Prospects For People With Severe Learning Difficulties:

Prospects for People with Learning Difficulties Stanley Segal,Ved Varma,2018-09-03 First published in 1991 This work published in honour of Professor Peter Mittler is concerned with the prospects for people with severe learning difficulties and how they have developed since the 1960s The internationally known team of contributors provide not only an overview of the developments in their fields but also speculate on future developments both positive and negative People with

Profound & Multiple Learning Disabilities Penny Lacey,Carol Oyvry,2013-11-26 First Published in 1999 This book is designed to be useful to practitioners working with children and adults with profound and multiple learning disabilities PMLD It was born out of a need for a practically based text book for participants on a course devoted to the study of PMLD but became a project to provide discussion of interest to anyone wishing to reflect on their work in this field It is hoped that the nineteen chapters in this book will provide a broad ranging resource for practitioners who work with children and or adults with PMLD in education health social care and voluntary settings and for those studying on advanced courses

Adults With Learning Difficulties Sutcliffe, Jeannie,1990-11-01 This is a practical handbook for all those who wish to offer high quality learning opportunities to adults with learning difficulties It stresses the quality of provision throughout and is illustrated by many examples of good practice from all areas of curriculum and delivery The importance of the widest possible range of learning opportunities is also emphasized and providers are urged to go beyond the limited menu of basic and social skills For toolong education has been a process done to rather than with this group of learners This book advocates a learner centred approach based on choice and decision making by people with learning difficulties Problem

Behaviour and People with Severe Learning Disabilities Ewa Zarkowska,John Clements,2018-09-03 First published in 1994 This book is a practical guide for those involved in the daily care education and development of people with learning disabilities and additional behavioural and emotional disturbances It will assist professional helpers in understanding the nature of an individual s difficulties and in developing interventions aimed at alleviating them Problem Behaviour and

People with Severe Learning Disabilities JOHN CLEMENTS EWA ZARKOWSKA,2013-11-27 Enabling Access Barry Carpenter,Chris Stevens,Keith Bovair,Rob Ashdown,2014-04-08 First Published in 1997 In special education we are at last in a good position to offer pupils a broad and balanced curriculum which is relevant to their needs and which is based on the same range of provision enjoyed by all pupils Such a curriculum can only be planned as a cohesive whole compartmentalizing aspects of the whole curriculum risks seeing one part as having more merit or worth than another The whole curriculum in ail schools will vary depending on local needs and opportunities In special education it is important that we embrace that whole curriculum using its diversity and opportunity to plan for breadth balance and relevance This book makes a significant contribution to the developments in planning for access to the whole curriculum Creating a Responsive Environment for People with Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties Jean Ware,2012-10-12 This revised and updated second edition aims to enable teachers and care staff working with people with PMLD in any context to create a positive interactive environment for the people with whom they work Using information from the latest research and from everyday practice the author discusses the different aspects of a responsive environment and suggests practical strategies that staff can use to create such an atmosphere

Overcoming Exclusion Peter J. Mittler,2013 Professor Peter Mittler brings together nineteen of his key writings in one place including chapters from his best selling books and articles from leading journals which give a flavour of the impact or controversy they aroused

Severe Learning Disabilities John Clements,1987-12-31 Examines the way psychology can be used to understand and remedy the learning and behavioral difficulties experienced by people with severe intellectual impairment and learning disabilities The author draws from a wide range of psychological research both academic and applied and commends the value of research to improvements in practice He stresses the need to integrate diverse areas of psychological research bridging the gap between research and practice

Services for People with Learning Disabilities Nigel Malin,2002-11-01 Services for People with Learning Disabilities provides a broad review of available services for people with learning disabilities It describes the present network of services and explains the NHS and Community Care Act 1990 in terminology accessible to health care professionals and others engaged in this area It looks in detail at the concepts underpinning new legislation including care management and assessment quality and inspection and inter agency planning and it supplies up to date information on current topics such as advocacy and empowerment and recreation and leisure An invaluable resource for all practitioners in health and community care Services for People with Learning Disabilities will also give professionals and carers a much greater understanding of the changes and improvements that are still needed

Independent Living for Adults with Autism and Asperger Syndrome Alan Bicknell,1999

Educating Children with Fragile X Syndrome Denise Dew-Hughes,2003-12-16 This book provides invaluable information support and guidance on educating a child with Fragile X background on the origins of this syndrome and what the implications are for such a child s teaching and learning

Young People Not in Education, Employment Or Training Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Children, Schools and Families Committee,2010 Young people not in education employment or Training Eighth report of session 2009 10 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence

Practice Issues in Sexuality and Learning Disabilities Ann Craft,2004-08-02 Practice Issues in Sexuality and Learning Disabilities explores the sexual behaviour of people with learning difficulties and addresses issues of concern such as sexual abuse HIV and AIDS service provision for those from ethnic minorities the development of policy guidelines and the implementation of such guidelines in this intensely personal area Ann Craft draws upon professional expertise from a broad range of backgrounds including social work psychology and medicine She offers practical ideas and suggestions for service responses which acknowledge and respect the right of people with learning disabilities to express their sexuality in ways that are valued by other members of their society Practice Issues in Sexuality and Learning Disabilities will be of interest to all whose work or relationship brings them into contact with people with learning disabilities professionals carers parents advocates It will be invaluable to social workers practitioners in social work and health trainees training officers and voluntary organizations A Different View of Curriculum and Assessment for Severe, Complex and Profound Learning Disabilities Peter Imray,Lila Kossvaki,Michael Sissons,2023-12-01 A Different View of Curriculum and Assessment links a theoretical pedagogical model with a sympathetic practical model of curriculum and assessment difference for those with PMLD CLD and SLD Split into two parts this accessible resource combines theoretical explanations with first hand accounts of how this works in educational establishments through the analysis of evidence based practice carried out in a number of English special specialist schools The expert authors challenge the notion that a national or common core standards curriculum however expertly differentiated is fit for purpose for the PMLD CLD and SLD populations in any country A Different View offers cogent and reasoned arguments for considering that irrespective of age such learners learn differently to their neuro typical conventionally developing peers If they learn differently this book shows how we should be teaching them differently Reflecting the centrality of process over product this book will clearly explain how each individual learner might be enabled and facilitated to become the best they can be and do the best they can do in order to fully realise their potential as equal and independent citizens Researching Learning Difficulties Jill Porter,Penny Lacey,2005 The authors provide a guide which points the reader to sources that can engage more deeply with the issues raised and as such is a useful resource for anyone wanting to know more about researching learning difficulties British Journal of Special Education This book is highly recommended and endorsed It celebrates the diversity of work that is currently undertaken in the field of learning difficulties with a concern to enable people working within different spheres of activity to share something of their work to contribute to the bigger picture As part of an academic school or staff development resource library this book will aid stimulate and focus researchers at all levels to hone their selected methods evaluate results and critically judge qualitative and quantitative data Special Children This timely book written in a highly accessible way provides a coherent basis for users as well as practitioners of research involving children and young people with learning difficulties Ann Lewis Professor of Special Education and Educational Psychology University of Birmingham This book is for researchers teachers and other professionals working with children and people with learning difficulties It will enable them to access research in learning difficulties drawing on other disciplines understand different types of research methodology and their strengths and limitations examine how researchers must consider the constraints on methodology because of the characteristics of the field and understand the particular issues of small scale research and participatory research explore new methodologies that are developing in the field The authors recognize that there are tensions especially the difficulty of validating research on small varied populations in a wide range of schools community and other settings The book will help readers to critically evaluate the implications of research reports for their own practice This book is for researchers teachers and professionals in specialist and inclusive community and educational settings following courses of continuing professional development doing research Masters and Doctorate Education Social Sciences Psychology Public Policy It is relevant to practitioners working with people with learning difficulties across a range of settings Expanding Possibilities for Inclusive Learning Kristine Black-Hawkins,Ashley Grinham-Smith,2022-10-12 While many teachers articulate a strong commitment to the values of equity and excellence underpinning inclusive education they are often anxious about teaching increasingly diverse classes of children This book co authored by researchers and practitioners offers a strong foundation in the key principles theories and debates that underpin current understandings of inclusive education and their implications for the development of inclusive learning for all members of a school s community Drawing on a wide range of recent research and practice Expanding Possibilities for Inclusive Learning offers perspectives on inclusion from teachers school leaders other practitioners children and parents Readers are encouraged to reflect on their own beliefs knowledge and practices as they plan to expand possibilities for inclusive learning in their own context Each chapter provides reflective and practical activities to support practitioners to try out ideas in classrooms and schools As part of the Unlocking Research series the book draws on recent research to enrich the professional development of student and practising teachers teaching assistants and school leaders The examples of practice and reflective activities that run throughout offer authentic opportunities to challenge existing practices and policies and bring about meaningful change Whose Choice? Judith Coupe-O'Kane,Juliet Goldbart,2018-09-03 First published in 1996 Three major and topical issues which affect the lives of people with learning difficulties and those who work and live with them are sexuality integration and age appropriateness These issues are contentious and controversial and there are no simple solutions In this book preconceived established and sometimes narrow views of what constitutes integration sexuality and age appropriateness are challenged and a discussion of thought provoking alternatives are explored from the perspective of the child or adult with learning difficulties Improving Work Opportunities for People with a Learning Disability Great Britain. Working Group on Learning Disabilities,2006 Adult Day Services and Social Inclusion Chris L. Clark,2001 Placing adult day services within the whole spectrum of social provision the contributors to this book explore their complementary role alongside field social work health care domiciliary services and supported accommodation Professionals in all sectors of social care will find it an essential guide to the provision of an effective day service
