Prose And Verse:

Verse with Prose from Petronius to Dante Peter Dronke, 1994 Verse with Prose distinguishes for the first time some of the most significant uses of mixed forms Dronke looks at the way prose and verse elements function in satirical works beginning in the third century B C with Menippus He examines allegorical techniques in the mixed form giving especially rewarding attention to Boethius Consolation of Philosophy His lucid analysis encompasses a feast of medieval sagas and romances ranging from Iceland to Italy including vernacular works by Marguerite Porete in France and Mechthild in Germany A number of the medieval Latin texts presented have remained virtually unknown but emerge here as narratives with unusual and at times brilliant literary qualities The Writings in Prose and Verse Eugene Field, 1905 As You

Like it William Shakespeare, 2002 The daughter of Duke Senior Rosalind is driven from her cruel uncle's court and goes to find her father who has taken refuge in the Forest of Arden Miscellaneous Pieces in Prose and Verse, 1765 William Carlos Williams and the Diagnostics of Culture Brian Bremen A., 1993-04-29 Bremen's study examines the development of William Carlos Williams's poetics focusing in particular on Williams's ongoing fascination with the effects of poetry and prose and his life-long friendship with Kenneth Burke Using a framework based on Burke's and Williams's theoretical writings and correspondence as well as on the work of contemporary cultural critics Bremen looks closely at how Williams's poetic strategies are intimately tied to his medical practice incorporating a form of methodological empiricism that extends his diagnoses beyond the individual to include both language and community The book develops a series of rhetorical cognitive medical and political analogues that clarify the poetic and cultural achievements Williams hoped to realize in his writing

Prose and Verse, From the Port Folio of an Editor (Classic Reprint) Isaac C. Pray, 2015-07-15 Excerpt from Prose and Verse From the Port Folio of an Editor His thoughts and his beliefs were his mind's communion spirits and it is no hap hazard presumption to suppose that his approach to the veil which separates the mortal from the spiritual world was so near that through the interstices for the veil is not so closely knit as some imagine he beheld some of those sights which flesh is not commonly heir to Gustavus Kutzen his friend who like Von Stautnan often analyzed the mysteries of the mind and who studied to detect the gossamer threads of the intricately woven garb of nature had been to him the sun of his happiness and the mutual thoughts which their souls made known to them were as stars in the zone of their destined and endless existences They poured out their minds to each other as if they had but one being their hearts too grew together Like violet bells upon the self same stem Pouring the dewy odors of life's spring Into each other's bosom and year after year they lived on giving and taking strength reciprocal Von Stautnan had no love for the world its follies or vexations nor did he court the applause of its thronging multitude Nevertheless his daughter was a being whom he loved with an affection pure and priceless Through sunshine and storm he hung over her with a paternal fondness and his prayers secret and ceaseless were that they might meet after death in the paradise of spirits there to be joined by a mother of whom she was the accurate presentment and whom Von Stautnan had formerly cherished as the breath of his life About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Unparalleled Poetry Emmylou J. Grosser,2023-07-25 For more than 250 years biblical Hebrew poetry scholarship has been dominated by metrical assumptions and the idea of parallelism While a consensus is emerging that biblical poetry is not metrical no consensus has arisen regarding what parallelism is or what makes biblical poetry verse or poetry in the absence of meter graphical lineation and end marking of lines Unparalleled Poetry claims that a new paradigm for biblical poetry is needed a paradigm that is disentangled from parallelism as well as meter Drawing from the Cognitive Poetics work of Reuven Tsur Emmylou Grosser reorients the discussion of biblical poetic structure to how poetic structure can be heard and perceived She argues that the line units of biblical poetry emerge in the cognitive experience of the listener reader and provides an account of the free rhythm versification system of biblical poetry Grosser's cognitive approach to biblical poetry accounts for the wide diversity of lines and poems in the Bible and illuminates both the structures of biblical poetry and the artistry of potential effects Unparalleled Poetry presents a rewarding new paradigm for readers of the Bible while modeling new possibilities for the study of nonmetrical poetries and phenomena called parallelism throughout the world

Novel Pedagogy Liwen Zhang, 2024-10-01 Is the novel a category of knowledge that merits serious study Even if the novel has shed the stigma of being mindless entertainment one might easily assume that reading a novel is not studying unless one reads closely and carefully preferably from a scholarly edition or for a scholarly purpose Novel Pedagogy explores how Victorian writers envisioned the novel's potential to become knowledge long before the form's ascendance into the ivory tower Liwen Zhang argues that Victorian novelists' constant critique of schooling on the one hand and their frequent invocation of deep knowledge on the other are not self-contradictory Instead of offering a blissful escape from education writers such as William Thackeray Charles Kingsley Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell George Eliot and George Gissing seek to offer uniquely novelistic pathways to knowledge Novel Pedagogy offers a new model of novelistic epistemology by showing how the novel unlike other educational genres reflects on the unpleasant realities of learning and of not learning amid the ubiquity of ineffective textbooks reluctant students and false motivations
