Svi Shapiro, 2006-08-15 In this book Svi Shapiro explores the ideological and attitudinal functions of schools looking especially at what is called the hidden curriculum He offers both an analysis of the role of education in producing and maintaining attitudes and values that contribute to our competitive socially unequal instrumental consumerist and self oriented culture and a radically different vision for what our schools should be about a vision that focuses on education's role in supporting a more critically reflective socially responsible and compassionate culture Federal and state legislation have propelled schools today in the direction of an increasingly test driven instrumental and individually competitive regime Under these legislative mandates schools are increasingly alienating and stressful places for both students and teachers Most disturbing is that this form of education is not conducive to providing young people with the capacity to cope with the moral cultural spiritual and political challenges of the world they inhabit More than only offering a critique of schools Shapiro proposes a counter vision that can lead to a different kind of culture and society and he discusses strategies for advocating and implementing it Written in a style that is very accessible to a wide range of readers Losing Heart The Moral and Spiritual Miseducation of America's Children is also carefully researched and draws on relevant theory to make a strong case This book speaks to a wide range of readers including academics and students in education sociology anthropology political science and cultural studies public school professionals and the general public interested in education It will appeal to faculty in schools of education who are looking for a text that offers both a critical language and one that speaks to possibility and change capitalism as the cultural and affective backbone of South Korea's economy Quarterly Transactions of the British College of Psychic Science British College of Psychic Science, 1927 Selfish Women Lisa Downing, 2019-05-24 This book proceeds from a single and very simple observation throughout history and up to the present women have received a clear message that we are not supposed to prioritize ourselves. Indeed the whole question of self is a problem for women and a problem that issues from a wide range of locations including in some cases feminism itself. When women espouse discourses of self interest self regard and selfishness they become illegible. This is complicated by the commodification of the self in the recent Western mode of economic and political organization known as neoliberalism which encourages a focus on self fashioning that may not be identical with self regard or self interest. Drawing on figures from French US and UK contexts including Rachilde Ayn Rand Margaret Thatcher and Lionel Shriver and examining discourses from psychiatry media and feminism with the aim of reading against the grain of multiple orthodoxies this book asks how revisiting the words and works of selfish women of modernity can assist us in understanding our fraught individual and collective identities as women in contemporary culture. And can women with politics that are contrary to the interests of the collective teach us anything about the value of rethinking the role of the individual. This book is an essential read for those with interests in cultural theory feminist theory and gender politics Protection Magick Cassandra Eason, 2019-04-02 Protect yourself your friends and your family with these 366 spells to keep you safe from harm.
