Patent and Trademark Office, 2001 Trout Lore Onnie Warren Smith, 1917 Open Season Dave Witherow, 2014-10-03 A charming collection of fishing stories drawn from over 30 years of persistent pursuit of the elusive trout Dave Witherow is an angler an adventurous risk taking articulate passionate angler He's spent the best part of his life fishing the rivers of New Zealand He's also a story teller of rare talent His stories are beautifully and hilariously imbued with the camaraderie of men of fellow anglers seeking a world away from domesticity and daily cares getting away from it all and finding their inner hunter gatherers Two Pies Kevin Bubbles and others appear again and again their characters and quirks masterfully portrayed these are friends who for many years have fished some of the most remote areas of New Zealand The author wore out one small plane and built another in order to visit the more secluded river spots where one doesn't come across the 80 per cent of fishers or the guides and the well outfitted tourists disembarking a helicopter His encounters and adventures are always highly entertaining appealing and down right hair raising Lyrical erudite ferociously astute Witherow captures a New Zealand that few experience Throughout the penetrating concise mind of the hunter the grace of the fly caster and the cool headed approach to a river crossing are brilliantly balanced with the antics and utter joy of the author and his fishing mates Open Season is the perfect book for the keen angler the armchair traveller and the many tourists who venture to New Zealand just for the season Weaving Words into Worlds Caroline Durand-Rous, Margot Lauwers, 2023-10-10 Weaving Words into Worlds comes as the third spinoff of the international ecopoetics conference organized in Perpignan in 2016 Reflecting upon how the many stories we tell directly influence the world we live in each of the contributions in this international volume directs our attention to the constant ecopoetic weaving of word to the world at work via the many entanglements between mind matter and meaning whether on a local or a global scale It encapsulates how the words stories and concepts we humans articulate as we try to make sense of the world we inhabit give part of its shape to the web of ecological relations that we depend on for survival It seeks to cast light on the disenchanting and reenchanting powers of stories and poesis in general as stories retain the power to make us either become oblivious to and destroy or to feel and honor the many complex ties between the multitudinous nature cultures intertwined within the fabric of a multispecies world always in the making This book offers a total of fourteen articles written by international scholars in ecocriticism and ecopoetics who by their analyses of literature and or films and the political subtext they thus render visible aim at showing how the study of environmentally minded media may renew our attention to the entangled agencies of the human and the more than human realm Thus this work offers to counter a reproach ecocriticism has often been met with namely the over presence of US scholars and the lack of diversity in subjects in the field since the articles presented provide a wide variety of approaches and topics with examples of UK and Native American literature Polynesian myth graphic novels or haiku In doing so the book expands on the fields of ecocriticism and ecopoetics adding to this branch of study and enriching it with high quality academic studies
