The Hong Kong Diaries Chris Patten, 2022-06-21 The diaries of the last British Governor of Hong Kong published on the 25th anniversary of the handover In June 1992 Chris Patten went to Hong Kong as the last British governor to try to prepare it not as other British colonies over the decades for independence but for handing back in 1997 to the Chinese from whom most of its territory had been leased 99 years previously Over the next five years he kept this diary which describes in detail how Hong Kong was run as a British colony and what happened as the handover approached The book gives unprecedented insights into negotiating with the Chinese about how the institutions of democracy in Hong Kong were belatedly strengthened and how Patten sought to ensure that a strong degree of self government would continue after 1997 Unexpectedly his opponents included not only the Chinese themselves but some British businessmen and civil service mandarins upset by Patten's efforts for whom political freedom and the rule of law in Hong Kong seemed less important than keeping on the right side of Beijing The book concludes with an account of what has happened in Hong Kong since the handover a powerful assessment of recent events and Patten's reflections on how to deal with China then and now Chef,2007 An introduction to the job of Chef describing the work of a chef the skills and personal qualities required school subjects that are helpful and the training and opportunities that are available Cover How to Make a Million Before Lunch Rachel Bridge,2010-08-05 Fed up with working for someone else Want to start your own business but don't want to wait years to reap the rewards Take every shortcut you can and get there fast As Enterprise Editor of The Sunday Times Rachel Bridge has met hundreds of the world's most successful entrepreneurs Now she shares their expertise to show you the top 20 shortcuts to creating a booming business and the energy sapping time wasting traps to avoid along the way so you too can make a million asap Reinvented Lives Charles Handy,Elizabeth Handy,2011-03-31 Twenty eight women ranging from Anita Roddick and Prue Leith to less well known names write their own personal stories which are accompanied by Elizabeth Handy's black and white photographs and an introductory essay by Charles Handy This generation of women is entering the sixties more healthy more educated and more energetic than most of their mothers The subjects in this book provide the models for what has become for the first time a new age for many women Released from most of the cares and responsibilities that accompany midlife for women they are free to reinvent themselves to give more time to their career or calling or to luxuriate in the serenity and friendships that few had time for in the past Some enter new relationships some start new careers or go back to study some find that their work is only now reaching its peak Many have survived traumas and tragedies but the past is just the prologue as one of them explains
