Pseudocapitalism And The Overpoliticized State Reconciling Politics And Anthropology In Zaire:

Pseudocapitalism and the Overpoliticized State S. N. Sangmpam, 1994 Pseudocapitalism and the Overpoliticized State S. N. Sangmpam, 1994 Using Zaire as a representative of African and Third World countries Sangmpam provides both a critique and an alternative view of the theory of the African state Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant, R. Mark Kirton, 2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part 1 Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus Militocracy vs. Democracy in West Africa 1960s - 1990s Godfrey Mwakikagile, This is a historical narrative and analysis of the unconstitutional changes of government in most West African countries where military rule became institutionalised more than in any other part of the continent from the sixties to the nineties There is no specific reason why the region has suffered from usurpation of power by soldiers more than any other part of the continent besides the desire by soldiers to rule recently demonstrated by coups in Mali in 2020 and 2021 Guinea in 2021 and Burkina Faso in 2022 Governments in West Africa are no more unstable or weaker than their counterparts in other parts of the continent Overthrowing governments became a continental phenomenon when military rulers went on to legitimise their seizure of power through rigged elections by turning themselves into civilian rulers They civilianised themselves not only to claim that they were no longer military rulers but were democratically elected leaders a manipulation of power that triggered counter coups by their opponents to end their rule resulting in many deaths in many countries where this violent change took place Military rule in Africa started soon after independence in the sixties The most ambitious goals in the postcolonial era were consolidation of the state and nation building with varying degrees of success in different parts of the continent Military rulers proved to be no better than their civilian counterparts they had replaced In most cases they were even worse and used coercive power of the state to perpetuate themselves in office just as their civilian counterparts did The result was consolidation of the state as an instrument of oppression the most oppressive apparatus being the executive branch itself invested with all the powers which evolved into the imperial presidency a phenomenon that persists in some African countries legitimised through rigged elections enabling leaders to remain in office under the guise of democracy in the name of the people States and Sovereignty in the Global Economy David Alden Smith, Dorothy J. Solinger, Steven Topik, 1999 With editors and contributors of outstanding academic reputation this exciting new book presents an unconventional and radical perspective revealing that states do still matter Ethnicities and Tribes in Sub-Saharan Africa S. N. Sangmpam, 2017-03-08 This book proposes new avenues for understanding tribal allegiance in Sub Saharan Africa Much research on ethnicity and cultural pluralism in Sub Saharan Africa falsely equates the term tribe with ethnicity and obscures the differences between Sub Saharan Africa and other regions It also puts too much emphasis on the role of the colonial state in fostering tribal allegiance This book challenges these claims and offers an alternate way of understanding tribal allegiance in Sub Saharan Africa Civil Society and the Aid Industry Alison Van Rooy, 2020-04-14 This book is valuable for and beyond the international development industry It deftly leads a non specialist through the maze of ideas and arguments plaguing the concept of civil society and critically examines how and what happens when the international aid system tries to turn confusing and complex political theory into effective development policy and practice fitting the individual preconditions and historical trajectories of the worlds varied nations The comparative evidence analysis and recommendations on offer are essential reading for anyone attempting to understand or build someone else s as well as their own civil society especially when justifying the use of tax payers money to do so ALAN FOWLER CO FOUNDER INTRAC This book will be really useful to numerous readers 011 a subject becoming ever more topical in the world of development and beyond It puts order into the deeply confused debate about civil society describes what the aid donors are doing to pursue their new goals offers four penetrating case studies and concludes with sensible suggestions for future policy The authors have made a practical and lucid assessment of the huge civil society literature they have also contributed valuably to it and deserve to be listened to PROFESSOR ROBERT CASSEN LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS Northern governments and NGOs are increasingly convinced that civil society will enable people in developing countries to escape the poverty trap Civil Society and the Aid Industry the product of extensive research by the prestigious North South Institute in Canada makes a critical appraisal of this new emphasis in the aid industry It explores the roles of Northern governmental multilateral and non governmental agencies in supporting civil society presenting in depth case studies of projects in Peru Kenya Sri Lanka and Hungary and gives detailed policy recommendations intended to improve the effectiveness and appropriateness of future projects Originally published in 1998 Comparing Apples and Mangoes S. N. Sangmpam, 2012-02-01 Two competing approaches currently dominate the debate about the state and institutions in developing countries The first projects a picture of transnational vertical uniformity descending from the West to developing countries and views liberal democracy as the only game in town In this view the state and institutions resemble or ought to resemble those in the West The second by contrast explains political outcomes by local idiosyncrasies and regional variations in institutions In his original approach to third world politics S N Sangmpam challenges both views by uncovering important similarities in the political features of developing countries He shows that they share political behaviors and features unaccounted for in either local idiosyncratic or liberal democratic theories These behaviors converge toward a common property overpoliticization that defies political compromise leading to an overpoliticized state Sangmpam provides a wealth of empirical historical and quantitative evidence from Latin America Asia Africa and the West and demonstrates the overpoliticized state constitutes the cornerstone of an integrated theory of politics in developing countries

Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective Georgia A. Handbook of Global Economic Policy Stuart Nagel, 2019-02-21 Written by over 20 leading international economists this book offers win win scenarios to economic problems As in the other volumes of this set of public policy handbooks the Handbook of Global Economic Policy employs a unique organizational principle from viewing economic problems from conservative and liberal perspectives to developing practical non ideological solutions to the problems and finally testing the solution s feasibility in terms of economic administrative political psychological legal international and technological obstacles The authors confront
