being second tier sovereigns to rulers of the first empire where the sun never set Provided by publisher History+ for Edexcel A Level: Religion and the state in early modern Europe Robin Bunce, Sarah Ward, Christine Knaack, 2015-09-04 Exam Board Edexcel Level AS A level Subject History First Teaching September 2015 First Exam June 2016 Endorsed for Edexcel Enable your students to develop high level skills in their Edexcel A level History breadth and depth studies through expert narrative and extended reading including bespoke essays from leading academics Build a strong understanding of the period studied with authoritative well researched content written in an accessible and engaging style Ensure continual improvement in students essay writing interpretation and source analysis skills using practice questions and trusted guidance on successfully answering exam style questions Encourage students to undertake rolling revision and self assessment by referring to end of chapter summaries and diagrams across the years Help students monitor their progress and consolidate their knowledge through note making activities and peer support tasks Provide students with the opportunity to analyse and evaluate works of real history with specially commissioned historians essays and extracts from academic works on the historical interpretations This title has complete coverage of the following units in Edexcel s specification England 1509 1603 authority nation and religion Luther and the German Reformation c1515 55 The Dutch Revolt c1563 1609 The Devil's Doctor Philip Ball, 2006-04-18 A vibrant original portrait of a man of contradictions the Renaissance era Swiss father of modern medicine Publishers Weekly starred review Philippus Aureolus Theophrastus Bombast von Hohenheim who called himself Paracelsus stands at the cusp of medieval and modern times A contemporary of Luther an enemy of the medical establishment a scourge of the universities an alchemist an army surgeon and a radical theologian he attracted myths even before he died His fantastic journeys across Europe and beyond were said to be made on a magical white horse and he was rumored to carry the elixir of life in the pommel of his great broadsword His name was linked with Faust who bargained with the devil Who was the man behind these stories Some have accused him of being a charlatan a windbag who filled his books with wild speculations and invented words Others claim him to be the father of modern medicine Philip Ball exposes a more complex truth in The Devil s Doctor one that emerges only by entering Paracelsus s time He explores the intellectual political and religious undercurrents of the sixteenth century and looks at how doctors really practiced at how people traveled and at how wars were fought For Paracelsus was a product of an age of change and strife of renaissance and reformation And yet by uniting the diverse disciplines of medicine biology and alchemy he assisted almost despite himself in the birth of science and the emergence of the age of rationalism Praise for The Devil s Doctor An enlivening portrait that will spark interest in Paracelsus s role in the rise of science Booklist A true iconoclast Paracelsus inhabited an ideological landscape somewhere between the medieval and the modern Ball effectively places Paracelsus in the larger context of Renaissance magic and philosophy and of a turbulent period Worth the effort Kirkus Reviews Islam in its International Context Chris Flood, Stephen Hutchings, Galina Miazhevich, 2011-05-25 Changing attitudes to Islam profoundly influence political cultures and national identities as well as policies regarding immigration security and multiculturalism. Given that the majority of relevant scholarly works have either adopted monocultural perspectives or approached Islam in its general non-nation-specific dimension, the need for in-depth multi-nation studies is urgent. Islam itself and responses to its rise are becoming increasingly internationalised. It is therefore important that analyses of Islam-related phenomena are sensitive to the particular cultures in which they are encountered. This volume does precisely that. Contributions, some explicitly comparative, others implicitly so, cover perspectives from across Europe, the USA and the Middle East, along with new treatments of the rich diversity to be found in Islamic art and discussions of inter-faith exchanges. They also represent a range of disciplinary approaches. Among the many issues addressed are the challenges posed by the rise of Muslim radicalism to multicultural societies, various media treatments of the War on Terror, the national specificities of Islamophobic xenophobia, contemporary visual arts in Islamic societies, differing attitudes to the translation of religious texts. The authors include authoritative international experts balanced by promising younger scholars.
