Writers Robert Baird Shuman, 2002 Highlights the lives and works of more than ninety American and Canadian writers of fiction drama nonfiction poetry and song lyrics African American Authors, 1745-1945 Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2000-01-30 There has been a dramatic resurgence of interest in early African American writing Since the accidental rediscovery and republication of Harriet Wilson's Our Nig in 1983 the works of dozens of 19th and early 20th century black writers have been recovered and reprinted There is now a significant revival of interest in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s and in the last decade alone several major assessments of 18th and 19th century African American literature have been published Early African American literature builds on a strong oral tradition of songs folktales and sermons Slave narratives began to appear during the late 18th and early 19th century and later writers began to engage a variety of themes in diverse genres A central objective of this reference book is to provide a wide ranging introduction to the first 200 years of African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 78 black writers active between 1745 and 1945 Among these writers are essayists novelists short story writers poets playwrights and autobiographers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography Contemporary African American Literature Lovalerie King, Shirley Moody-Turner, 2021-12-22 Essays exploring contemporary black fiction and examining important issues in current African American literary studies In this volume Lovalerie King and Shirley Moody Turner have compiled a collection of essays that offer access to some of the most innovative contemporary black fiction while addressing important issues in current African American literary studies Distinguished scholars Houston Baker Trudier Harris Darryl Dickson Carr and Maryemma Graham join writers and younger scholars to explore the work of Toni Morrison Edward P Jones Trey Ellis Paul Beatty Mat Johnson Kyle Baker Danzy Senna Nikki Turner and many others The collection is bracketed by a foreword by novelist and graphic artist Mat Johnson one of the most exciting and innovative contemporary African American writers and an afterword by Alice Randall author of the controversial parody The Wind Done Gone

Together King and Moody Turner make the case that diversity innovation and canon expansion are essential to maintaining the vitality of African American literary studies A compelling collection of essays on the ongoing relevance of African American literature to our collective understanding of American history society and culture Featuring a wide array of writers from all corners of the literary academy the book will have national appeal and offer strategies for teaching African American literature in colleges and universities across the country Gene Jarrett Boston University This book describes a fruitful tension that brings scholars of major reputation together with newly emerging critics to explore the full range of literary activities that have flourished in the post Civil Rights era Notable are such popular influences as hip hop music and Oprah Winfrey s Book Club American Literary Scholarship 2013      Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry      A Companion to African American Literature Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2010-05-10 Through a series of essays that explore the forms themes genres historical contexts major authors and latest critical approaches A Companion to African American Literature presents a comprehensive chronological overview of African American literature from the eighteenth century to the modern day Examines African American literature from its earliest origins through the rise of antislavery literature in the decades leading into the Civil War to the modern development of contemporary African American cultural media literary aesthetics and political ideologies Addresses the latest critical and scholarly approaches to African American literature Features essays by leading established literary scholars as well as newer voices      New Bones Kevin Everod Quashie, R. Joyce Lausch, Keith D. Miller, 2001 An inclusive multi genre anthology of late 20th century African American literature      The Columbia Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction Darryl Dickson-Carr, 2005-12-06 In both the literal and metaphorical senses it seemed as if 1970s America was running out of gas The decade not only witnessed long lines at gas stations but a citizenry that had grown weary and disillusioned High unemployment runaway inflation and the energy crisis caused in part by U S dependence on Arab oil characterized an increasingly bleak economic situation As Edward D Berkowitz demonstrates the end of the postwar economic boom

Watergate and defeat in Vietnam led to an unraveling of the national consensus. During the decade ideas about the United States how it should be governed and how its economy should be managed changed dramatically. Berkowitz argues that the postwar faith in sweeping social programs and a global U S mission was replaced by a more skeptical attitude about government's ability to positively affect society. From Woody Allen to Watergate from the decline of the steel industry to the rise of Bill Gates and from Saturday Night Fever to the Sunday morning fervor of evangelical preachers Berkowitz captures the history tone and spirit of the seventies. He explores the decade's major political events and movements including the rise and fall of détente congressional reform changes in healthcare policies and the hostage crisis in Iran. The seventies also gave birth to several social movements and the rights revolution in which women gays and lesbians and people with disabilities all successfully fought for greater legal and social recognition. At the same time reaction to these social movements as well as the issue of abortion introduced a new facet into American political life the rise of powerful politically conservative religious organizations and activists. Berkowitz also considers important shifts in American popular culture recounting the creative renaissance in American film as well as the birth of the Hollywood blockbuster. He discusses how television programs such as All in the Family and Charlie's Angels offered Americans both a reflection of and an escape from the problems gripping the country.

Routledge Library Editions: African American Literature Various Authors, 2021-02-25 The volumes in this set originally published between 1995 and 1999 is a collection of works by leading academics on African American Literature. The set provides a rigorous examination of the effect of music in the culture of African American society and how it has impacted the literature of African American writers it also looks at the presentation of black women in the writings of both black and white writers throughout the nineteenth and twentieth century. Finally the book looks at the experience of black writers living abroad. This set will be of particular interest to students and practitioners of literature history and specifically black American history.
