Pritchard-Jones,Bob Gibbons,2014-05-02 The definitive guide for adventurers crossing the continent since its first edition in 1991 North and West Africa Map Michelin Travel Publications,1998-07-01 Saharan Frontiers James

McDougall,Judith Scheele,2021-12-22 Makes a compelling case for the importance of Saharan history both in its own right and in its articulations with the histories of other regions American Ethnologist The Sahara has long been portrayed as a barrier that divides the Mediterranean world from Africa proper and isolates the countries of the Maghrib from their southern and eastern neighbors Rather than viewing the desert as an isolating barrier this volume takes up historian Fernand Braudel s description of the Sahara as the second face of the Mediterranean The essays recast the history of the region with the Sahara at its center uncovering a story of densely interdependent networks that span the desert's vast expanse. They explore the relationship between the desert's islands and shores and the connections and commonalities that unite the region. Contributors draw on extensive ethnographic and historical research to address topics such as trade and migration, local notions of place, territoriality and movement, Saharan cities and the links among ecological, regional and world historical approaches to understanding the Sahara. Contributions by Dida Badi, Julien Brachet, Armelle Chopin, Charles Grumont, Peregrine Horden, Olivier Leservoisier, Laurence Marfaing, E Ann McDougall, Abderrahmane Moussaoui, Mohamed Oudada, Fatma Oussedik and Katia Sch rle. A compilation of coherent, well structured case studies addressing highly significant issues for the contemporary Sahara, a groundbreaking study. Social Anthropology. Altogether, this book is highly recommendable. Its key contribution is in teaching us to conceive of the Sahara not as a region clearly defined by natural features but as a space that exists, extends and expands according to its vibrant human interconnectedness. Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute. Michelin Map No. 953. Michelin Travel Publications, 1988-12-01. Dictionary Catalog of the Map Division. New York Public Library. Map Division, 1971. Benin. Jeremy Seymour Eades, Christopher Allen, 1996. Describes material relating to the small West African country that was formerly known as the Republic of Dahomey. Some of the sections focus on types of material including travel guides, travellers' accounts, archives and libraries and bibliographies. Most, however, consider topics such as the environment and natural resources, history, politics, trade, religion, performing arts and statistics. Includes one simple map. Indexed by title and author as well as subject. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR. Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases 2001. G. K. Hall and Co. Staff, GK Hall, 2002-07. Mali, 1992. A Handful of Honey. Annie Hawes, 2008-09-04. Aiming to track down a small oasis town deep in the Sahara, some of whose generous inhabitants came to her rescue on a black day in her adolescence, Annie Hawes leaves her home in the olive groves of Italy and sets off along the south coast of the Mediterranean. Travelling through Morocco and Algeria, she eats pigeon pie with a family of cannabis farmers and learns about the habits of djinns; she encounters citizens whose protest against the tyrannical King Hassan takes the form of attaching colanders to their television aerials, a practice he soon outlaws; and comes across a stone age method of making olive oil still going strong. She allows a ten year old to lead her into the fundamentalist strongholds of the suburbs of Algiers where she makes a good friend. Plunging southwards regardless into the desert, she at last shares a lunch of salt cured Saharan haggis with her old friends in a green and pleasant palm grove perfumed by flowering henna, once it seems the favourite scent of the Prophet Mohammed. She discovers at journey's end that life in a date farming oasis, haunting though its songs may be, is not so simple and uncomplicated as she has imagined. Annie Hawes has legions of fans. Her writing has the well built flow of fiction and the self-effacing honesty of a journal.

The Trans-Saharan Slave Trade. John Wright, 2007-04-03. This compelling text sheds light on the important but understudied trans-Saharan slave trade. The author uncovers and surveys this the least noticed of the slave trades out of Africa.

which from the seventh to the twentieth centuries quietly delivered almost as many black Africans into foreign servitude as did the far busier but much briefer Atlantic and East African trades. Illuminating for the first time a significant but ignored subject, the book supports and widens current scholarly examination of Africans' essential role in the enslavement of fellow Africans and their delivery to internal Atlantic or trans-Saharan markets.

The Rough Guide to the Gambia Emma Gregg, Richard Trillo, 2003. The Rough Guide to The Gambia is the most comprehensive guide to Africa's most accessible country. This second edition is the result of detailed on-the-ground research reports on exciting new developments including beautiful eco retreats and imaginative wildlife conservation projects where visitors can see birds, monkeys and chimps at close range. Detailed maps and plans are complemented by expert and upbeat guidance on the beaches, villages and music of the mangrove creeks and the River Gambia itself. There are first-hand reviews of all the best accommodation, restaurant and bar options in the country, both on and off the beaten track, for everyone from shoestring travellers to luxury tourists. The guide is also full of trademark candid insights into Gambian history, politics, music, language and culture.

Global Mapping of Infectious Diseases, 2007-03-23. First published in 1963. Advances in Parasitology contains comprehensive and up-to-date reviews in all areas of interest in contemporary parasitology. This volume is an outline of global environmental and global population data including scripts for predicting disease distributions and evaluating the accuracy of these mapped products. Several application chapters discuss current research topics appropriately addressed at the global scale. Topics such as tick-borne disease and the mapping of geographic and phylogenetic space, implications of global ecozonation and transportation networks on pathogen flow and the impacts of climate change on vector-borne diseases are covered in this latest volume. Includes DVD of global environmental and global population data including scripts for predicting disease distributions and evaluating the accuracy of these mapped products. Valuable source of both technical and epidemiological data in this rapidly growing field. Discusses practical applications of techniques to the study of parasitic and infectious diseases.
