Majesty That Was Islam The Islamic World 661 11:

The Majesty that was Islam William Montgomery Watt, 1976 Surveys the history of the Middle East from 661 to 1100 and the expansion of Islam stressing the relationship between religion and politics and the transformation of the area's Christian culture into an Islamic one

The Islamic World, Russia and the Vikings, 750-900 Thomas S. Noonan, 2024-10-28 Professor Noonan here sets out to examine what Islamic silver coins dirhams reveal about the great trade between the Islamic world European Russia and the Baltic during the early Viking Age Particular attention is devoted to the origins of this international commerce and the role of such peoples as the Vikings and Khazars As he shows the study of these coins also throws new light on mint output in the Abbasid caliphate the historical significance of specific dirham hoards and how the patterns of trade evolved during the course of the ninth century

Islam and Dhimmitude Bat Ye'or, 2002 Dhimmitude is thus discussed from the perspective of Muslim theory and also in regard to divergent Christian attitudes to Jews and Zionism

BOOK JACKET Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilisation and Religion Ian Richard Netton, 2013-12-19 The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides scholarly coverage of the religion culture and history of the Islamic world at a time when that world is undergoing considerable change and is a focus of international study and debate The non Muslim world's perceptions of Islam have often tended to be dominated by unrepresentative radical extremist movements and media interpretations of events involving such movements to the extent that many people are unaware of the depth and variety of Islamic thought At the same time many who have had a formal training in Islamic studies have tended to concentrate on the traditional to the exclusion of the contemporary The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion covers the full range of Islamic thought in historical depth but it also provides substantial coverage of contemporary trends across the Muslim world With well over a thousand entries on Islamic theology history arts science law and institutions and coverage of Islam in individual countries and cities around the world the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides an extremely rich resource for students and researchers in religious studies and Middle Eastern studies Entries are cross referenced and bibliographies are provided There is a full index Routledge published The Quran An Encyclopedia in 2005 an excellent companion to the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion

Freedom of Religion, Apostasy and Islam Abdullah Saeed, 2017-03-02 Debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the Western world but also in Muslim communities throughout the world For Muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert Islam This book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in Islamic law is untenable in the modern period Apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of Islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one's religion Demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early Muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear Qur'anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy. Examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside Muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi-religious Muslim majority country Malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent Muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy.

God Is One Michael F. Kuhn, 2019-05-31 Since the first interactions between Christians and Muslims a central point of contention has been the nature of God in relation to the doctrine of the trinity and divine oneness. Yet the belief that God is one is vociferously upheld by Christians, Jews and Muslims alike. In this detailed historical study and subsequent analysis Dr Michael F. Kuhn explores the teaching of two Arab Christian theologians from the Abbasid Era 750-1250 Abd All h Ibn al ayyib and Iliyy of Nisibis and how they defended the Christian view of God as three in one in the Muslim milieu and in reference to the Islamic concept of taw d God's absolute unity. The intellectual contribution of these two Christian thinkers can be seen in fact that the concepts they articulated continue to feature in Muslim-Christian dialogue to this day. Dr Kuhn shows the great lengths that Middle Eastern Christians went to explain their view of God's oneness in the Trinity and the divinity of Christ to their fellow Christians and to commend it to their Muslim counterparts. There is much to learn from the historical debates investigated in this book to help Christians today to uphold the truth of the Christian scriptures both in the Muslim context and beyond. Readers will appreciate the review of Nestorian Christology in light of recent studies and the important theological background to contemporary Muslim-Christian engagement that is provided. This book also makes a significant addition to the Christian understanding of the Trinity by linking the eternal attributes of God, a common theme in Islamic thought, to the three persons of the Godhead, deepening our understanding of the interrelations of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Anyone engaging intellectually or academically with Muslims with hopes to dialogue thoughtfully in the area of theology, spirituality and ethics will find this book acutely helpful.

Islam as Education Aaron J. Ghiloni, 2019-08-01 Motivated by the intellectual historian Shahab Ahmed's observation that the history of Islamic paideia has yet to be written Islam as Education explores multiple forms that the search for knowledge and the transmission of wisdom have taken in Islam focusing on the classical period 800-1500 CE Ghiloni draws on a wide range of Islamic primary source material ranging from sacred texts and parables to neglected pedagogical literature and paintings He depicts three Islamic religious practices pilgrimage prophecy and jihad as modes of pedagogy embodied ways of defining defusing and defending sacred knowledge Islam as Education's educational heuristic not only aids in understanding Islam but also provides guidance for intercultural and interreligious relations Ghiloni argues that Islam's grand knowledge tradition serves as a bridge between Muslims and non-Muslims and compares it with the educational theory of John Dewey the celebrated American pragmatist Based on this discussion a final chapter develops practical tools for learning from cultural and religious difference
