Protest Change Studies In Social Movem:

Research in Social Movements, Conflicts and Change Patrick G. Coy,2018-10-16 This important collection addresses the critically important dimensions of the relationships that social movements their activists and their organizations have with the state and other institutions It also examines three movements linked by frame and discourse analysis before concluding with a survey of the biographical trajectory of activism

Social Protest and Policy Change Marco Giugni,2004-06-10 While movement activists spend much of their time and energy trying to change the world and we think that social movements often matter our theoretical and empirical knowledge in this field is still relatively poor Social Protest and Policy Change offers a systematic and empirically grounded analysis of the impact of three major contemporary movements on public policy Following a comparative and historical perspective the author argues that the policy impact of social movements is facilitated by the presence of favorable political opportunity structures and more precisely by the presence of institutional allies among the elites and by a favorable public opinion Furthermore the very content of the movements demands also plays a role insofar as the power holders are more willing to make concessions on certain issues than on others On the basis of a historical overview of the mobilization of ecology antinuclear and peace movements in the United States Italy and Switzerland and using a unique body of original data the book presents the results of time series analyses showing the joint effect of protest political alliances and shifts in public opinion for movements that do not address issues that pose too serious a threat to the power holders

Social Movements and the Change of Economic Elites in Europe after 1945 Stefan Berger,Marcel Boldorf,2018-05-29 This book explores the changing nature of social movements and economic elites in post Second World War Europe In the years following 1945 Europe faced diverse challenges connected by the overriding question of how the reconstruction of the continent should proceed For the Central Powers the implementation lay in the hands of the Allied occupying forces who organised the process of denazification and the establishment of a new economic order In countries without military occupation there was a deep gap between the new governmental forces and the former collaborators In both cases social movements which were formed by anti fascists on the left of the political spectrum assumed the task of social reorganisation The chapters in this book explore the discourses about economic systems and their elites which moved to the fore across a range of European countries uncovering who was involved what resistance these social movements faced and how these ultimately failed in the West to bring about change while in Eastern Europe Stalinism forcibly imposed change
