Stubborn Poetries Peter Quartermain, 2013-06-25 Stubborn Poetries is a study of poets whose work because of its difficulty or simple resistance to conventional explication remains more or less firmly outside the canon Book jacket

Facing the Other Borbála Faragó, Moynagh Sullivan, 2008-12-18 This collection offers a multi faceted investigation of the critical issue of the creation and place of the Other in Ireland The extraordinarily rapid recent economic development of Ireland has effected a profound transformation in the island s social and cultural life In the process old verities and assumptions concerning the nature of Irish society and culture have been called into question with a whole variety of new challenges coming to light The developments of the last two decades have transformed questions of what and who constitutes the Other within Irish society but in the process older societal faultlines based on gender disability and religious difference have not disappeared and historical processes of Othering continue to play a critical role in influencing and moulding the social contours of the new Ireland of the twenty first century Drawing on a number of different disciplinary perspectives this collection presents a number of key analyses of social and cultural practices and policies that reflect anxieties about and negotiations of these changes examining historical and contemporary representation of fears about the porousness of national borders the increasing racialization of the Irish state through social and juridical proscriptions and the popular and official narrative of progress

Poetry and Performance During the British Poetry Revival 1960-1980 Juha Virtanen, 2017-08-23 This book examines intersections of poetry and performance during the British Poetry Revival Its investigations are centered on four specific performance events The First International Poetry Incarnation at the Royal Albert Hall in 1965 Denise Riley s first public reading at the Cambridge Poetry Festival in 1977 Eric Mottram s Pollock Record and Allen Fisher s Blood Bone Brain Drawing upon a range of archival resources recordings and interviews Juha Virtanen offers engaging and detailed archaeological accounts and analyses of these largely unexamined events as well as the potential dialogues between them The appendices of the book also feature previously unpublished interviews with both Fisher and Riley This book is essential reading for poetry and performance enthusiasts particularly those interested in innovative British Poetry

Among Friends Anne Dewey, Libbie Rifkin, 2013-05-15 Philosophers and theorists have long recognized both the subversive and the transformative possibilities of friendship the intimacy of which can transcend the impersonality of such identity categories as race class or gender Unlike familial relations friendships are chosen opening a space of relative freedom in which to create and explore new identities This process has been particularly valuable to poets marginalized by gender or sexuality since the second half of the twentieth century as friendship provides both a buffer against and a wedge into predominantly male homosocial poetic communities Among Friends presents a richly theorized evocation of friendship as a fluid critical social space one that offers a vantage point from which to explore the gendering of poetic institutions and practices from the postwar period to the present With friendship as an optic the essays in this volume offer important new insights into the gender politics of the poetic avant garde since poetry as an institution has continued to be transformed by dramatic changes wrought by second wave feminism sexual liberation and gay rights These essays reveal the intimate social negotiations that fight fracture and queer the conventions of authority and community that have long constrained women poets and the gendering of poetic subjectivities From this shared perspective the essays collected here investigate a historically and aesthetically wide ranging array of subjects from Joanne Kyger and Philip Whalen s trans Pacific friendship to Patti Smith s grounding of her punk persona in the tension between her romantic friendships with male artists and her more professional connections to the poets of the St Mark s scene and from the gender dynamics of the Language School to the Flarf network s reconception of poetic community in the digital age and the Black Took Collective s creation of an intimate poetics of performance Together these explorations of poetic friendship open up new avenues for interrogating contemporary American poetry Contributors Maria Damon Andrew Epstein Ross Hair Duriel E Harris Daniel Kane Dawn

Lundy Martin Peter Middleton Linda Russo Lytle Shaw Ann Vickery Barrett Watten Ronaldo V Wilson Placing Poetry Ian Davidson, Zoë Skoulding, 2013 The essays in this volume present a thorough re evaluation of the idea of place for the twenty first century linking across theoretical interests in space and spatialisation and in motion and mobility Placing becomes an active process that happens in different parts of the world and there is work here from the countries of the United Kingdom from Ireland the USA Australia and mainland Europe Placing also happens in different contexts in the Production of visual images in translation in performance and in poetry that is both there and here The range of poets under consideration matches the breadth of the range of the Contributors International in scope and drawn from a variety of practices and processes their combination in a single volume leads to unusual connections and new readings of their work A History of Irish Women's Poetry Ailbhe Darcy, David Wheatley, 2021-07-01 A History of Irish Women's Poetry is a ground breaking and comprehensive account of Irish women's poetry from earliest times to the present day It reads Irish women's poetry through many prisms mythology gender history the nation and most importantly close readings of the poetry itself It covers major figures such as Míre Mhac an tSaoi Eavan Boland Eilín Ní Chuiléain as well as neglected figures from the past Writing in both English and Irish is considered and close attention paid to the many different contexts in which Irish women's poetry has been produced and received from the anonymous work of the early medieval period through the bardic age the coterie poets of Anglo Ireland the nationalist balladeers of Young Ireland the Irish Literary Revival and the advent of modernity As capacious as it is diverse this book is an essential contribution to scholarship in the field Assembling Alternatives Romana Huk, 2003-04-29 First anthology to examine the national borders of postmodern poetry Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby, 2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s Avant-folk Ross Hair, 2016 A critical study of the intersection of folk and avant garde poetics in transatlantic small press poetry networks from the 1950s up to the present Contemporary Olson David Herd, 2016-05-16 As poet critic theorist and teacher Charles Olson extended the possibilities of modern writing From Call Me Ishmael his pioneering study of Herman Melville to his epic poetic project The Maximus Poems Olson probed the relation between language space and community Writing in the aftermath of the Second World War he provided radical resources for the re imagining of place and politics resources for collective thought and creative practice we are still learning how to use Re situating Olson's work in relation both to his own moment and to current concerns the essays assembled in Contemporary Olson provide a major re assessment of his place in postwar poetry and culture Through a series of contextualising chapters discussions of individual poems and reflections on Olson's legacy by leading international writers and critics the book presents a poet who still informs contemporary poetry whose thought and compositional innovations continue to provoke Remote as some of his fascinations must now seem Olson is shown nonetheless to offer a poetry and poetics that speaks clearly to our own fraught historical moment Contemporary

Olson opens this major writer to new readings and new readers The Salt Companion to Lee Harwood Robert Sheppard, 2007 This is the first book to offer a comprehensive overview of the work of important British poet Lee Harwood from his earliest writing as a follower of French Surrealism and New York poetry when he was a leading light of the Underground poetry of the 1960s through to his long work The Long Black Veil and his major work since It examines his work in terms of influence poetics gender sexuality eco politics as well as evidence of the spatial turn in contemporary culture It also assesses his work in prose The writers are drawn from a wide range of literary backgrounds and approaches but the editor draws these together in his introduction which is followed by his own account of the story of Harwood's development as well as the text of an unpublished interview with him The book contains a useful bibliography of Harwood's work More generally it demonstrates how various schools of criticism may be used to illumine a single topic and how these may be compared The writers include some of the major critics of British alternative poetry as well as some newcomers who offer a fresh view of this much loved work Contemporary Views on the Little Magazine Scene Wolfgang Görtschacher, 2000 Eric Mottram Bill Griffiths, 1998 Dictionary of Munster Women Writers 1800-2000 Tina O'Toole, 2005 This dictionary will make an important contribution the knowledge of writing in Munster in both Irish and English over the past 200 years The dictionary has entries on 560 writers including 220 in Irish Each entry contains a bibliographical note a list of key references and a bibliography where applicable advances literary and cultural as distinct from primarily historical research on the region of Munster over the last two centuries enables a new view as a whole of the work of women writers juxtaposes the work of Irish English language and bilingual writers and thereby helps to develop an understanding of the province of Munster as a diverse cultural milieu and focus on the role of regionality in the process of cultural creation The Munster Women Writers Project based in the English Department at University College Cork was a recovery project aiming to make available the basic materials for biographical and literary research and analysis on the extensive number of women writers with Munster backgrounds or strong Munster connections in the period 1800-2000 The objective was to make more information on these writers available for future literary historians feminist critics and social historians to develop knowledge and understanding of this material By making available the basic materials for scholarly research in this field the project aims to help generate critical analysis of the role of regional class and gender factors in the formation of writers and the intersection of these factors in the nature of the work produced Fragmente , 1995
