firsthand accounts of contemporary utopianism ranging from Occupy Wall Street to a Radical Faerie retreat The Bookman, 1914 John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami, 1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader's position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant's Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles's nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society Look Away! Jon Smith, Deborah Cohn, 2004-07-21 Examines what happens to our paradigms of the American south if we understand the south hemispherically to include Latin America and the Caribbean The Christian Century, 1928 The Novel James A.
