Macau In Transition From Colony To Autonomous Region:

Macau in Transition H. Yee, 2001-09-12 The book analyzes various aspects of the process of Macau's transition from a Portuguese autonomous territory to a Chinese special administrative region. It analyzes the role of those involved in the process: Beijing, Lisbon, the local Portuguese Macau administration, the Macau branch of the New China News Agency, the Luso-Chinese Joint Liaison Group, and the local political and social groups. It stresses the dynamics of interactions between actors as well as the political, economic, and social changes in the enclave that have direct or indirect impact on the transition.

China's Macao Transformed Eilo W.Y. YU, Ming K. CHAN, 2014-10-01 The return of Macao from the Portuguese administration to the People's Republic of China (PRC) in 1999 marks the beginning of its transformation in the 21st century. Macao was confronted with various issues concerning then-existing political system, economic downturn, and gangland violence during the transition period. Beijing put Macao under the One Country Two Systems and implemented a wide variety of measures in order to restore its law and order as well as to recover its tourism-dependent economy. Gradually, Macao transformed itself to Las Vegas of the East. This volume of 18 essays highlights the key dimensions of Macao's remarkable One Country Two Systems actualisation experience in its first 15 years and discusses how Macao transformed and what challenges it encountered during its post-handover transformation. The volume has several focuses. It first investigates the political and electoral issues in a critical manner. Post-handover, Macao suffered from maladministration and limited democratization, and the chief executives selected lacked representativeness due to restricted public participation in the electoral process. Overall speaking, the government lacked legitimacy and popular support. From a socio-economic point of view, this book looks into the business model in running Macao's casinos and the emerging culture of mass participation and youth participation in political affairs. The education reformation and changes in civic identity of local Macao Chinese are also addressed. Finally, the volume looks into how post-handover Macao relates itself in the international politics affair.

Public Administration in Southeast Asia Evan M. Berman, 2017-09-25 While public administration practice and education in general has become considerably professionalized in the last decade, existing knowledge on public administration in Southeast Asia is fragmented at best and often devoid of a useful reference. While journal articles and government reports provide decentralized information, Public Administration in Southeast Asia (Thailand, Philippines, Malaysia, Hong Kong, and Macao) takes a comprehensive and comparative look at the major components of administration systems. The selection of countries and regions included reflects the diversity of Southeast Asia. Organized by country, the handbook fills a critical need by bringing together leading scholars who provide an insider perspective and viewpoint on essential and advanced issues. Divided into five sections, each dedicated to a particular country, the text outlines topics relevant to modern public administration, including History and Political Context of Public Administration Decentralization and Local Governance Public Ethics and Corruption Performance Management Reforms Civil Service System Focusing on recent developments in public administration in these countries which are among the fastest growing economies in the world the book explores their practices and innovative approaches in public administration For many years people have been fascinated by the cultures peoples and governments of Southeast Asia and now they have a book that discusses the apparatus of government in Southeast Asia their agencies contexts processes and values The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Transnational Migration and Work in Asia Kevin Hewison,Ken Young,2006 Providing important sociological insight into the dynamics of migration the essays in this collection focus on issues associated with migration for work both in and from the Asian region With contributions from an international team of well known scholars the text sets labor migration firmly within the context of globalization providing a focused contemporary discussion of what is undoubtedly a major twenty first century concern The first of its kind to look at the non professionals who make up the vast majority of migrant workers in the region the book analyses workers motivations and rationalities highlighting the similarities of migration experiences throughout Asia Presenting in depth case studies of the real life experiences and problems faced by migrant workers the book discusses migrants relations with the state and their vulnerability to exploitation as well as the major policy issues now facing governments employers NGOs and international agencies Gaming, Governance and Public Policy in Macao Newman M. K. Lam,Ian Scott,2011-08-01 The small city of Macao formerly a Portuguese colony now a Special Administrative Region of China liberalized its gaming industry in 2002 Since then a score of new casinos have been built and millions of gamblers have flooded in from mainland China Per capita income has more than doubled in five years and the gaming operators have outstripped their Las Vegas counterparts in revenue and profits But rapid economic growth has also brought social and political problems In this structured survey of modern Macao 15 experts examine the effects of massive foreign investment the problems of governance and increasing public policy challenges in a time of rapid change and potential social instability Newman M K Lamis professor of public administration at the University of Macau Ian Scottis emeritus professor and fellow of the Asia Research Centre at Murdoch University and adjunct professor of public and social administration at the City University of Hong Kong Reading China Against the Grain Carlos Rojas,Mei-hwa Sung,2020-10-28 Through an analysis of a wide array of contemporary Chinese literature from inside and outside of China this volume considers some of the ways in which China and Chineseness are understood and imagined Using the central theme of the way in which literature has the potential to both reinforce and to undermine a national imaginary the volume contains chapters offering new perspectives on well known authors from Jin Yucheng to Nobel Prize winning Mo Yan as well as chapters focusing on authors rarely included in discussions of contemporary Chinese literature such as the expatriate authors Larissa Lai and Xiaolu Guo The volume is complemented by chapters covering more marginalized literary figures throughout history such as Macau born poet Yiling the Malaysian born novelist Zhang Guixing and the ethnically Korean author Kim Hak ch l Invested in issues ranging from identity and representation to translation and grammar it is one of the few publications of its kind devoting comparable attention to authors from Mainland China authors from Manchuria Macau and Taiwan and throughout the global Chinese diaspora Reading China Against the Grain Imagining Communities is a rich resource of literary criticism for students and scholars of Chinese studies sinophone studies and comparative literature

The Emerging Asian City Vinayak Bharne, 2013 Asian cities create concomitant imagery polarizations of poverty and wealth blurry lines between formality and informality and stark juxtapositions of ancient historic places with shimmering new skylines With Asia s re emergence on the global stage there is an acute focus on its multifarious urban issues and identities What are Asian cities going to become Will they surpass the economic and environmental debacles of the West This collection of twenty four essays surveys the most dominant issues shaping the Asian urban landscape today It offers scholarly reflections and positions on the forces shaping Asian cities and the forces that they in turn are shaping

Entangled Histories Dan Ben-Canaan, Frank Grüner, Ines Prodöhl, 2013-10-29 The authors of this book focus on transcultural entanglements in Manchuria during the first half of the twentieth century Manchuria as Western historiography commonly designates the three northeastern provinces of China was a politically culturally and economically contested region In the late nineteenth century the region became the centre of competing Russian Chinese and Japanese interests thereby also attracting global attention The coexistence of people with different nationalities ethnicities and cultures in Manchuria was rarely if ever harmoniously balanced or static On the contrary interactions were both dynamic and complex Semi colonial experiences affected the people s living conditions status and power relations The transcultural negotiations between all population groups across borders of all kinds are the subject of this book The chapters of this volume shed light on various entangled histories in areas such as administration the economy ideas ideologies culture media and daily life
