Lacan and Deleuze Bostjan Nedoh, 2016-10-26 It is often said that Lacan is the most radical representative of structuralism, a thinker of negativity and alienation, whereas Deleuze is pictured as a great opponent of the structuralist project, a vitalist and a thinker of creative potentialities of desire It seems the two cannot be further apart This volume of 12 new essays breaks the myth of their foreignness, if not hostility, and places the two in a productive conversation By taking on topics such as baroque, perversion, death drive, ontology, topology, face, linguistics and formalism, the essays highlight key entry points for a discussion between Lacan's and Deleuze's respective thoughts The proposed lines of investigation do not argue for a simple equation of their thoughts but for a disjunctive synthesis which acknowledges their differences while insisting on their positive and mutually informed reading
