Lviv A City In The Crosscurrents Of Culture:

Lviv John Czaplicka, 2002 Lviv John Czaplicka, 2005 To offer a broad historical and contemporary portrait of the European city Lviv John Czaplicka has gathered together a wide range of scholars from the areas of historiography history art and architectural history urban planning literary history and criticism and cultural history Known variously over the centuries as Leopold Lw w Lvov and Lemberg this city served as laboratory for the forging of modern Jewish Polish and Ukrainian identities Historically Armenians Germans Jews Poles and Ukrainians interacted in this Galician and formerly Polish and Habsburg metropolis The resulting confluence of cultures in this now Ukrainian city was at times violent but each of the ethnic groups and religions residing in the city contributed to its urban urbane and truly European character This volume emphasizes the richness of the local cultural heritage The collection derives from revised papers presented at a conference sponsored jointly by the Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies and the Ukrainian Research Institute at Harvard University Other authors were invited to round out the picture of a European city in the shifting crosscurrents of cultures European Cities in the Modern Era, 1850-1914 Friedrich Lenger, 2012-08-17 In European Cities in the Modern Era 1850-80-1914 Friedrich Lenger offers an account of Europe's major cities in a period crucial for the development of much of their present shape and infrastructure Imperial Cities in the Tsarist, the Habsburg, and the Ottoman Empires Ulrich Hofmeister, Florian Riedler, 2023-08-24 This book explores the various ways imperial rule constituted and shaped the cities of Eastern Europe until World War I in the Tsarist Habsburg and Ottoman empires In these three empires the cities served as hubs of imperial rule their institutions and infrastructures enabled the diffusion of power within the empires while they also served as the stages where the empire was displayed in monumental architecture and public rituals To this day many cities possess a distinctively imperial legacy in the form of material remnants groups of inhabitants or memories that shape the perceptions of in and outsiders The contributions to this volume address in detail the imperial entanglements of a dozen cities from a long term perspective reaching back to the eighteenth century They analyze the imperial capitals as well as smaller cities in the periphery All of them are imperial cities in the sense that they possess traces of imperial rule By comparing the three empires of Eastern Europe this volume seeks to establish commonalities in this particular geography and highlight trans imperial exchanges and entanglements This volume is essential reading to students and scholars alike interested in imperial and colonial history urban history and European history The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Paradox of Ukrainian Lviv Tarik Cyril Amar, 2015-11-17 The Paradox of Ukrainian Lviv reveals the local and transnational forces behind the twentieth century transformation of Lviv into a Soviet and Ukrainian urban center Lviv's twentieth century history was marked by violence population changes and fundamental transformation ethnically linguistically and in terms of its residents self perception Against this background Tarik Cyril Amar explains a striking paradox Soviet rule which came to Lviv in ruthless Stalinist shape and lasted for half a century left behind the most Ukrainian version of the city in history In reconstructing this dramatically profound change Amar illuminates the historical background in present day identities and tensions within Ukraine The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City Tong King Lee, 2021-06-27 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City is the first multifaceted and cross disciplinary overview of how cities can be read through the lens of translation and how translation studies can be enriched by an understanding of the complex dynamics of the city Divided into four sections the chapters are authored by leading scholars in translation studies sociolinguistics and literary and cultural criticism They cover contexts from Brussels to Singapore and Melbourne to Cairo and topics from translation as resistance to translanguaging and urban design This volume explores the role of translation at critical junctures of a city's historical transformation as well as in the mundane intercultural moments of urban life and uncovers the trope of the translational city in writing This Handbook is critical reading for researchers scholars and advanced students in translation studies linguistics and urban studies Lviv's Uncertain Destination Andriy Zayarnyuk, 2020 This book re-examines the history of twentieth century Lviv by focusing on the city's main railway terminal It approaches the terminal as an embodiment of the city's built environment and a microcosm of society Narrating the Sex Trade Tracie L. Wilson, 2025-09-30 Examining a range of sex trade accounts from state documents activist groups folk narratives and key figures in Polish Ukrainian and Yiddish literature this book applies new materialist perspectives to cultural history coloniality and imperialism in the study of Europe's eastern borderlands The text centers on late nineteenth and early twentieth century contexts with eastern Galicia and Lviv as its focal point However these narratives flow across time and space stretching back to the early modern period and continuing to the present across cities in the Americas in Asia and along the Mediterranean Sea The book addresses the convergence of sex trade stories with older narratives including links to early modern abduction accounts and antisemitic tropes It also examines the involvement of prominent activists whose personal lives contributed to modern research in psychology and sexuality such as Bertha Pappenheim Anna O and Karl M Baer Its groundbreaking approach unsettling notions of center and periphery is relevant to study of a myriad of geographic contexts worldwide and to both historical analysis and present day situations This volume is intended for undergraduates postgraduates specialists and general readers interested in east central Europe gender coloniality imperialism migration technology and modernity narrative and literary studies and new materialist approaches

A Heretical History of Architecture Andrzej Piotrowski, 2024-12-09 A Heretical History of Architecture challenges the conventional understanding of significant developments in Western architecture as a series of alignments among dominant ideologies and artistic programs arguing instead that the most consequential changes in the evolution of artistic and design practices across Europe between the fifth and seventeenth centuries were motivated by tensions between local religious or cultural traditions and centralized power This groundbreaking study richly demonstrates the processes through which heterodox beliefs that persisted within numerous diverse communities resulted in design experimentation so syncretic that it has heretofore eluded scholars employing conventional Euro centric taxonomies of architectural styles

The City in Russian Culture Pavel Lyssakov, Stephen Norris, 2018-04-19 Cities are constructed and organized by people and in turn become an important factor in the organization of human life They are sites of both social encounter and social division and provide for their inhabitants a sense of place This book explores the nature of Russian cities outlining the role played by various Russian cities over time It focuses on a range of cities including provincial cities considering both physical iconic created cities and also cities as represented in films fiction and other writing Overall the book provides a rich picture of the huge variety of Russian cities
