Provincializing Europe:

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2000 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non-Western countries. This imaginary Europe, Dipesh Chakrabarty argues, is built into the social sciences. The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space, secular time, and sovereignty. Measured against such mythical standard, capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking. Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well as a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self-understandings of capitalist modernity. Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics, this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins. From back cover.

Provincializing Europe, 2000 Can European thought be dislodged from the center of the practice of history in a non-European place? What problems arise when we translate cultural practices into the categories of social science? Provincializing Europe is one of the first book-length treatments on how postcolonial thinking impacts on the social sciences. This book explores through a series of linked essays the problems of thought that present themselves when we think of a place such as India through the categories of modern European social science and, in particular, history. Provincializing Europe is a sustained conversation between historical thinking and postcolonial perspectives. It addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of the modern in many histories of capitalist transition in non-Western countries. This imaginary Europe, Chakrabarty argues, is built right into the social sciences. The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space, secular time, and human sovereignty. Measured against such mythical standards, capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking. Chakrabarty finds that Nativism, however, is no answer to Eurocentrism because the universals propounded by European Enlightenment remain indispensable to any social critique that seeks to address issues of social justice and equity. Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well as a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self-understandings of capitalist modernity. Chakrabarty demonstrates both theoretically and with examples from colonial and contemporary India how such translational histories may be thought and written. Provincializing Europe is not a project of shunning European thought. It is a project of globalizing such thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins.

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2009-06-05 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non-Western countries. This imaginary Europe, Dipesh Chakrabarty argues, is built into the social sciences. The very idea of historicizing carries with it

some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standards capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins India's Forests, Real and Imagined Alan Johnson, 2022-12-29 As they seek to explore evolving and conflicting ideas of nationhood and modernity India's writers have often chosen forests as the dramatic setting for stories of national identity India's Forests Real and Imagined explores how these settings have been integral to India's sense of national consciousness Alan Johnson demonstrates that modern writers have drawn on older Indian literary traditions of the forest as a place of exile trial and danger to shape new ideas of India as a modern nation The book casts new light on a wide range of modern writers from Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay widely regarded as the first Indian novelist to contemporary authors such as Amitav Ghosh Arundhati Roy and Salman Rushdie as well as local attitudes to nationhood and the environment across the country How the West Came to Rule Alexander Anievas, Kerem Nişancıoğlu, 2015-06-20 Winner of International Studies Association ISA's International Political Sociology Best Book Prize for 2017 Winner of British International Studies Association BISA's International Political Economy Working Group Book Prize of 2016 Shortlisted for the ISA Book Prize Mainstream historical accounts of the development of capitalism describe a process which is fundamentally European a system that was born in the mills and factories of England or under the guillotines of the French Revolution In this groundbreaking book a very different story is told How the West Came to Rule offers a interdisciplinary and international historical account of the origins of capitalism It argues that contrary to the dominant wisdom capitalism's origins should not be understood as a development confined to the geographically and culturally sealed borders of Europe but the outcome of a wider array of global processes in which non European societies played a decisive role Through an outline of the uneven histories of Mongolian expansion New World discoveries Ottoman Habsburg rivalry the development of the Asian colonies and bourgeois revolutions Alexander Anievas and Kerem Nisancıoğlu provide an account of how these diverse events and processes came together to produce capitalism Europe and Its Boundaries Andrew Davison, Himadeep Muppidi, 2009-01-01 In creating a forum for a deeply hermeneutical consideration of the project of provincializing Europe this book articulates an alternative grammar of global political thought It shows that forms of global political thought are capable of residing simultaneously within as well as significantly beyond the boundaries of European thought Doing Conceptual History in Africa Axel Fleisch, Rhiannon Stephens, 2018-02-21 Employing an innovative methodological toolkit Doing Conceptual History in Africa provides a refreshingly broad and interdisciplinary approach to African historical studies The studies assembled here focus on the complex role of language in Africa's historical development with a particular emphasis on pragmatics and semantics From precolonial dynamics of wealth and poverty to the conceptual foundations of nationalist movements each contribution strikes a balance between the local and the global engaging with a distinctively African intellectual tradition while analyzing the regional and global contexts in which categories like work marriage and land take shape

Liberalism and Colonial Violence Hellena Moon, 2023-01-31 This book explores the aporias of liberal democracy freedom care and justice with the seemingly at odds ideas of neoliberal fascism racism sexism and other forms of violence As Derrick Bell and others have argued that racism is inherent in US democracy I examine the intertwined concepts of justice and freedom with fascist ideas that unsettle democratic practices of freedom and political equality There is ongoing tension that uproots democratic practices driven by the very ideals of democracy itself Freedom is acquired for one group while circumscribing it for others In analyzing the troubling neoliberal fascist leanings of our times I explore the origins of US liberalism to diagnose our current state of politico theological abyss In that regard our own field of pastoral care needs to address its complicity in the current devolving situation of the neoliberal fascist ideologies in US society Fascist and nationalist ideologies rely foremost on perpetuating mythic ideologies masking reality and controlling our epistemologies In charting a new genealogy for spiritual care I argue that the image of care as articulated by W E B DuBois one of Third World liberation that addresses the decoloniality of the entombed soul should be the primary genealogy of spiritual care for our field today

Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014 Since the early 1990s Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post socialism coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics

The Debate on Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital Rosie Warren, 2016-12-13 Leading thinkers critiques of award winning Postcolonial Theory as well as the author s responses and reformulations Vivek Chibber s Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital was hailed on publication as without any doubt a bomb and the most substantive effort to dismantle the field through historical reasoning published to date It immediately unleashed one of the most important recent debates in social theory ranging across the humanities and social sciences on the status of postcolonial studies modernity and much else This book brings together major critics of Chibber s work to assess the efficacy of his argument from differing perspectives Included are Chibber s own spirited responses and reformulations in light of these criticisms With contributions by Partha Chatterjee Gayatri Spivak Bruce Robbins Ho fung Hung William H Sewell Jr Bruce Cumings George Steinmetz Michael Schwartz David Pederson Stein Sundst l Eriksen and Achin Vanaik

Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare Jonathan Gil Harris,2010-11-24 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title The New Historicism of the 1980s and early 1990s was preoccupied with the fashioning of early modern subjects But Jonathan Gil Harris notes the pronounced tendency now is to engage with objects From textiles to stage beards to furniture objects are read by literary critics as closely as literature used to be For a growing number of Renaissance and Shakespeare scholars the play is no longer the thing the thing is the thing Curiously the current wave of thing studies has largely avoided posing questions of time How do we understand time through a thing What is the time of a thing In Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare Harris challenges the ways we conventionally understand physical objects and their relation to history Turning to Renaissance theories of matter Harris considers the profound untimeliness of things focusing particularly on Shakespeare s stage materials He reveals that many Renaissance objects were actually survivals from an older time the medieval monastic properties that post Reformation were recycled as stage props in the public playhouses or the old Roman walls of London still visible in Shakespeare s time Then as now old objects were inherited recycled repurposed they were polytemporal or palimpsested By treating matter as dynamic and temporally hybrid Harris addresses objects in their futurity not just in their encapsulation of the past Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare is a bold study that puts the mat riel the explosive world changing potential back into a material culture that has been too often understood as inert stuff

Civilizational Discourses in Weapons Control Ritu Mathur,2020-07-11 This book seeks to decolonize practices of arms control and disarmament In this endeavor it seeks to problematize our understanding of time and civilization as rhetorical resources The need for such an undertaking can be premised on the claim that while problems of modernity ethnocentrism and universalism are now a central concern within the field of international relations these ideas are scarcely debated or contested within the field of arms control and disarmament The singular focus on technological innovations and specific policy oriented agreements in practices of arms control and disarmament appears to stymie the need for such engagements This book is an invitation to explore intersecting discourses on colonialism racialism nationalism and humanitarianism within a historically grounded terrain of weapons control An understanding of these practices is vital not to prescribe any standards of civilization or exceptionalism in weapons control but to be cognizant through critique of the dangers embedded in any effort at reconstellating the constitutional nuclear order

Modernity in Islamic Tradition Florian Zemmin, 2018-07-23 What does it mean to be modern This study regards the concept of society as foundational to modern self understanding Identifying Arabic conceptualizations of society in the journal al Manar the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts

Sharia and the Making of the Modern Egyptian Reem A. Meshal, 2014-01-01 In this book the author examines sijills the official documents of the Ottoman Islamic courts to understand how sharia law society and the early modern economy of sixteenth and seventeenth century Ottoman Cairo related to the practice of custom in determining rulings In the sixteenth century a new legal and cultural orthodoxy fostered the development of an early modern Islam that broke new ground giving rise to a new concept of the citizen and his role Contrary to the prevailing scholarly view this work adopts the position that local custom began to diminish and decline as a source of authority These issues resonate today several centuries later in the continuing discussions of individual rights in relation to Islamic law

The Top Books of the Year Provincializing Europe The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Provincializing Europe : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
