Artist File Rudy Burckhardt, 1970 Conversations with Rudy Burckhardt Simon Pettet, 1987 Conversations with Rudy Burckhardt about Everything Rudy Burckhardt, Simon Pettet, 1987 Literary Nonfiction Photography CONVERSATIONS WITH RUDY BURCKHARDT comprises an extensive interview with poet Simon Pettet including 22 photographs printed in duotone by the noted photographer filmmaker and painter Rudy Burckhardt The photographs taken between 1938 and 1986 include his classic much admired image of the Flatiron Building New York 1948 and photographs of rhapsodic beauty in Maine gentle serenity in Naples and many humorous scenes New York Little Rock Florence Italy and others His images are all completely accessible and reflect his resolutely unpretentious style The sprightly dialogue complements the photographs with many discussed individually The publication of CONVERSATIONS WITH RUDY BURCKHARDT honored the occasion of three significant events that took place in 1987 After decades of relative obscurity Rudy Burckhardt's devoted underground following was joined by many newfound admirers as a result of a major retrospective of 67 of his films at the Museum of Modern Art and concurrently an exhibition of photographs at Brooke Alexander Gallery and a show of paintings at Blue Mountain Gallery As Phillip Lopate remarked In the book one is privileged to hear the artist's thoughts and doubts about living making art beauty time youth aging public acclaim compositional techniques Switzerland parents and the non relationship between rapture and sorrow The combination of beautiful rarely seen photographs and lively text make this an irresistible book Rudy Burckhardt Rudy Burckhardt, 1998 Rudy Burckhardt Rudy Burckhardt, John Ashbery, 2003 This catalog features views provided by Swiss American photographer Rudy Burckhardt Rudy Burckhardt Phillip Lopate, Vincent Katz, 2004-07 Rudy Burckhardt emigrated from Basel to New York in 1935 hoping for a career in photography By the 1940s he had begun to create a series of now classic images of New York and he went on to become a leading artist in the city This book examines Burckhardt's photographs Rudy Burckhardt : New York moments : photographs and films Anita Haldemann, 2005 Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the New York Schools of the early twentieth century Rudy Burckhardt Rudy Burckhardt, 1988 The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets

Lease,2007-06 Possessing a singular musical gift David Shapiro problematizes self and culture and challenges conventional notions of fixed and commodified identity in work that discovers and resists meaning This title features essays that illuminate a useful range of Shapiro's major texts through diverse critical approaches New Art City Jed Perl,2007-02-13 In this landmark work Jed Perl captures the excitement of a generation of legendary artists Jackson Pollack Joseph Cornell Robert Rauschenberg and Ellsworth Kelly among them who came to New York mingled in its lofts and bars and revolutionized American art In a continuously arresting narrative Perl also portrays such less well known figures as the galvanic teacher Hans Hofmann the lyric expressionist Joan Mitchell and the adventuresome realist Fairfield Porter as well the writers critics and patrons who rounded out the artists world Brilliantly describing the intellectual crosscurrents of the time as well as the genius of dozens of artists New Art City is indispensable for lovers of modern art and culture Queer Networks Miriam Kienle,2023-11-28 How the queer correspondence art of Ray Johnson disrupted art world conventions and anticipated today's highly networked culture Once regarded as New York's most famous unknown artist Ray Johnson was a highly visible outlier in the art world his mail art practice reflecting the changing social relations and politics of queer communities in the 1960s A vital contribution to the growing scholarship on this enigmatic artist Queer Networks analyzes how Johnson's practice sought to undermine the dominant mechanisms of the art market and gallery system in favor of unconventional social connections Utilizing the postal service as his primary means of producing and circulating art Johnson cultivated an international community of friends and collaborators through which he advanced his idiosyncratic body of work Applying both queer theory and network studies Miriam Kienle explores how Johnson's radical correspondence art established new modes of connectivity that fostered queer sensibilities and ran counter to the conventional methods by which artists were expected to develop their reputation While Johnson was significantly involved with the Pop conceptual and neo Dada art movements Queer Networks crucially underscores his resistance to traditional art historical systems of categorization and their emphasis on individual mastery Highlighting his alternative modes of community building and playful antagonism toward art world protocols Kienle demonstrates how Ray Johnson's correspondence art offers new ways of envisioning togetherness in today's highly commodified and deeply networked world

American Artists Engage the Built Environment, 1960-1979 Susannah Bieber, 2023-07-31 This volume reframes the development of US American avant garde art of the long 1960s from minimal and pop art to land art conceptual art site specific practices and feminist art in the context of contemporary architectural discourses Susannah Bieber analyzes the work of seven major artists Donald Judd Robert Grosvenor Claes Oldenburg Robert Smithson Lawrence Weiner Gordon Matta Clark and Mary Miss who were closely associated with the formal aesthetic innovations of the period While these individual artists came to represent diverse movements Bieber argues that all of them were attracted to the field of architecture the work of architects engineers preservationists landscape designers and urban planners because they believed these practices more directly shaped the social and material spaces of everyday life This book's contribution to the field of art history is thus twofold First it shows that the avant garde of the long 1960s did not simply develop according to an internal logic of art but also as part of broader sociocultural discourses about buildings and cities Second it exemplifies a methodological synthesis between social art history and poststructural formalism that is foundational to understanding the role of art in the construction of a more just and egalitarian society The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history architecture urbanism and environmental humanism
