Making Choices Reading Issues In Context:

Making Choices Cooley,1997-01 This thematic reader for freshman composition contextualizes the important personal professional and civic choices students face in college and beyond An opening chapter discusses the fundamental connection between critical reading and writing The five core units each begin with three Context essays providing philosophical and historical background Three groups of Controversies readings then focus on a particular issue pertaining to the unit s general topic

Making Choices Michael E. Cooley,1997

Critical Reading in Higher Education Karen Manarin,Miriam Carey,Melanie Rathburn,Glen Ryland,2015-12-15 Faculty often worry that students can t or won t read critically a foundational skill for success in academic and professional endeavors Critical reading refers both to reading for academic purposes and reading for social engagement This volume is based on collaborative multidisciplinary research into how students read in first year courses in subjects ranging from scientific literacy through composition The authors discovered the good students can read the bad students are not reading for social engagement and the ugly class assignments may be setting students up for failure and they offer strategies that can better engage students and provide more meaningful reading experiences
