Islamic Gardens and Landscapes D. Fairchild Ruggles, 2011-12-30 Western admirers have long seen the Islamic garden as an earthly reflection of the paradise said to await the faithful However such simplification Ruggles contends denies the sophistication and diversity of the art form Islamic Gardens and Landscapes immerses the reader in the world of the architects of the great gardens of the Islamic world from medieval Morocco to contemporary India Just as Islamic culture is historically dense sophisticated and complex so too is the history of its built landscapes Islamic gardens began from the practical need to organize the surrounding space of human civilization tame nature enhance the earth's yield and create a legible map on which to distribute natural resources Ruggles follows the evolution of these early farming efforts to their aristocratic apex in famous formal gardens of the Alhambra in Spain and the Taj Mahal in Agra Whether in a humble city home or a royal courtyard the garden has several defining characteristics which Ruggles discusses Most notable is an enclosed space divided into four equal parts surrounding a central design element The traditional Islamic garden is inwardly focused usually surrounded by buildings or in the form of a courtyard Water provides a counterpoint to the portioned green sections Ranging across poetry court documents agronomy manuals and early garden representations and richly illustrated with pictures and site plans Islamic Gardens and Landscapes is a book of impressive scope sure to interest scholars and enthusiasts alike Architecture, Islam, and Identity in West Africa Michelle Apotsos, 2016-05-20 Architecture Islam and Identity in West Africa shows you the relationship between architecture and Islamic identity in West Africa The book looks broadly across Muslim West Africa and takes an in depth study of the village of Larabanga a small Muslim community in Northern Ghana to help you see how the built environment encodes cultural history through form material and space creating an architectural narrative that outlines the contours of this distinctive Muslim identity Apotsos explores how modern technology heritage and tourism have increasingly affected the contemporary architectural character of this community revealing the village s current state of social cultural and spiritual flux More than 60 black and white images illustrate how architectural components within this setting express the distinctive narratives value systems and realities that make up the unique composition of this Afro Islamic community The Arts J. REYNOLDS, 2024-11-19 Considers how elite women could participate in Crusade their means and motivations The popular perception of the medieval Crusades is of conflicts spanning from the Holy Land to the Baltic with huge armies of religious zealots led by knights wearing crosses However the reality is far more nuanced The vast majority of those living in western Europe did not go on crusade at all But that does not mean that crusading was not on their minds or that they could not influence the movement They urged others to take up the cross provided financial support and prayed for the campaigns in the Holy Land for them this was crusade This book investigates how English laywomen were encouraged to support crusades and identify with holy war during the Middle Ages challenging preconceptions of what crusade meant and bringing out the diverse ways of their participation It draws on detailed analysis of cartularies judicial records chronicles and lyrical sources it also examines the rich material culture of commemoration that celebrated the endeavour alongside the papal propaganda which idealised women s sponsorship of crusade This study therefore sheds new light not only on the role of women in crusade but on their influence and piety more generally      New Gardens in Provence Louisa Jones,2006-10 Garden makers from all over the world are redefining Mediterranean style in harmony with international trends From the smallest city courtyard to the largest landscape projects these creations set off the famous Proven al landscapes in a hundred different ways      Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner,Mary F.
