Writing Wounds Kathryn Robson, 2022-05-20 In the last decade the question of how trauma is remembered and narrated has become increasingly crucial in literary studies and in psychotherapy Writing Wounds rethinks the relation between trauma memory and narrative through readings of key fictional autobiographical and autofictional texts by recent French women writers Marie Cardinal Chantal Chawaf H l ne Cixous Charlotte Delbo B atrice de Jurquet and Sarah Kofman By drawing on and also interrogating recent theories of trauma this study shows that trauma is inscribed in writing through recurring images of the body and of bodily wounding that mark the limits and possibilities of narrativisation This book has a double aim to offer new readings of texts by modern French women writers and to rethink the crucial question of how narratives of trauma are to be read Writing Wounds will be of interest to researchers working on trauma modern French literature women s writing or life writing as well as to a range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses on trauma and narrative

Different Horrors, Same Hell Myrna Goldenberg, Amy

Shapiro,2013-05-15 Different Horrors Same Hell brings together a variety of essays demonstrating the breadth of contributions that feminist theory and gender analysis make to the study of the Holocaust The collection provides new perspectives on central works of Holocaust scholarship and representation from the books of Hannah Arendt and Ruth Kluger to films such as Claude Lanzmann's Shoah and Steven Spielberg's Schindler's List Interviews with survivors and their descendants draw new attention to the significance of women's roles and family structures during and in the aftermath of the Holocaust and interviews and archival research reveal the undercurrents of sexual violence within the Final Solution As Doris Bergen shows in the book's first chapter the focus on women's and gender issues in this collection complicates familiar and outworn categories and humanizes the past in powerful ways

A Walk Through Paris Eric Hazan,2018-03-27 A walker's guide to Paris taking us through its past present and possible futures Eric Hazan author of the acclaimed Invention of Paris takes the reader on a walk from Ivry to Saint Denis roughly following the meridian that divides Paris into east and west and passing such familiar landmarks as the Luxembourg Gardens the Pompidou Centre the Gare du Nord and Montmartre as well as forgotten alleyways and arcades Weaving historical anecdotes geographical observations and literary references Hazan's walk guides us through an unknown Paris With the aid of maps he delineates the most fascinating and forgotten parts of the city's past and present Planning and modernization have accelerated the erasure of its revolutionary history yet through walking and observation Hazan shows how we can regain our knowledge of the city of Robespierre the Commune Sartre and the May 68 uprising Drawing on his own life story as surgeon publisher and social critic Hazan vividly illustrates the interplay and concord between a city and the personality it forms

Dreaming in Dark Times Sharon Sliwinski,2017-03-28 What do dreams manage to say or indeed show about human experience that is not legible otherwise Can the disclosure of our dream life be understood as a form of political avowal To what does a dream attest And to whom Blending psychoanalytic theory with the work of such political thinkers as Hannah Arendt and Michel Foucault Sharon Sliwinski explores how the disclosure of dream life represents a special kind of communicative gesture a form of unconscious thinking that can serve as a potent brand of political intervention and a means for resisting sovereign power Each chapter centers on a specific dream plucked from the historical record slowly unwinding the significance of this extraordinary disclosure From Wilfred Owen and Lee Miller to Frantz Fanon and Nelson Mandela Sliwinski shows how each of these figures grappled with dream life as a means to conjure up the courage to speak about dark times Here dreaming is defined as an integral political exercise a vehicle for otherwise unthinkable thoughts and a wellspring for the freedom of expression Dreaming in Dark Times defends the idea that dream life matters that attending to this thought landscape is vital to the life of the individual but also vital to our shared social and political worlds

Film, Theory and Philosophy Felicity Colman,2014-12-05 Philosophy and in particular continental philosophy has provided a conceptual underpinning for cinema since its beginnings especially in the development of cinematic aesthetics In its turn film has rethought the abstractions of space and time and the categories of sex and gender and has created new concepts which illuminate phenomenology metaphysics and epistemology Film and Philosophy brings together leading scholars to provide a detailed overview of the key thinkers who have shaped the field of film philosophy The thinkers include continental and post continental philosophers analytic philosophers film makers film reviewers sociologists and cultural theorists The essays reveal how philosophy can be applied to film analysis and how film can be used to illustrate philosophical problems But more importantly the essays explore how film has shaped what philosophy thinks and how philosophy has lead to a reappraisal of film The book will prove an invaluable reference and guide to readers interested in a deeper understanding of the issues and insights presented by film philosophy Film and Philosophy includes essays on Hugo Munsterberg Vilem Flusser Siegfried Kracauer Theodor Adorno Antonin Artaud Henri Bergson Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Andre Bazin Roland Barthes Serge Daney Jean Luc Godard Stanley Cavell Jean Luc Nancy Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Sarah Kofman Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson Felix Guattari Raymond Bellour Christian Metz Julia Kristeva Laura Mulvey Homi Bhabha Slavoj Zizek Stephen Heath Alain Badiou Jacques Ranciere Leo Bersani Giorgio Agamben and Michel Chion

Traumatizing Theory Karyn Ball, 2021-05-04 A volume in the Contemporary Theory Series edited by Frances Restuccia An interdisciplinary collection of essays that critically reflect on the value and limits of psychoanalysis for conceptualizing traumatic affect A page turner for anyone even remotely drawn to the subject of trauma Traumatizing Theory includes essays that go beyond psychoanalysis in rethinking the cultural significance of traumatic anxiety melancholy and the representation of suffering in testimony self narration and politics Traumatizing Theory is unmistakably on the cutting edge and moves trauma theory into a new postmodern phase Karyn Ball s introduction reframes debates about psychoanalysis within trauma studies Bettina Bergo s essay revisits the historical development of hysteria as Freud s model for traumatic anxiety in both men and women Dorothea Olkowski also focuses on traumatic anxiety but problematizes Freud s masculinist and scientific premises Sarah Murphy and Susannah Radstone examine the disciplinary effects of public confession and testimony while Ball and Kligerman critique Deleuze s post psychoanalytic Cinema books and Gerhard Richter s haunted October 18 1977 Cycle respectively as testimonies to the latent impact of traumatic history For Astrid Deuber Mankowsky philosophy serves ineluctably as a medium of testimony in Sarah Kofman s autobiographical writings about ambivalence toward her biological Jewish mother and guilty love for the French woman who adopted Sarah during the Nazi occupation Drucilla Cornell also explores conflicted self narrations among transnationally adopted children and their parents The collection concludes with essays by Juliet Flower MacCannell Lauren Berlant and John Mowitt on the politics of traumatic identification in the public sphere

Traces of War Colin Davis, 2018 Traces of War examines how the trauma of the Second World War influenced the work of the brilliant generation of writers and intellectuals who lived through it

Holocaust Mothers and Daughters Federica K. Clementi, 2013-12-03 In this brave and original work Federica Clementi focuses on the mother daughter bond as depicted in six works by women who experienced the Holocaust sometimes with their mothers sometimes not The daughters memoirs which record the all too human qualities of those who were persecuted and murdered by the Nazis show that the Holocaust cannot be used to neatly segregate lives into the categories of before and after Clementi s discussions of differences in social status along with the persistence of antisemitism and patriarchal structures support this point strongly demonstrating the tenacity of trauma individual familial and collective among Jews in twentieth century Europe

Shadows in the City of Light Sara R. Horowitz, Amira Bojadzija-Dan, Julia Creet, 2021-05-01 The essays in Shadows in the City of Light explore the significance of Paris in the writing of five influential French writers Sarah Kofman Patrick Modiano George Perec Henri Raczymow and Irene Nemirovsky whose novels and memoirs capture and probe the absences of deported Paris Jews These writers move their readers through wartime and postwar cityscapes of Paris walking them through streets and arrondissements where Jews once resided looking for traces of the disappeared The city functions as more than a backdrop or setting Its streets and buildings and monuments remind us of the exhilarating promise of the French Revolution and what it meant for Jews dreaming of equality But the dynamic space of Paris also reminds us of the Holocaust and its aftermath The shadowed paths traced by these writers raise complicated questions about ambivalence absence memory secularity and citizenship In their writing the urban landscape itself bears witness to the absent Jews and what happened to them For the writers treated in this volume neither their Frenchness nor their Jewishness is a fixed point Focusing on Paris s dual role as both a cultural hub and a powerful symbol of hope and conflict in Jewish memory the contributors address intersections and departures among these writers Their complexity of thought artistry and depth of vision shape a new understanding of the impact of the Holocaust on Jewish and French identity on literature and literary forms and on the development of Jewish secular culture in Western Europe

Sarah Kofman's Corpus ,2008 Draws connections between the life and writings of philosopher Sarah Kofman

The Double Binds of Ethics after the Holocaust J. Geddes, J. Roth, 2009-04-26 The Double Binds of Ethics after the Holocaust advances the idea that the Holocaust undermined confidence in basic beliefs about human rights and shows steps of salvage and retrieval that need to be taken if ethics is to be a significant presence in a world still besieged by genocide and atrocity

Ethics During and After the Holocaust J. Roth, 2005-10-28 Questions shape the Holocaust s legacy What happened to ethics during the Holocaust What should ethics be and what can it do after the Holocaust loom large among them Absent the overriding or moral sensibilities if not the collapse or collaboration of ethical traditions the Holocaust could not have happened Its devastation may have deepened conviction that there is a crucial difference between right and wrong its destruction may have renewed awareness about the importance of ethical standards and conduct But Birkenau the main killing center at Auschwitz also continues to cast a disturbing shadow over basic beliefs concerning right and wrong human rights and the hope that human beings will learn from the past This book explores those realities and the issues they contain It does so not to discourage but to encourage not to deepen darkness and despair but to face those realities honestly and in a way that can make post Holocaust ethics more credible and realistic The book s thesis is that nothing human natural or divine guarantees respect for the ethical values and commitments that are most needed in contemporary human existence but nothing is more important than our commitment to defend them for they remain as fundamental as they are fragile as precious as they are endangered Sources of Holocaust Insight John K.

Roth,2020-01-29 Sources of Holocaust Insight maps the odyssey of an American Christian philosopher who has studied written and taught about the Holocaust for more than fifty years What findings result from John Roth s journey what moods pervade it How have events and experiences scholars and students texts and testimonies especially the questions they raise affected Roth s Holocaust studies and guided his efforts to heed the biblical proverb Whatever else you get get insight More sources than Roth can acknowledge have informed his encounters with the Holocaust But particular persons among them Elie Wiesel Raul Hilberg Primo Levi and Albert Camus loom especially large Revisiting Roth s sources of Holocaust insight this book does so not only to pay tribute to them but also to show how the ethical philosophical and religious reverberations of the Holocaust confer and encourage responsibility for human well being in the twenty first century Seeing differently seeing better sound learning and teaching about the Holocaust aim for what may be the most important Holocaust insight of all Take nothing good for granted
