Chase, 2024-10-15 Female identity is fraught and fetishized commercialized and contested so potent a weapon in contemporary cultural warfare that a sitting US senator had no shame in asking a nominee to the Supreme Court to define woman But the battle over female identity is not of modern invention Its roots are ancient And in the Hebrew Bible one text has served as the focal point of both classical and fashionable conceptions of female identity Proverbs 31 A timeless pattern of femininity for some and a punchline for others the poems themselves have received wildly differing levels of analysis with too much ink spent on the ideal woman and far too little on political rebukes and economic displacement The Proverbial Woman offers a comprehensive narrative and dialogical approach to the text that unearths the poetry's social sexual and political silences and silencings It highlights the forgotten characters the women who destroy kings the silenced poor displaced peasants and foreigners It examines the text's conflict setting characters and dialogue It encourages the reader to recognize the drama taking place in the text's world and to explore how these features enabled an ancient community pondering these sapiential lines to process their cooperation with empire in an economic system that benefited some and exploited others The Proverbial Woman excavates the power dynamics that promote elite ideologies even as gaps ambiguities and contradictions enable marginalized perspectives within the text to resist them The interpretive approach demonstrated in this study can be replicated among communities today wanting to use biblical texts to construct for themselves a more just and prosperous world

Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto-Abutiate,2014-08-07 In Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto Abutiate juxtaposes chosen sayings from Proverbs and selected Ewe Folk proverbs using the agricultural metaphor of grafting which she calls a hermeneutic of grafting Though these two sets of sayings come from completely different cultural contexts Akoto argues that folk sayings proverbs which abound in Africa should be considered as an already mature established tree on to which a piece of the biblical tree is spliced or engrafted to produce hybridized fruits that have uniquely different tastes than the fruits of each tree individually This metaphorical grafting process allows the message of the Bible in Proverbs to be understood imbibed and appropriated in Africa
