Lutheran Higher Education In North America:

Lutheran Higher Education in North America Richard W. Solberg, 1985 This fascinating volume traces for the first time the history of the fifty presently operating Lutheran colleges and universities in the United States and Canada Lutherans in North America Clifford E. Nelson, 1975 This book gives today's Lutherans a sense of heritage identity and continuity a sense of self understanding Readers will see themselves as part of a family They can identify with the struggles hopes and frustrations of wave after wave of immigrants adapting to the strange new world of America and at the same time trying to preserve all they had known and loved and brought with them from the homeland The genius of the entire volume is that it points beyond family memories to an ongoing and continuing life of which we and our children are a living part Contributors Theodore G Tappert Eugene Fevold Fred W Meuser H George Anderson August R Suelflow and E Clifford Nelson

Leading Lutheran Higher Education in a Secular Age Brian Beckstrom, 2020-07-15 Lutheran colleges and universities occupy a distinctive space in American higher education In an age where the dividing line between sacred and secular has become blurred Brian Beckstrom argues that their rooted and open approach combined with adaptive theological leadership could be the best hope for faith based higher education To do so he provides an overview of Lutheran higher education its history and identity and combines surveys of students faculty and staff at Lutheran institutions with leadership theory and theological reflection Leaders at Lutheran colleges and universities will find it to be helpful in understanding their mission identity and vocation in a secular age and navigating the changing cultural environment that challenges the church and higher education alike A Survey of Oral History Resources in Lutheran Higher Education, 1988 Religious Higher Education in the United States Thomas Hunt, James Carper, 2018-10-11 Originally published in 1996 Religious Higher Education in the United States looks at the issue of higher education and a lack of a clearly articulated purpose an issue particularly challenging to religiously affiliated institutions This volume attempts to address the problems currently facing denomination affiliated institutions of higher education beginning with an introduction to government aid and the regulation of religious colleges and universities in the US The greater part of the volume consists of 24 chapters each of which begins with a historical essay followed by annotated bibliographical entries covering primary and secondary sources dating back to 1986 on various denomination connected institutions Lutheran Higher Education in the 1980's

Lutheran Educational Conference of North America, 1980 Models for Christian Higher Education Richard Thomas Hughes, William B. Adrian, 1997 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable This timely look at the state of Christian higher education in America contains descriptive historical narratives that explore how fourteen Christian colleges and universities are successfully integrating faith and learning on their campuses despite the challenges posed by the increasingly pluralistic nature of modern culture Written by respected representatives from seven major faith traditions Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Mennonite Evangelical Wesleyan Holiness and Baptist Restorationist these narratives are also preceded by introductory essays that define the worldview and theological heritage of each given tradition and ask what that tradition can contribute to the task of higher education Religious Colleges and Universities in America Thomas Hunt,James Carper,2018-10-10 Originally published in 1988 Religious Higher Education in the United States is a selected bibliography of sources addressing how religion has changed and affected education in the United States This volume attempts to address the problems currently facing religious institutions of higher education covering government aid and the regulation of religious colleges and universities in the US Religious Seminaries in America (1989) Thomas C. Hunt,James Carper,2017-12-15 Published in 1989 this bibliography considers religious seminaries that are affiliated with the various denominations of the theological institutions established in the United States by the Protestants in the early 1800s it also considers non denominational and independent settings Divided into two sections the first short section considers the relationship between the civil governments and the seminaries the second organized by denomination into 15 chapters provides an extensive bibliography with annotations The work pulls together a wealth of reference material and identifies salient works whether book article dissertation or essay to provide a much needed resource for those interested in seminary education in the United States whether scholar student policy maker or interested citizen Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation Mark A. Lamport,2017-08-31 The Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation is a comprehensive global study of the life and work of Martin Luther and the movements that followed him in history and through today Organized by a stellar advisory board of Luther and Reformation scholars the encyclopedia features nearly five hundred entries that examine Luther s life and impact worldwide The two volume set provides overviews of basics such as the 95 Theses as well as more complex topics such as reformational distinctions Entries explore Luther s contributions to theology sacraments his influence on the church and contemporaries his character and more The work also discusses Luther s controversies and topics such as gender sexuality and race Publishing at the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation this is an essential reference work for understanding the Reformation and its legacy today
