Edmonton's history is told using the words and stories of the people who have called this city home. Citizens with diverse viewpoints speak for themselves describing important events in Edmonton's social, political, and economic development.

Foreword by Keith Turnbull

The official publication of the City of Edmonton's Centennial, Edmonton In Our Own Words, includes many never-seen-before photographs from private collections, historic maps, and a timeline of Edmonton's history. Imagine a conversation between Edmonton's past inhabitants and its living citizens. What would we tell the rest of the world about our place on the map? What stories would we tell with tears in our eyes or laughter or pride?

In Edmonton In Our Own Words, experience the personal stories of eyewitnesses and descendants explaining, arguing, crying, scolding, laughing, and interrupting one another in a city's evolving conversation with itself as Edmonton celebrates its past and future. The authors tap Edmonton's collective memoir through written records and spoken stories. All those who ever lived at this bend in the North Saskatchewan took part in creating the city we know as Edmonton. Citizens with diverse viewpoints speak for themselves describing important events in the city's social, political, and economic development.
