Lydian Houses And Architectural Terracottas:

Lydian Houses and Architectural Terracottas Andrew Ramage, 1978 Lydian Architectural Terracottas Eric Hostetter, 1994 Lydian Painted Pottery Abroad R. Gül Gürtekin-Demir, 2021-10-15 This book is the first major study of Lydian material culture at Gordion and also the first published monograph on Lydian painted pottery from any site excavation Richly illustrated it provides a comprehensive definition and analysis of Lydian ceramics based on stylistic archaeological and textual evidence while thoroughly documenting the material's stratigraphic contexts The book situates the ceramic corpus within its broader Anatolian cultural context and offers insights into the impact of Lydian cultural interfaces at Gordion The Lydian pottery found at Gordion was largely produced at centers other than Sardis the Lydian royal capital although Sardian imports are also well attested and began to influence Gordion's material culture as early as the 7th century BCE if not before Following the demise of the Lydian kingdom a more limited repertoire of Lydian ceramics demonstrably continued in use at Gordion into the Achaemenid Persian period in the late 6th and 5th centuries BCE The material was excavated by Professor Rodney Young's team between 1950 and 1973 and is fully presented here for the first time Ongoing research in the decades following Young's excavations has led to a more refined understanding of Gordion's archaeological contexts and chronology and consequently we are now able to view the Lydian ceramic corpus within a more secure stratigraphic framework than would have been the case if the material had been published shortly after the excavations The Archaeology of Anatolia, Volume IV Sharon R. Steadman, Gregory McMahon, 2021-12-13 This fourth volume in the Archaeology of Anatolia series offers reports on the most recent discoveries from across the Anatolian peninsula Periods covered span the Epipalaeolithic to the Medieval Age and sites and regions range from the western Anatolian coast to Van and on to the southeast The breadth and depth of work reported within these pages testifies to the contributors' dedication and love of their work even during a global pandemic period The volume includes reviews of recent work at on going excavations and data retrieved from the last several years of survey projects In addition a State of the Field section offers up to the moment data on specialized fields in Anatolian archaeology Etruria and Anatolia Elizabeth P. Baughan, Lisa C. Pieraccini, 2023-03-09 Striking similarities in Etruscan and Anatolian material culture reveal various forms of contact and exchange between these regions on opposite sides of the Mediterranean This is the first comprehensive investigation of these connections approaching both cultures as agents of artistic exchange rather than as side characters in a Greek focused narrative It synthesizes a wide range of material evidence from c 800-300 BCE from tomb architecture and furniture to painted vases terracotta reliefs and magic amulets By identifying shared practices common visual language and movements of objects and artisans from both east to west and west to east it illuminates many varied threads of the interconnected ancient Mediterranean fabric Rather than trying to account for the similarities with any one overarching theory this volume presents multiple simultaneous modes and implications of connectivity while also recognizing the distinct

local identities expressed through shared artistic and cultural traditions

Aspects of Empire in Achaemenid Sardis Elspeth R. M. Dusinberre, 2003-04-10 Elspeth R M Dusinberre proposes a fresh approach to understanding the Achaemenid Empire based on her study of the regional capital Sardis This study uses archaeological artistic and textual sources to demonstrate that the two hundred year Persian presence in this city had a profound impact on local social structures revealing the region's successful absorption both ideological and physical into the Persian Empire During this period Sardis was a centre of burgeoning creativity and vitality where a polyethnic elite devised a fresh culture inspired by Iranian Greek and local Lydian traditions that drew on and legitimated imperial ideology The non elite absorbed and adapted multiple aspects of this culture to create a wholly different profile of what it meant to be Sardian As well as successfully bringing together information on the Achaemenids this book is also an excellent contribution to empire studies

The Corinthian, Attic, and Lakonian Pottery from Sardis Judith Snyder Schaeffer, Nancy H. Ramage, Crawford Hallock Greenewalt, 1997 This work consists of three illustrated sections presenting the ceramic finds excavated at Sardis but produced in the mainland Greek centers of Corinth Athens and Sparta The authors study of this material from the Harvard Cornell excavations offers new evidence of the taste for Greek wares and shapes in Anatolia before the time of Alexander
