Lynton Lamb Illustrator A Selection Of His Work:

Lynton Lamb, Illustrator Lynton Lamb, 1978 ABHB Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries H. Vervliet, 1984-07-31 This twelfth volume of ABHB Annual bibliography of the history of the printed book and libraries contains 3333 records selected from some 2000 periodicals the list of which follows this introduction They have been compiled by the National Committees of the following countries Italy Australia Austria Luxembourg Belgium The Netherlands Poland Bulgaria Canada Portugal Denmark Rumania Finland South Africa France Spain German Democratic Republic Switzerland German Federal Republic USA Great Britain USSR Hungary Yugoslavia Ireland Republic of Spain and Latin America have partially been covered through the good offices of an American colleague Benevolent readers are requested to signal the names of bibliographers and historians from countries not mentioned above who would be willing to co operate to this scheme of international bibliographic collaboration The editor will greatly appreciate any communication on this matter Subject As has been said in the introduction to the previous volumes this bibliography aims at recording all books and articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of the arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in its production distribution conservation and description Of course the ideal of a complete coverage is nearly impossible to attain However it is the policy of this publication to include missing items as much as possible in the forthcoming volumes The same applies to countries newly added to the bibliography Designer ,1980 British Wood-engraved Book Illustration, 1904-1940 Joanna Selborne, 1998 Twentieth century British wood engraved book illustration up to the beginning of the Second World War was among the most versatile and inventive of the graphic arts In a climate of typographical renaissance various wood engravers made a significant impact on the appearance of the printed page transforming good books into works of art and influencing modern standards of book production This book reveals the methods by which these pioneering artists broke with nineteenth century illustrative practices The author surveys the subject in relation to the cultural and historical background and within the context of mainstream developments in the visual arts placing emphasis on the working relationship of illustrators with both private presses and commercial publishers Detailed study of unpublished material including art school records publishers and print societies archives and artists correspondence throws new light on the work and practices of the more innovative wood engravers The Private Library ,1978 A History of the Golden Cockerel Press, 1920-1960 Roderick Cave, Sarah Manson, 2002 From 1920 to 1960 the Golden Cockerel Press was one of the foremost publishers of illustrated books Closely associated with the revival of wood engraving its books were vehicles for artists such as Eric Gill David Jones and Eric Ravilious The Book Collector ,1980 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 Trollope and His Illustrators N John Hall, 1980-09-25 British Literary Bibliography, 1970-1979 Trevor Howard Howard-Hill, 1992 British Literary Bibliography 1970 1979 is a ten year supplement to the six volumes already published in the prestigious series Index to British Literary Bibliography and is fully indexed for consistency with earlier volumes. The series provides a comprehensive record of the writings that describe and study the history of the printed book in Britain and works of bibliography and textual criticism from the earliest times. The period covered by the present volume was bibliographically very active, witnessing a great renewal of interest in the history of the book. The volume has seven main sections: General Bibliographies of and Guides to British Literature; Bibliography and Textual Criticism; General and Period Bibliography; Regional Bibliography; Book Production and Distribution; Forms, Genres, and Subjects; and Authors. Complete information about each book or journal article is provided in standard form, and in many instances objective annotations are given, affording additional access to the items through a very detailed index.
