William Johnson Everett

Making My Way:

Making My Way in Ethics, Worship, and Work William Johnson Everett, 2021-09-17 William Everett has taught in Catholic and Protestant theological schools in the United States Germany India and South Africa Out of these rich and varied experiences he lays out here in concise manner the main concepts theories and commitments that have emerged in his work From his origins in Washington DC to his later research in Germany India South Africa and Cyprus he reflects on how his experience and life story have shaped his intellectual and religious vision This exposition of his thought ranges from construction of frameworks for relating Christianity to the behavioral sciences to substantive engagement with concepts of covenant and constitutionalism the oikos of work family and faith and ecological and restorative justice Moving beyond the academic he shows us how his poetry liturgies historical fiction and woodcraft also manifest many of these themes in other forms In this exposition and interrogation of his life and work Everett invites us into deeper reflection on the connections that constitute our own

From Peking to Mandalay Reginald Fleming Johnston, 2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original From Peking to Mandalay by Reginald Fleming Johnston Chosen C.B. Stone, 2015-04-24 I can't believe I'm thinking of going up against the Ministry But what other choice do I have This world is in shambles because of them I'm learning now that people need something to believe in something to inspire them to act When they have it they're capable of great courage And there is already talk of that something That something is us For the first time in probably their entire lifetimes people have hope The realization and enormity of it all the weight of who I am and what my mission truly entails sends chills down my spine Noah and I we are Chosen Still this wondrous gift and this ability to restore life to a dying world as amazing as it is presents us with problem after problem Where do we go Where do we hide Who is on our side And the biggest question of all will it be worth it
