Prosperity's Promise The Amazon Rubber Boom And Distorted Economic Development:

Prosperity's Promise Bradford L Barham, Oliver Coomes, 1996-09-12 This study provides the first integrative economic analysis of one of Latin America's most explosive natural resource export booms. The authors combine economic and geographical perspectives to build persuasive theoretical and empirical arguments linking micro and macroeconomic processes and to explain the key features and outcomes of the boom. They conclude by laying out the essential lessons learned for assessing the role of resource extraction in developing regional economies. Latin American Peasants Tom Brass, 2004-08-02 The essays in this collection examine agrarian transformation in Latin America and the role in this of peasants with particular reference to Bolivia, Peru, Chile, Brazil, and Central America. Among the issues covered are the impact of globalization and neo-liberal economic policies. The Rise and Fall of the Amazon Rubber Industry Stephen Nugent, 2017-12-05 In this engaging book, Stephen Nugent offers an in-depth historical anthropology of a widely recognised feature of the Amazon region, examining the dramatic rise and fall of the rubber industry. He considers rubber in the Amazon from the perspective of a long-term extractive industry that linked remote forest tappers to technical innovations central to the industrial transformation of Europe and North America, emphasizing the links between the social landscape of Amazonia and the global economy. Through a critical examination focused on the rubber industry, Nugent addresses myths that continue to influence perceptions of Amazonia. The book challenges widely held assumptions about the hyper-naturalism of the lost world of the Amazon, where the challenge of the tropics is still to be faced and the frontiers of development are still to be settled. It is relevant for students and scholars of anthropology, Latin American studies, history, political ecology, geography, and development studies. Latin America 2012 Robert T.
