Macbrides Brigade Irish Commandos In The Angloboer War:

MacBride's Brigade Donal P. McCracken,1999 This is the story of 500 Irish American men and Irish men who fought the British in the Anglo Boer war      Dublin's Great Wars Richard S. Grayson,2018-09-17 The story of the Dubliners who served in the British military and in republican forces during the First World War and the Irish Revolution      John MacBride Donal Fallon,2015-10-12 Major John MacBride who was Born in Westport County Mayo in 1868 was a household name in Ireland when many of the leaders of the Easter Rising were still relatively unknown figures As part of the Irish Brigade a band of nationalists fighting against the British in the Second Boer War MacBride s name featured in stories in the Freeman s Journal and Arthur Griffith s United Irishman The Major went on to travel across the United States lecturing audiences on the blow struck against the British Empire in South Africa His marriage to Maud Gonne described as Ireland s Joan of Arc led to further notoriety Their subsequent bitter separation involved some of the most senior figures in Irish nationalism MacBride was dismissed by William Butler Yeats as a drunken vainglorious lout Donal Fallon attempts to unravel the complexities of the man and his life and what led him to fight in Jacob s factory in 1916 John MacBride was executed in Kilmainham Gaol on 5 May 1916 two days before his forty eighth birthday      Seán MacBride, A Life Elizabeth Keane,2007-10-16 An exceptional man an extraordinary career a life of Se n MacBride Ireland s most distinguished statesman Sean MacBride 1904 1988 was at different times the Chief of Staff of the IRA a top criminal lawyer leader of Clann na Poblachta Irish Foreign Minister UN Commissioner and a founding member of Amnesty International He is the only person to have won both the Nobel Peace Prize 1974 and the Lenin Peace Prize 1977 Se n MacBride A Life by accomplished historian Elizabeth Keane is the first complete biography of this multifaceted complex and internationally renowned Irish politician From revolutionary terrorist to conservative constitutional politician to liberal elder statesman and international humanitarian Se n MacBride uncovers the political and personal story of one of twentieth century Ireland s most controversial figures Se n MacBride begins with MacBride s birth in Paris in 1904 With icons of the nationalist movement in Ireland for parents MacBride s future as a politician was fated his father John MacBride was a Boer War hero executed for his role in the Easter Rising of 1916 his mother Maud Gonne was an outspoken revolutionary and the lost love and muse of Ireland s most famous poet W B Yeats Se n MacBride then looks at MacBride s membership of the IRA which he joined as teenager He fought in both the Irish War of Independence and the Irish Civil War Se n MacBride charts his rapid rise through the ranks looking at how he became the Director of Intelligence and later Chief of Staff of the IRA before relinquishing his position and becoming a top criminal barrister MacBride entered D il ireann for the first time in 1947 as the leader of Clann na Poblachta and formed the first coalition government in Irish history in 1948 Appointed Minister for External Affairs Foreign Minister Se n MacBride considers MacBride s tenure in office which included overseeing the acceptance of the European Convention on Human Rights the rejection of NATO and Ireland s exit from the Commonwealth

His refusal to support fellow Clann na Poblachta TD Noel Browne's Mother and Child Scheme in the face of the opposition of the Catholic bishops led to the collapse of the coalition. MacBride lost his seat in the 1957 election, retired officially from Irish party politics and entered the third phase of his life: international statesman and human rights activist. Sean MacBride looks at the pivotal role MacBride played in European and international politics and human rights over the course of his later years, including founding Amnesty International, opposing apartheid in South Africa and agitating against nuclear armament. Few Irish politicians have had such an impact domestically and internationally. From MacBride's violent IRA beginnings to his later advocacy of peace in politics, Sean MacBride: A Life captures the twists and turns of a fascinating career. A figure of national and international importance, one of the most distinguished Irish people of the twentieth century, he has found a biographer of authority and assurance in Elizabeth Keane, whose survey of his life and times is astute, insightful and convincing. Praise for Elizabeth Keane: A singular voice in Irish history. The Sunday Business Post. Sean MacBride: A Life. Table of Contents. Preface. Man of Destiny. A Sort of Homecoming. From Chief of Staff to Chief Counsel. Fighting Your Battles. The Harp Without the Crown. Rattling the Sabre. Coming out of the Cave. Catholic First. Irishman Second. A Statesman of International Status. Never Lost His Fenian Fate. Conclusion.

The Boer War John Gooch, 2013-10-23. This collection of essays by leading British and South African scholars looking at the Boer War focuses on three aspects: how the British Military functioned, the role of the Boers, Afrikaners and Zulus, and the media presentation of the war to the public. James Connolly, A Full Life Donal Nevin, 2005-08-30. Hasn't it been a full life? Lillie and isn't this a good end? were James Connolly's last words to his wife in Dublin Castle in the early hours of 12 May 1916, just before his execution for his part in leading the Easter Rising. James Connolly, the son of Irish immigrants, was born in Edinburgh. The first fourteen years of his life were spent in Edinburgh, and the next seven years in the King's Liverpool Regiment in Ireland. In 1889 he returned to Edinburgh, where he was a socialist activist and organiser for seven years. In 1896, at the age of 28, he was invited to Dublin as socialist organiser, founding the Irish Republican Socialist Party and editing The Workers Republic. Connolly spent seven years in America between 1903 and 1910, returning to Ireland in 1910 as organiser of the Socialist Party of Ireland. Connolly was appointed Ulster Organiser of the Irish Transport and General Workers Union by James Larkin, succeeding him as acting general secretary in October 1914. As Commander of the Irish Citizen Army, Connolly joined with leaders of the Irish Republican Brotherhood in the Easter Rising in 1916, becoming Commandant General of the Dublin Division of the Army of the Republic and Vice President of the Provisional Government of the Irish Republic. For their part in the Easter Rising, Connolly and thirteen of his fellow revolutionaries were executed in Kilmainham Gaol by the British government. Connolly, the last to be executed, was wounded in the Rising and had to be strapped to a chair to face the firing squad. This biography deals with Connolly's activities as soldier, agitator, propagandist, orator, socialist organiser, pamphleteer, trade union leader, insurgent, and traces the evolution of his political thinking as social democrat, revolutionist, syndicalist, revolutionary socialist.

insurrectionist It is based largely on Connolly's prolific writings in twenty seven journals in Scotland England Ireland France and America and some 200 letters which are particularly revealing of his relationships with colleagues James Connolly is the very best survey of Connolly's remarkable life and times James Connolly A Full Life Table of Contents Preface by Des Geraghty PART I Edinburgh 1868 1882 PART II Ireland 1882 1889 PART III Edinburgh 1889 1896 Social Democrat PART IV Dublin 1890 1903 Revolutionist PART V America 1903 1910 Syndicalist PART VI Writings PART VII Ireland 1910 1916 The Red and the Green Revolutionary Socialist Insurrectionist PART VIII Revolutionary Thinker APPENDICES The Scots in South Africa John M. MacKenzie, 2013-07-19 The description of South Africa as a rainbow nation has always been taken to embrace the black brown and white peoples who constitute its population But each of these groups can be sub divided and in the white case the Scots have made one of the most distinctive contributions to the country's history Now available in paperback this book is a full length study of their role from the eighteenth to twentieth centuries It highlights the interaction of Scots with African peoples the manner in which missions and schools were credited with producing Black Scotsmen and the ways in which they pursued many distinctive policies It also deals with the inter weaving of issues of gender class and race as well as with the means by which Scots clung to their ethnicity through founding various social and cultural societies This book offers a major contribution to both Scottish and South African history and in the process illuminates a significant field of the Scottish Diaspora that has so far received little attention

Diamonds, Gold, and War (Volume 3 of 3) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition) , Race, nation and empire Catherine Hall, Keith McClelland, 2024-06-04 The essays in this collection show how histories written in the past in different political times dealt with considered or avoided and disavowed Britain's imperial role and issues of difference Ranging from enlightenment historians to the present these essays consider both individual historians including such key figures as E A Freeman G M Trevelyan and Keith Hancock and also broader themes such as the relationship between liberalism race and historiography and how we might re think British history in the light of trans national trans imperial and cross cultural analysis Britishness and what British history is have become major cultural and political issues in our time But as these essays demonstrate there is no single national story race empire and difference have pulsed through the writing of British history The contributors include some of the most distinguished historians writing today C A Bayly Antoinette Burton Saul Dubow Geoff Eley Theodore Koditschek Marilyn Lake John M MacKenzie Karen O'Brien Sonya O Rose Bill Schwarz Kathleen Wilson

Honor Killing David E. Stannard, 2006-05-02 In the fall of 1931 Thalia Massie the bored aristocratic wife of a young naval officer stationed in Honolulu accused six nonwhite islanders of gang rape The ensuing trial let loose a storm of racial and sexual hysteria but the case against the suspects was scant and the trial ended in a hung jury Outraged Thalia's socialite mother arranged the kidnapping and murder of one of the suspects In the spectacularly publicized trial that followed Clarence Darrow came to Hawai'i to defend Thalia's mother a sorry epitaph to a noble career It is one of the most sensational criminal cases in American history Stannard has rendered more than a lurid tale One hundred and fifty years of oppression came to a head in those sweltering courtrooms In the face of overwhelming intimidation from a cabal of corrupt military leaders and businessmen various people involved with the case the judge the defense team the jurors a newspaper editor and the accused themselves refused to be cowed Their moral courage united the disparate elements of the non white community and galvanized Hawai i s rapid transformation from an oppressive white run oligarchy to the harmonic multicultural American state it became Honor Killing is a great true crime story worthy of Dominick Dunne both a sensational read and an important work of social history
