Proust And Musil:

Proust and Musil Gene Martin Moore, 1981 Proust and Musil Gene M. Moore, 1985 Narrative Ironies Raymond A. Prier, Gerald Gillespie, 2023-04-12 This volume focuses on the flourishing of irony as a primary characteristic of the great era of European narrative sophistication from the Goethezeit to Modernism Its eighteenth essays explore varieties of ironic consciousness associated with texts especially of northern Europe and the ways they established a dialogue with and on literature and culture at large As the volume shows this interrogation of Europe's self-awareness of cultural identity bound up in reading and writing habits gained a new post-Cervantine complexity in Romanticism and has been of lasting significance for literary theory down to postmodernism By its comparativistic framing of the issues raised by ironic consciousness Narrative Ironies duly serves as a Festschrift honoring Lilian R Furst Among major writers treated are Sterne Goethe Godwin Schlegel Hoffmann Poe Stendhal Kierkegaard Disraeli Keller Maupassant Zola Huysmans Wilde Tolstoy Hofmannsthal Strindberg Proust Mann Musil Kafka Joyce Faulkner and Szczypiorski Fiction Refracts Science Allen Thiher, 2005 Examines the relationship between science and the fiction developed by modernists including Musil Proust Kafka and Joyce Looks at Pascalian and Newtonian cosmology Darwinism epistemology relativity theory quantum mechanics the development of modernist and postmodern fiction positivism and finally works by Woolf Faulkner and Borges Provided by publisher The World as Metaphor in Robert Musil's *The Man Without Qualities Genese Grill, 2012 The first study to utilize the Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's Nachlass offers a close reading of textual variations emphasizing Musil's commitment to the artist's role in re-creating the world Robert Musil known to be a scientific and philosophical thinker was committed to aesthetics as a process of experimental creation of an ever-shifting reality Musil wanted above all to be a creative writer and obsessively engaged in almost endless deferral via variations and metaphoric possibilities in his novel project The Man without Qualities This lifelong process of writing is embodied in the unfinished novel by a recurring metaphor of self-generating de-centered circle worlds The present study analyzes this structure with reference to Musil's concepts of the utopia of the Other Condition Living and Dead Words Specific and Non-Specific Emotions Word Magic and the Still Life In contrast to most recent studies of Musil it concludes that the extratemporal metaphoric experience of the Other Condition does not fail but rather constitutes the formal and ethical core of Musil's novel The first study to utilize the newly published Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's literary remains a searchable annotated text The World as Metaphor offers a close reading of variations and text genesis shedding light not only on Musil's novel but also on larger questions about the modernist artist's role and responsibility in consciously re-creating the world Genese Grill holds a PhD in Germanic Literatures and Languages from the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York The Enthusiasts Robert Musil, 1983 A philosophical erotic comedy of ideas in which the old world is threatened by new ideas of sexual freedom and scientific scepticism Science and Structure in Proust's A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Nicola

Luckhurst,2000 Proust is read as a writer of maxims and metaphors of short and long sentences as at once an aesthete and a scientific thinker His A la recherche du temps perdu is a hybrid a novel essay an epistemological debate that crosses the boundaries between two cultures art and science Science and Structure explores the epistemological alertness and anxiety of Proust s masterpiece and in so doing illuminates the interrelations between modernist art and science Irony and the Logic of Modernity Armen Avanessian,2015-09-14 The logic of modernity is an ironical logic Modern irony a flash of genius produced by Romantic theorists is first discussed e g in Hegel and Kierkegaard as an ethical problem personified in figures such as the aesthete the seducer the flaneur or the dandy It fully develops in the novel the modern genre par excellence in novels of the early 19th century no less than in those of postmodernity or in those of the masters of citation parody and pastiche of classical modernism Musil Joyce and Proust This book however goes one step further Looking at how such different authors as Schmitt Kafka and Rorty identify the political conflicts contradictions and paradoxes of the 20th century as ironical and offers a comprehensive account of the constitutive irony of modernity s ethical poetical and political logic

The Critical Response to Musil's The Man Without Qualities Timothy J. Mehigan,2003 Table of contents Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Beyond Postmodernism Klaus Stierstorfer,2012-05-02 After the veritable hype concerning postmodernism in the 1980s and early 1990s when questions about when it began what it means and which texts it comprises were apt to trigger heated discussions the excitement has notably cooled down at the turn of the century Voices are now beginning to be heard which seem to suggest a new episteme in the making which points beyond postmodernism while it remains at the same time very uncertain whether what appears as newness is not rather a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Contributors to this volume propose to explore new openings and recent developments in anglophone literatures and cultural theories which engage with issues seen to be central in the construction of a postmodern paradigm but deal with them in ways that promise new openings or a new Zeitgeist Landmarks in the German Novel Peter Hutchinson,2007 There is a large pool of German novelists in whose oeuvre we may look for works of landmark significance and at certain periods of its history German fiction is particularly rich Yet although the novel begins to assert itself in the seventeenth century we have to wait until the late eighteenth and Goethe s first major prose work Werther to see it truly rise to the level of other genres The thirteen novels featured in this collection have all proved milestones in the development of the form and there is heavy prominence given to works by Goethe himself and by Thomas Mann Through these as well as those by such figures as Kafka Hesse and Günter Grass we can trace the development of the novel to its far more self-conscious form ranging through the social studies of the nineteenth to works which treat a variety of intellectual psychological and philosophical issues in the twentieth A second volume will cover landmarks published between 1959 and the present day These essays all by specialists in the relevant field were originally delivered as lectures in the University of Cambridge Partisan Review, 1954 The Languages of World Literature Achim Höltzer, 2024-03-04 This volume opens the series of papers presented at the Vienna Congress of AILC ICLA 2016 beginning with eight keynotes Thirty-four further papers are dedicated to the central theme of the conference the linguistic side of world literature under different focal points The volume further contains five roundtables the papers of a workshop of the UNESCO memory of the worlds programme a presentation of the avdigital.de platform as well as several bibliographically enriched overviews of the special lexicography of comparative literature up to date versions of the ICLA publications and an example of multiple translations of a famous modern classic Twentieth-Century Literary Criticism Dennis Poupard, 1984-03 Presents literary criticism on the works of twentieth-century writers of all genres nations and cultures Critical essays are selected from leading sources including published journals magazines books reviews diaries interviews radio and television transcripts pamphlets and scholarly papers Subjectivity and Identity Peter V. Zima, 2015-06-18 Subjectivity and Identity is a philosophical and interdisciplinary study that critically evaluates critically the most important philosophical sociological psychological and literary debates on subjectivity and the subject Starting from a history of the concept of the subject from modernity to postmodernity from Descartes and Kant to Adorno and Lyotard Peter V Zima distinguishes between individual collective mythical and other subjects Most texts on subjectivity and the subject present the topic from the point of view of a single discipline philosophy sociology psychology or theory of literature In Subjectivity and Identity Zima links philosophical approaches to those of sociology psychology and literary criticism The link between philosophy and sociology is social philosophy e.g. Althusser Marcuse Habermas the link between philosophy and literary criticism is aesthetics e.g. Adorno Lyotard Vattimo Philosophy and psychology can be related thanks to the psychological implications of several philosophical concepts of subjectivity Hobbes Stirner Sartre Deconstruction and Critical Theory Peter V.
