Prosa plebeya Néstor Perlongher, 1997      Affect, Gender and Sexuality in Latin America Cecilia Macón, Mariela Solana, Nayla Luz Vacarezza, 2021-02-23 This book emphasizes the significance of affects feelings and emotions in how we think about politics gender and sexuality in Latin America Considering the complex and even contradictory social processes that the region is experiencing today many Latin American authors are turning to affect to find a key to understand our present situation to revisit our history and to imagine new possibilities for the future This tendency has shown such a specificity and sometimes departure from northern productions that it compels us to focus more deeply on its own arguments methods and critical contributions This volume features essays that explore the particularities of Latin American ways of thinking about affect and how they can shed new light into our understanding of gender sexuality and politics

Contemporary Archipelagic Thinking Michelle Stephens, Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel, 2020-09-15 Contemporary Archipelagic Thinking takes as point of departure the insights of Antonio Benítez Rojo Derek Walcott and Édouard Glissant on how to conceptualize the Caribbean as a space in which networks of islands are constitutive of a particular epistemology or way of thinking This rich volume takes questions that have explored the Caribbean and expands them to a global Anthropocenic framework This anthology explores the archipelagic as both a specific and a generalizable geo historical and cultural formation occurring across various planetary spaces including the Mediterranean and Aegean Seas the Caribbean basin the Malay archipelago Oceania and the creole islands of the Indian Ocean As an alternative geo formal unit archipelagoes can interrogate epistemologies ways of reading and thinking and methodologies informed implicitly or explicitly by more continental paradigms and perspectives Keeping in mind the structuring tension between land and water and between island and mainland relations the archipelagic focuses on the types of relations that emerge island to island when island groups are seen not so much as sites of exploration identity sociopolitical formation and economic and cultural circulation but also and rather as models The book includes 21 chapters a series of poems and an Afterword from both senior and junior scholars in American Studies Archaeology Biology Cartography Digital Mapping Environmental Studies Ethnomusicology Geography History Politics Comparative Literary and Cultural Studies and Sociology who engage with Archipelago studies Archipelagic Studies has become a framework with a robust intellectual genealogy The particular strength of this handbook is the diversity of fields and theoretical approaches in the Humanities Social Sciences and Natural Sciences that the included essays engage with There is an editor's introduction in which they meditate about the specific contributions of the archipelagic framework in interdisciplinary analyses of multi focal and transnational socio political and cultural context and in which they establish a dialogue between archipelagic thinking and network theory assemblages systems theory or the study of islands oceans and constellations      Plebeian Prose Néstor Perlongher, 2019-07-09 Plebeian Prose is a key work by the pioneering Argentine Brazilian anthropologist sociologist and poet Néstor Perlongher whose work has been highly influential in the development of Latin American cultural theory and literature represents an original critical queer voice in Latin American thought This book is an exploration of the politics of desire questions of identity Latin American neo baroque aesthetics sexual dissidence violence and jouissance Prompted by his reading of Gilles Deleuze the link between politics and desire remains central to all Perlongher's reflections and gives his writings a lasting topicality A thinker of the streets with a keen interest in those on the margins of society the ideas that are developed in this book offer a lucid critique of capitalism and institutional power Perlongher's approach also reflects a particular Latin American neo baroque style a mode of critique whose value endures today Providing insight into Latin American culture and politics of the late twentieth century Plebeian Prose will be of particular interest to anyone working on critical theory literary theory anthropology sociology and gender studies

Queering the Chilean Way Carl Fischer, 2016-11-11 This book examines and critiques the fact that Chile's claims to economic exceptionalism have been embodied often quite aggressively in a heterosexual and primarily male ideal Despite the many shifts Chilean economics and politics have undergone over the past fifty years the country's view of itself as a model in contrast to other Latin American countries has remained constant By deploying an artistic literary and cinematic archive of queer figures from this period this book draws parallels among the exceptionalisms of Chile's economic discourse the subjects deemed most and least apt to embody it and the maneuvers of its cultural production between local and global ideas of gender and politics to delineate its place in the world Queering the Chilean Way thus sheds light on the sexual economic and aesthetic dimensions of exceptionalism at its heart a discourse of exclusion that often comprises a major element of nationalism in Chile and throughout the Americas

Speculation, Heresy, and Gnosis in Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Joshua Ramey, Matthew S. Haar Farris, 2016-10-12 Many in continental philosophy of religion aver that we are in a new moment one where the intellectually marginalized and religiously bastardized traditions of mystical intuitive and esoteric apprehensions must be re articulated and appreciated anew In an era marked by catastrophic events and atrophied cultural institutions what seems to be needed is an affirmation of the human potential to truck with non human or even inhuman forces and intentions at scales of speed slowness or intensity that break with consensual conceptions of human limitations The essays in this volume outline patterns of mind and mortality existence and ecstasy creativity and expression political possibility and religious matrix from a position that takes quite seriously possible relations with the absolute however enigmatic that modernity has denied and postmodernity has obscured in the name of academic skepticism and humanist reservations Beyond post modernist pastiche and post secular nostalgia these essays explore the potencies of archaic spiritual disciplines as well as the passions driving the mystical heretical and Gnostic intimations riddling contemporary relations with the absolute
