District of Columbia Appropriations for 1997 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on District of Columbia Appropriations, 1996 Living the Dream Daniel T. Fleming, 2022-03-11 Living the Dream tells the history behind the establishment of Martin Luther King Jr Day and the battle over King's legacy that continued through the decades that followed Creating the first national holiday to honor an African American was a formidable achievement and an act of resistance against conservative and segregationist opposition Congressional efforts to commemorate King began shortly after his assassination The ensuing political battles slowed the progress of granting him a namesake holiday and crucially defined how his legacy would be received Though Coretta Scott King's mission to honor her husband's commitment to nonviolence was upheld conservative politicians sought to use the holiday to advance a whitewashed nationalistic and even reactionary vision of King's life and thought This book reveals the lengths that activists had to go to elevate an African American man to the pantheon of national heroes how conservatives took advantage of the commemoration to bend the arc of King's legacy toward something he never would have expected and how grassroots causes unions and antiwar demonstrators continued to try to claim this sanctified day as their own Chinese Economic Transition and International Marketing Strategy Ilan Alon, 2003-03-30 As China's markets evolve marketing strategy must adapt to meet changing circumstances Alon and his contributors provide a comprehensive look at how economic transition affects marketing's strategies across a wide range of industries including telecommunications the auto industry the hospitality industry the airline industry textiles cosmetics and wine In addition they discuss the changing situation of joint ventures collective enterprises and state owned businesses Bringing divergent perspectives to bear from Hong Kong the United States the United Kingdom Australia New Zealand and China itself the marketers and scholars who contributed to this volume have integrated research relating to economic transition with strategic considerations for more effective and competitive marketing plans In addition to the industry specific information this volume includes chapters on entry barriers e commerce market research branding and promotion
