Prosperity Without Progress Norman Owen, 2022-08-19 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984      Prosperity Without Progress Norman G. Owen, 1984      Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell's study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond This book addresses not only South East Asianists but all those with an interest in the anthropology of religion and post colonial cultures Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines has won the Harry J Benda prize for 2001      Foreign Investment in Southeast Asia in the Twentieth Century J. Lindblad, 1998-01-14 This monograph is the first book length study of foreign direct investment in Southeast Asia during both the late colonial period and in the contemporary period It examines the leading Southeast Asian countries receiving foreign investment this century The arrival of today's Asian investors from Japan and the four Asian NICs is described after a brief discussion of the transitionary period of warfare decolonization and assertion of newly independent states Special attention is given to the impact of foreign investment on the economic development of the host country      The End of the Peasantry in Southeast Asia R.E. Elson, 2016-01-13 This book analyses the changing context and conditions of production and livelihood amongst Southeast Asia's peasants since the beginning of the nineteenth century It argues that with demographic growth and the nineteenth century development of great global markets based on small scale production the size and economic significance of peasantries throughout the region was magnified However such changes brought with them new forces stronger states more regular legal systems a revolution in communications intensive commercialisation which themselves worked to undermine the foundations of peasant society and eventually to transform peasants into farmers workers and citizens      Political Booms Lynn T. White, 2009 Why have Taiwan rich parts of China and Thailand boomed famously while the Philippines has long remained stagnant both economically and politically Do booms abet democracy Does the rise of middle OC classes OCO promise future liberalization Why has Philippine democracy brought no boom and barely served the Filipino people This book unlike most previous studies shows that both the roots and results of growth are largely political rather than economic. Specifically, it pays attention to local not just national power networks that caused or prevented growth in the four places under consideration. Violence has been common in these polities along with money. Elections have contributed to socio-political problems that are also obvious in Leninist or junta regimes because elections are surprisingly easy to buy with corrupt money from government contracts. Liberals should pay more serious theoretical attention to the effects of money on justice and Western political science should focus more clearly on the ways non-state local power affects elections. By considering the effects on fair justice of local money and power largely from small and medium-sized firms that emerge after agrarian reforms, this book asks democrats to face squarely the extent to which electoral procedures fail to help ordinary citizens. Students and scholars of Asia will all need this book. OCo as will students of the West whose methods have become parochial. The Representation of External Threats

,2019-03-27 In The Representation of External Threats, Eberhard Crailsheim and Mar a Dolores Elizalde present a collection of articles that trace the phenomenon of external threats in a multitude of settings across Asia, America, and Europe. The scope ranges from military threats against the Byzantine rulers of the 7th century to the perception of cultural and economic threats in the late 19th century Atlantic and includes conceptual threats to the construction of national histories. Focussing on the different ways in which such threats were socially constructed, the articles offer a variety of perspectives and interdisciplinary methods to understand the development and representations of external threats, concentrating on the effect of threat communication for societies and political actors. Contributors are Anna Abalian, Vladimir Belous, Eberhard Crailsheim, Mar a Dolores Elizalde, Rodrigo Escribano, Roca Simon, C Kemper, Irena Kozmanov, David Manzano, Cosano Federico Niglia, Derek Kane, O Leary, Alexandr Osipian, Pedro Ponte e Sousa, Theresia Raum, Jean No l Sanchez, Marie Schreier, Stephan Steiner, Srikanth Thaliyakkattil, Ionut Untea, and Qiong Yu. Healing the Herds, Karen Brown, Daniel Gilfoyle, 2010-01-15 During the early 1990s, the ability of dangerous diseases to pass between animals and humans was brought once more to the public consciousness. These concerns continue to raise questions about how livestock diseases have been managed over time and in different social, economic, and political circumstances. Healing the Herds: Disease, Livestock Economies, and the Globalization of Veterinary Medicine brings together case studies from the Americas, western Europe, and the European and Japanese colonies to illustrate how the rapid growth of the international trade in animals through the nineteenth century engendered the spread of infectious diseases, sometimes with devastating consequences for indigenous pastoral societies. At different times and across much of the globe, livestock epidemics have challenged social order and provoked state interventions, often opposed by farmers and herders. The intensification of agriculture has transformed environments with consequences for animal and human health. But the last two centuries have also witnessed major changes in the way societies have conceptualized diseases and sought to control them. From the late nineteenth century, advances in veterinary technologies afforded veterinary scientists a new professional status and allowed them to wield greater political influence While older methods have remained important to strategies of control and prevention as demonstrated during the outbreak of foot and mouth disease in Britain in 2001 the rise of germ theories and the discovery of vaccines against some infections made it possible to move beyond the blunt tools of animal culls and restrictive quarantines of the past Healing the Herds Disease Livestock Economies and the Globalization of Veterinary Medicine offers a new and exciting comparative approach to the complex interrelationships of microbes markets and medicine in the global economy Cultures of Disaster Greg Bankoff,2003-08-27 In this fascinating and comprehensive study Greg Bankoff traces the history of natural hazards in the Philippines from the records kept by the Spanish colonisers to the Calamitous Nineties and assesses the effectiveness of the relief mechanisms that have evolved to cope with these occurrences He also examines the correlation between this history of natural disasters and the social hierarchy within Filipino society The constant threat of disaster has been integrated into the schema of daily life to such an extent that a culture of disaster has been formed Routledge

Handbook of Southeast Asian History Norman Owen,2014-04-23 The study of the history of Southeast Asia is still growing evolving deepening and changing as an academic field Over the past few decades historians have added nuance to traditional topics such as Islam and nationalism and created new ones such as gender globalization and the politics of memory The Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian History looks at the major themes that have developed in the study of modern Southeast Asian history since the mid 18th century Contributions by experts in the field are clustered under three major headings Political History Economic History and Social and Cultural History and chapters challenge the boundaries between topics and regions Alongside the rise and fall of colonialism topics include conflict in Southeast Asia tropical ecology capitalism and its discontents the major religions of the region gender and ethnicity The Handbook provides a stimulating introduction to the most important themes within the subject area and is an invaluable reference work for any student and researcher on Southeast Asia and Asian and World history The Sea Peter N. Miller,2013-04-16 A unique volume that addresses how a thalassographic frame opens up new and important questions for the study of history Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies Vestiges of War Angel Velasco Shaw,Luis H. Modern Southeast Asia, 1350-1800 Ooi Keat Gin, Hoang Anh Tuan, 2015-10-08 This book presents extensive new research findings on and new thinking about Southeast Asia in this interesting richly diverse but much understudied period. It examines the wide and well developed trading networks, explores the different kinds of regimes and the nature of power and security, considers urban growth, international relations and the beginnings of European involvement with the region, and discusses religious factors, in particular the spread and impact of Christianity. One key theme of the book is the consideration of how well developed Southeast Asia was before the onset of European involvement and how during the peak of the commercial boom in the 1500s and 1600s many polities in Southeast Asia were not far behind Europe in terms of socio-economic progress and attainments.

Nations and States in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 1998-05-13 This reflective and provocative 1998 book outlines the emergence of the nation states of modern Southeast Asia. It considers various ways of looking at Southeast Asian history, combining narrative analysis and discussion. The book focuses mainly on the period from the eighteenth century to the present. It is divided into three sections: the first gives a broad historical overview of Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei, the Philippines, Burma, Myanmar, Vietnam, and Siam, Thailand; the second reflects in a comparative context on significant problems in understanding Southeast Asia's past and present; the third explores the current state of writing Southeast Asian history. Underlying the discussion is an awareness of how ongoing tensions between East and West shape history and frame the present. This book reflects a lifetime's scholarship and will become a major interpretive synthesis of modern Southeast Asia.

Slavery and Bonded Labor in Asia, 1250-1900, 2021-10-11 Slavery and Bonded Labor in Asia 1250-1900 is the first collection of studies to focus on slavery and related forms of labor throughout Asia. The 15 chapters by an international group of scholars assess the current state of Asian slavery studies, discuss new research on slave systems in Asia, identify avenues for future research, and explore new approaches to reconstructing the history of slavery and bonded labor in Asia, and by extension elsewhere in the globe. Individual chapters examine slavery, slave trading, abolition, and bonded labor in places as diverse as Ceylon, China, India, Korea, the Mongol Empire, the Philippines, the Sulu Archipelago, and Timor, in local, regional, pan-regional, and comparative contexts. Contributors are Richard B. Allen, Michael D. Bennett, Claude Chevalyere, Jeff Fynn, Paul Hans H. Gerdal, Shawna Herzog, Jessica Hinchy, Kumari Jayawardena, Rachel Kurian, Bonny Ling, Christopher Lovins, Stephanie Mawson, Anthony Reid, James Francis Warren, Don J. Wyatt, Harriet T. Zurndorfer.
