Proscribed Telugu Literature And National Movement In Andhra 1920-1947:

Proscribed Telugu Literature and National Movement in Andhra, 1920-1947 Penta Sivunnaidu, 2002 Gandhian phase of national movement offered to the people a number of constructive programmes and political movements. The success of these programmes and movements depended on politicization and mobilization of the masses. In communicating and propagating the political ideas of the nationalist leaders to the masses, the nationalist intelligentsia of Andhra played an effective and remarkable role. They were influenced by the Gandhian ideology and political techniques and through their writings influenced the people to a great extent. They made the people to believe, to accept, to support, to involve and to participate in the national movement. They criticised the colonial rule and authorised the national movement. In the process they wrote dramas, songs, books, pamphlets, leaflets and articles in newspapers, imbuing the people with patriotic fervour, indomitable courage and heroic sacrifice to an extraordinary degree. The consequent efflorescence of nationalist literature contributed to the formation of people's national consciousness and their voluntary participation in the national movement to such an extent that the colonial Government began to sense a threat to its own existence and was forced to resort to proscription and suppression of ideas and oppression of the freedom of the press. Indian National Bibliography, 2004. Somasekhara, 2018-04-24. The press occupies a pivotal place in the modern society. It has become not only a powerful medium of mass communication but also an influential political and social institution. It has been recognised by all the civilised countries that the press plays a vital role in moulding the public opinion and also in expressing it. The press in India played a crucial role in rousing the spirit of nationalism among the people of India and also in fulfilling the nationalist aspiration of liberating India from the foreign rule. R. C. Majumdar in his Struggle for Freedom in the Bharatiya Vidhya Bhavan series remarks that the press imbued the people with patriotic fervour, indomitable courage and heroic self-sacrifice to an extraordinary degree. A number of works have been published in India and abroad describing the freedom movement in India at the national, regional and district levels.
