Lot To Learn Girls Women And Education In The 20th Century:

Schooling the System Funké Aladejebi, 2021-03-05 In post World War II Canada black women's positions within the teaching profession served as sites of struggle and conflict as the nation worked to address the needs of its diversifying population. From their entry into teachers' college through their careers in the classroom and administration, black women educators encountered systemic racism and gender barriers at every step. So they worked to change the system. Using oral narratives to tell the story of black access and education in Ontario between the 1940s and the 1980s, Schooling the System provides textured insight into how issues of race, gender, class, geographic origin, and training shaped women's distinct experiences within the profession. By valuing women's voices and lived experiences, Funké Aladejebi illustrates that black women as a diverse group made vital contributions to the creation and development of anti-racist education in Canada. As cultural mediators within Ontario school systems, these women circumvented subtle and overt forms of racial and social exclusion to create resistive teaching methods that centred black knowledges and traditions. Within their wider communities and activist circles, they fought to change entrenched ideas about what Canadian citizenship should look like. As schools continue to grapple with creating diverse educational programs for all Canadians, Schooling the System is a timely excavation of the meaningful contributions of black women educators who helped create equitable policies and practices in schools and communities.

Making a Difference in Urban Schools Jane Gaskell, Benjamin Levin, 2012-08-08 What can be done to improve the educational experiences of students who live in cities with increasingly high levels of diversity and inequality? Making a Difference in Urban Schools evaluates how school and community leaders have worked to change urban education in Canada for the better over the past fifty years. This analytic and comparative study traces the evolution of urban education in Toronto and Winnipeg from the 1960s onward. Jane Gaskell and Ben Levin identify important contrasts between the experiences in each city as a result of their different demographics, institutional structures, cultures, and politics. They also highlight the common issues and dilemmas faced by reformers in these two cities across Canada and globally, including many that persist and remain controversial to this day.

The Palgrave Handbook of Olympic Studies H. Lenskyj, S. Wagg, 2012-04-11 A comprehensive state-of-the-art reference collection bringing together an authoritative and international line-up of scholars to examine key social and political issues related to the Olympics. An essential one-stop volume for a wide range of academics, students, and researchers.

A Lot to Learn Helen Lenskyj, 2005 Using sources from women's history, women's studies, and critical social theory, Dr. Lenskyj situates two stories: her own and that of her mother within the broader Australian socio-cultural context of the period from 1900 to 1960. She presents the background for her mother's narrative, beginning in 1832 when her grandfather arrived in Sydney, Australia, as a convict. She then examines her own experience as a working-class child attending a private school in the 1950s. Moving to Toronto, the story continues by documenting the interventions of mothers involved in school community activism in the 1960s and 1970s. Reflecting on her experiences since

1986 as an openly lesbian professor at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Dr Lenskyj includes a critical analysis of lesbian and gay activism aimed at educational change and of developments in feminist pedagogy in the last two decades Creating This Place Linda Cullum, Marilyn Porter, 2014-03-10 The women of St John s and the making of Newfoundland society Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society ,2005 Includes the Society s Annual report and statement of accounts New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005 Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering ,2005 Feminist Periodicals ,2006 IBSS: Sociology: 2005 Vol. 55 British Library of Political and Economic Science Staff, Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2006-11-03 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on merit by some of the world s most expert librarians and academics breadth today the IBSS covers over 2000 journals more than any other comparable resource The latest monograph publications are also included international Coverage the IBSS reviews scholarship published in over 30 languages including publications from Eastern Europe and the developing world User friendly organization all non English titles are word sections Extensive author subject and place name indexes are provided in both English and French

Creating a Common Table in 20th-century Argentina Rebekah E. Pite, 2013 Creating a Common Table in Twentieth Century Argentina Dona Petrona Women and Food Gender, Sexuality and Peace Education Laura L. Finley, Robin Cooper, 2018-06-01 This edited volume authored by scholars, students and activists focuses on how peace educators at the collegiate level can more effectively address gender and sexuality. Chapters focus on the classroom and the campus at large and emphasize the importance of interdisciplinary practice, thoughtful approaches that offer both challenges and safety and solidarity and support. The volume includes entries on hot and important topics including trigger warnings, using popular culture in the classroom, sex trafficking, campus sexual assault and more. Contributors come from a variety of disciplinary areas making the volume eclectic in nature. Further, most entries include student voices providing much needed agency for college youth. While the book does offer a critical perspective, importantly, chapters also offer hope and possibility.

A Critical Analysis of Sexuality Education in the United States Tiffani Kocsis, 2019-10-11 A Critical Analysis of Sexuality Education in the United States explores the development of sexuality education in North America and uses economic, legal and psychological paradigms to identify and trace exclusionary programming and practices in schools. By analyzing legal and political documents as well as state and private curricula, this insightful text considers the historical and contemporary experiences of adolescents in connection to the social structures of sexuality education. Challenging the current state of sex education in the United States in terms of both content and delivery, the chapters succinctly illustrate how schools are failing to meet the developmental needs of all students. Student perspectives and evidence-based research demonstrate that an exclusionary curriculum is failing to equip students with the knowledge and understanding they require to undergo a process of empowerment about their sexuality and engage in safe, informed and consensual sexual activity. Finally, by employing a rights-based approach to sexuality education, the author offers important recommendations for change in state and federal curricula. Offering unique and comprehensive insight into the state of sex education in the United States, this text will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students, academics, researchers, policy makers and libraries in the fields of sexuality education, education policy and politics, sociology of education, gender studies and curriculum studies.
