Person-Centred Counselling Training Dave Mearns,1997-11-28 This thoughtful and thought provoking book is essential reading not only for those involved in the training of counsellors within the person centred approach but also for individuals who may have simplistic dismissive or otherwise ill informed notions of the depth of self awareness required of the person centred practitioner and the far reaching challenges offered by the approach For counsellors who define themselves as person centred but who have had no substantial training it should be compulsory reading British Journal of Guidance and Counselling Person centred counselling probably requires more training and a greater intensity of training than most other mainstream counselling approaches but
