Rubyfruit Jungle A Novel About Being Different And Loving It:

Women's Fiction 1945-2005 Deborah Philips, 2007-11-01 Organised around each decade of the post war period this book analyses novels written by and for women from 1945 to the present Each chapter identifies a specific genre in popular fiction for women which marked that period and provides case studies focusing on writers and texts which enjoyed a wide readership Despite their popularity these novels remain largely outside the canon of women's writing and are often unacknowledged by feminist literary criticism However these texts clearly touched a nerve with a largely female readership and so offer a means of charting the changes in ideals of femininity and in the tensions and contradictions in gender identities in the post war period Their analysis offers new insights into the shifting demands aspirations and expectations of what a woman could and should be over the last half century Through her analysis of women's writing and reading Philips sets out to challenge the distinction between popular and literary fiction arguing that neat categories such as popular middle brow and serious fiction need more careful definition

Women's Fiction Deborah Philips, 2014-06-19 Now in its second edition and with new chapters covering such texts as Elizabeth Gilbert's Eat Pray Love and yummy mummy novels such as Allison Pearson's I Don't Know How She Does It this is a wide ranging survey of popular women's fiction from 1945 to the present Examining key trends in popular writing for women in each decade Women's Fiction offers case study readings of major British and American writers Through these readings the book explores how popular texts often neglected by feminist literary criticism have charted the shifting demands aspirations and expectations of women in the 20th and 21st centuries

Subversive Intent Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1990 With this important new book Susan Suleiman lays the foundation for a postmodern feminist poetics and theory of the avant garde She shows how the figure of Woman as fantasy myth or metaphor has functioned in the work of male avant garde writers and artists of this century Focusing also on women's avant garde artistic practices Suleiman demonstrates how to read difficult modern works in a way that reveals their political as well as their aesthetic impact Suleiman directly addresses the subversive intent of avant garde movements from Surrealism to postmodernism Through her detailed readings of provocatively transgressive works by Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp Max Ernst and others Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male erotic imagination and illuminates the extent to which masculinist assumptions have influenced modern art and theory By examining the work of contemporary women avantgarde artists and theorists including Hélène Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Luce Irigaray Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer and Cindy Sherman Suleiman shows the political power of feminist critiques of patriarchal ideology and especially emphasizes the power of feminist humor and parody Central to Suleiman's revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman's laughing mother embodies the need for a link between symbolic innovation and political and social change This Queer Angel Elaine Chambers, 2019-03-07 A revealing memoir laying open the cruel truth behind the longstanding ban on LGBT personnel serving openly in H M Forces Discover the human cost of being deemed a criminal in the institutions protecting fellow citizens hard won freedoms The first book covering recent military history written from a lesbian perspective The inside story of the long heroic battle to overturn homophobia in the British Armed Forces Inspiring Peter Tatchell A richly textured and deeply human tour de force Chambers is a deft storyteller who movingly chronicles her battle to live authentically Unputdownable Dr Emma Vickers Senior Lecturer in History Liverpool John Moores University

Sororophobia Helena Michie, 1992 This book looks at how differences among women have been textually represented at a variety of historical moments and in a variety of cultural contexts including Victorian mainstream fiction African American mulatto novels late twentieth century lesbian communities and contemporary country music Sororophobia designates the complex and shifting relations between women s attempts to identify with other women and their often simultaneous desire to establish and retain difference Michie argues for the centrality to feminism of a paradigm that moves beyond celebrations of identity and sisterhood to a more nuanced notion of women s relations with other women which may include such uncomfortable concepts as envy jealousy and competition as well as more institutionalized ideas of difference such as race and class Chapters on literature are interspersed by inter chapters on the choreography of sameness and difference among women in popular culture Gay and Lesbian Themes in Latin American Writing David William Foster, 2013-12-06 A taboo subject in many cultures homosexuality has been traditionally repressed in Latin America both as a way of life and as a subject for literature Yet numerous writers have attempted to break the cultural silence surrounding homosexuality using various strategies to overtly or covertly discuss lesbian and gay themes In this study David William Foster examines more than two dozen texts that deal with gay and lesbian topics drawing from them significant insights into the relationship between homosexuality and society in different Latin American countries and time periods Foster s study includes works both sympathetic and antagonistic to homosexuality showing the range of opinion on this topic The preponderance of his examples come from Argentina Brazil and Mexico countries with historically active gay communities although he also includes material on other countries Noteworthy among the authors covered are Reinaldo Arenas Adolfo Caminha Isaac Chocr n Jos Donoso Sylvia Molloy Alejandra Pizarnik and Luis Zapata

Contemporary Women's Writing Maroula Joannou, 2000 This wide ranging study provides a historically grounded account of women s fiction in the 1960s and the 1970s relating changes in the social structure of Britain and the United States to the literary representations of women s experience The Female Body in Western Culture Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1986 The female body has occupied a central place in the Western imagination its images pervading poetry and story mythology and religious doctrine the visual arts and scientific treatises It has inspired both attraction and fear been perceived as beautiful and unclean alluring and dangerous a source of pleasure and nurturing but also a source of evil and destruction In The Female Body in Western Culture twenty three internationally noted scholars and critics in specially commissioned essays explore these representations and their consequences for contemporary art and culture Ranging from Genesis to Gertrude Stein and Angela Carter from ancient Greek ritual to the Victorian sleeping cure from images of the Madonna to modern film and Surrealist art the essays cover a wide spectrum of approaches and subject matter They all converge however around questions of power and powerlessness voice and silence subjecthood and objectification And they point the way to the new possibilities and displacements of traditional male female oppositions Androgyny in a new key This book demonstrates that a blurring of gender boundaries does not have to deny difference

The Lit Report Sarah N. Harvey, 2008-10-01 Julia and Ruth have been unlikely best friends since they first met in Sunday school Ruth was standing on the Bible crafts table belting out Jesus Loves Me Now that they're a year away from graduation they're putting the finishing touches on their getaway plans But their dream of a funky big city loft and rich interesting older men is threatened when preacher's daughter Ruth goes to a wild party without studious Julia and all hell breaks loose Ruth gets pregnant Julia gets creative Determined to support her friend and stay on track for life after high school Julia comes up with a plan that will require all her intelligence compassion ingenuity and patience Drawing on some great and some not so great works of literature Julia proves that you can learn a lot just by opening up a book

Masterplots II. Frank Northen Magill, 1995 Contains 536 essays that examine the most important books of fiction and nonfiction authored by women Gray Love Nan Bauer-Maglin, Daniel E. Hood, 2023-01-13 Gray Love tells stories about the most common of themes seeking and sometimes finding love Forty five men and women 60 and 94 from diverse backgrounds write about dating building a relationship or fashioning a life alone The longing for connection in old age is palpable with more senior singles than ever searching online and elsewhere Starting from Scratch Rita Mae Brown, 2011-05-04 From the best selling author of Rubyfruit Jungle and Bingo here is a writer's manual as provocative frank and funny as her fiction Unlike most writers guides this one had as much to do with how writers live as with mastering the tools of their trade Rita Mae Brown begins with a very personal account of her own career from her days as a young poet who had written a novel no publisher wanted to take a chance on right up to her recent adventures as a Hollywood screenwriter In a sassy style that makes her outspoken advice as entertaining as it is useful she provides straight talk about paying the rent while maintaining the energy to write and dealing with agents publishers critics and the publicity circus about pursuing journalism academia or screen writing and about rejecting the Hemingway myth of the hard living hard drinking genius In addition Brown a former teacher or writing offers a serious examination of the writer's tool language plotting characters symbolism plus exercises to sharpen the ear for dialogue and a fascinating annotated reading list of important works from the seventh century to the late twentieth Gendered Subjects (RLE Feminist Theory) Catherine Portuges, Margo Culley, 2013-05-20 The phrase feminist pedagogy couples the contemporary and the traditional joining current political movements with a concern for the transmission of knowledge more ancient than the Greek word for teaching Now two decades after the first Women's Studies courses appeared on campuses their place in higher education happily needs little demonstration Gendered Subjects combines a number of classic statements on feminist pedagogy from the 1970s with recent original essays making significant and original contributions to the field As the new scholarship on women has changed the content and structure of knowledge in every field so this collection aims to mirror this impact on feminist pedagogy with articles ranging from broad theoretical perspectives on the realities of the classroom to international explorations on how race gender and class and political orientation inform feminist enquiry
