The Watercolours and Drawings of Thomas Bewick and His Workshop Apprentices Thomas Bewick, 1981 Thomas Bewick 1753-1828 has long been considered the finest of English wood engravers No one has ever better expressed the feeling of the English landscape and its homely incident than Bewick in his meticulously rendered scenes of countryside and wildlife His innovations transformed the medium of engraving for a hundred years and first distinguished the technique as an art John James Audubon pronounced him the greatest delineator of nature of his time This natural focus on Bewick the engraver has overshadowed his accomplishments as a watercolourist and draftsman of major rank Over a thousand of his drawings and watercolours survive but until the publication of these volumes only a handful have ever appeared in print before and none in modern times They are reproduced here in accordance with the most exacting standards The first volume presents an illustrated biographical account of Bewick and explains his working methods in metal engraving and in the transfer of drawings to the wood block It also discusses the organization of his workshop and ascribes to the hands of apprentices through stylistic exegesis a number of works previously believed to be Bewick's own A catalog of 200 monochrome subjects drawn from the Quadrupeds British Birds Fables of Aesop and the unpublished Fishes is followed by appendices recording collections now holding Bewick's drawings. The second volume contains the watercolours and drawings alongside the engravings for which they were prepared in addition to major watercolours for which there are no extant engravings. Over 200 color subjects are presented in this volume together with a further 192 drawings and engravings. A production note: the slipcases containing the two volumes were handmade and the paper Bewick Cartridge was especially made for these books. They were designed by Peter Guy and printed by the Westerham Press in England. The MIT Press is offering a limited edition of 500 sets to American readers and collectors. Iain Bain is publisher at the Tate Gallery London and an authority on the history of book production and hand presses as well as on the work of Thomas Bewick. He personally oversaw the production of these volumes.

Art of Breaking Ice Rachael Mead, 2023-06-27. In 1960 when the legendary icebreaker Magga Dan set sail for Antarctica it contained a secret. Hiding on board was Nel Law, wife of expedition leader Phillip Law. She would make history by becoming the first Australian woman to set foot on the icy continent but it was her art that would change everything. Though a talented artist, Nel has always been defined by her role as the explorer's wife but in the clear expanse of the Southern Ocean her true self is finally allowed to emerge. Despite misogyny from the all male crew and increasing resentment from her mercurial husband, Nel's art begins to flourish. Her new friend, a gentle ornithologist, encourages her to explore but as the ship ploughs on towards Antarctica, rumours swirl threatening her marriage and the tenuous peace between the controlling Phillip and his crew. In the clear white light of the south, Nel will be forced to confront the truth of herself and the man to whom she has dedicated her life. This stunning reimagining of Nel Law's life reveals a ground-breaking artist searching for freedom in a world where women's lives were still defined by their husbands.

Settling in to her godmother's house for a few months, Ella finds herself the reluctant babysitter of a badly behaved Labrador and her plans of staying mainly indoors scuppered.
