Making Men Into Fathers Barbara Meil Hobson, 2002-01-10 Fatherhood is on the political agenda in many countries often cast in terms of crisis One side of the policy debate focuses on fathers as deadbeat dads who do not provide financial support and care for their children The other revolves around making men into active and engaged fathers However these policies are often at odds with the employers reluctance to accommodate work schedules to fathers needs In Making Men into Fathers prominent scholars in gender studies and the critical studies of men consider how varied institutional settings and policy logics around cash and care contour the possibilities and constraints for new models of fatherhood determining the choices open to men From different historical and societal perspectives the authors provide insights into the studies of men as gendered subjects including the role of transnational and global issues of fatherhood and the emergence of men s movements contesting and reimagining fatherhood

Making Sense of Fatherhood Tina Miller, 2010-11-18 As family and work demands become more complex who is left holding the baby Tina Miller explores men s experiences of fatherhood and provides unique insights into paternal caring changing masculinities and men s relations to paid work She focuses on the narratives of a group of men as they first anticipate and then experience fatherhood for the first time Her original longitudinal research contributes to contemporary theories of gender against a backdrop of societal and policy change The men s journeys into fatherhood are both similar and varied and they illuminate just how deeply gender permeates individual lives everyday practices and societal assumptions around caring for young children This book acts as a companion to Making Sense of Motherhood Cambridge University Press 2005 and together these innovative studies reveal how gendered practices around caring become enacted
