Cannes - A Festival Virgin's Guide (7th Edition) Benjamin Craig, 2018-03-05 Cannes A Festival Virgin's Guide 7th Edition is the definitive handbook for filmmakers and film industry professionals looking to attend the Cannes Film Festival Demystifying the event and providing practical advice for attending the book is about helping you make the most of your visit to the world's most famous film festival and most importantly assisting you in coming out with your wallet intact Packaged as a handy travel sized book Cannes A Festival Virgin's Guide walks you through the city the festival and the business of Cannes examining all of the details that are necessary to make your trip successful and cost effective In addition there are six appendices of contacts and useful information for your reference and we present a series of interviews with a range of professionals from across the industry so you can get the inside word on the event from group of Cannes veterans The Rough Guide to Paris Ruth Blackmore, James McConnachie, Shafik Meghji, 2010-02 The Rough Guide to Paris is the ultimate travel guide to this fascinating city with clear maps and detailed coverage of all the best Paris attractions Discover Paris's highlights with stunning photography and detailed coverage on everything from the city's magnificent galleries and the iconic Eiffle Tower to the Left Bank caf's of Saint Germain and Monparnasse Find detailed practical advice on what to see and do in Paris whilst relying on up to date descriptions of the best hotels bars clubs shops and restaurants for all budgets The Rough Guide to Paris also includes sections explaining each of the city's most notable architectural wonders plus a detailed guide to the very best of Parisian food and drink Explore every corner of this romantic city with clear maps to help you travel around with ease and ensure you don't miss the unmissable Make the most of your holiday with The Rough Guide to Paris D-Day Gunners Frank Baldwin, 2022-07-20 Part history book and part travel guide D Day Gunners is aimed at anyone interested in the artillery on the D Day beaches and landing grounds While the heritage of the D Day beaches and landing sites is well documented this rarely includes the artillery story The author of this book aims to correct this by providing a visitors guide to the artillery stories associated with the battlefield heritage that remains on the D Day beaches mapping the fire plan for D Day against the known German locations and looking at what happened at these places There is relatively little explanation about the role of the artillery in general or the deeds of artillerymen in particular those of the Royal Regiment of Artillery This book tells of the significance of artillery on D Day and the part it played in the outcome Initial reports published stressed that the coastal defences were effectively neutralized by the bombing and that no significant counter attacks developed on D Day However post war accounts increasingly attributed allied success to allied fire power The book tells the story of the men who served the guns on the D Day beaches and the effects they had on the outcome of the battles on D Day and afterwards This volume is primarily about British Gunners and certain German Kannoniers The book has been written as a guide to the battlefields on the D Day beaches and landing grounds telling the gunners stories that are not always commemorated on memorials interpretation boards or recorded in more general guides

These poignant stories include war poets and heroes decorated for bravery or just the tales of some of the men buried in the war cemeteries or commemorated on the memorials It also provides a guide in lay terms of the technical impact of field anti tank and AA artillery on the war A second volume will tell the story of artillerymen on the American beaches and landing grounds

Africa in Stereo Tsitsi Ella Jaji,2014-01-10 Africa in Stereo analyzes how Africans have engaged with African American music and its representations in the long twentieth century 1890 2011 to offer a new cultural history attesting to pan Africanism s ongoing and open theoretical potential Tsitsi Jaji argues that African American popular music appealed to continental Africans as a unit of cultural prestige a site of pleasure and most importantly an expressive form already encoded with strategies of creative resistance to racial hegemony Ghana Senegal and South Africa are considered as three distinctive sites where longstanding pan African political and cultural affiliations gave expression to transnational black solidarity The book shows how such transnational ties fostered what Jaji terms stereomodernism Attending to the specificity of various media through which music was transmitted and interpreted poetry novels films recordings festivals live performances and websites stereomodernism accounts for the role of cultural practice in the emergence of solidarity tapping music s capacity to refresh our understanding of twentieth century black transnational ties

Cruising the Mediterranean and Touring Southern Europe Robert Randall,Susan Randall,2010-05 A pictorial essay of Southern Europe along the Mediterranean

Battles for the Channel Ports Daniel Taylor,2024-12-31 Details the Allied operations to capture the strategically vital Channel ports of Le Havre and Boulogne in 1944 highlighting the challenges and battles faced during these key engagements When the Allied armies broke out from the Normandy bridgehead in late July 1944 it became of paramount importance that they quickly capture new harbors to sustain the rapid northward advance All the Allies supplies and reinforcements were still coming in through just two places the Mulberry artificial harbor at Arromanches and the port of Cherbourg captured by the Americans and with supply lines lengthening by the day it was essential to speedily open up ports nearer the armies For Field Marshal Montgomery's 21st Army Group this meant first of all the channel ports of Le Havre and Boulogne Both cities had been declared a Festung Fortress by Hitler and were to be defended to the last man The attack on Le Havre Operation Astonia was launched on September 10 and was a classic example of a successful set piece battle After the German defenses had been softened up by colossal aerial and naval bombardment and artillery shelling a siege train of specialized armor broke through the outer crust of the German defensive perimeter and allowed two British infantry divisions the 49th West Riding Division and the 51st Highland Division to push through the gap and methodically reduce the enemy strongholds before driving into the heart of the city The attack on Boulogne Operation Wellhit began a week later and was the task of the 3rd Canadian Infantry Division Another set piece assault it was again preceded by a devastating bombardment by RAF heavy bombers which reduced large parts of the city to ruins and a massive artillery barrage Supported by specialized armor two Canadian brigades then moved forward but the Germans resisted stubbornly and it took six days of heavy fighting before the Canadians had subdued all strongpoints and finally forced the garrison to surrender Although both ports were now in Allied hands it brought no immediate alleviation to the Allies logistical problems Harbor installations had been extensively damaged by German demolitions and Allied bombardments and it would take many weeks of rehabilitation before the ports could be brought into use Le Havre which had meanwhile been assigned to the Americans did not see the few first ships arriving until October 2 and Boulogne not until on October 12 As is our hallmark all phases of the battles for the two Channel ports are illustrated with Then and Now comparison photographs The book contains the following two stories from ATB magazine Issue 139 The Capture of Le Havre Author Karel Margry 76 black white photos Issue 86 Operation Wellhit The Capture of Boulogne Author Ian Galbraith 80 black white photos Normandy Cyril Scudamore,1906 The Rough Guide to West Africa Rough Guides,2008-06-02 The Rough Guide to West Africa in epub format is the most comprehensive and user friendly guide to one of the world's hardest and most rewarding regions for travel covering the 15 visitable countries from Mauritania to Cameroon in fifty percent more detail than its only competitor Each chapter of the Rough Guide includes thoroughly researched hotel and restaurant listings sections on everything from food and language to media and sport and thoughtful background on the environment culture history politics and music The introduction highlights the region's attractions and touches on its great range of cultural and scenic impressions Sections on Arts and Crafts and Fruit and Food Plants offer fascinating information and useful advice More than 160 accessible and accurate maps guide you from the urban jungle to beaches and mountains And an extensive index references every place mentioned in the guide Visit the author blog at <http://theroughguidetowestafrica.blogspot.com> for news links and updates Make the most of your time with The Rough Guide to West Africa Everything (or Almost Everything) About Paris Jean-Christophe Napias,2016-10-04 The almost 200

Popular Culture in Africa Stephanie Newell, Onookome Okome, 2013-11-12 This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Karin Barber s ground breaking article Popular Arts in Africa which stimulated new debates about African popular culture and its defining categories Focusing on performances audiences social contexts and texts contributors ask how African popular cultures contribute to the formation of an episteme With chapters on theater Nollywood films blogging and music and sports discourses as well as on popular art forms urban and youth cultures and gender and sexuality the book highlights the dynamism and complexity of contemporary popular cultures in sub Saharan Africa Focusing on the streets of Africa especially city streets where different cultures and cultural personalities meet the book asks how the category of the people is identified and interpreted by African culture producers politicians religious leaders and by the people themselves The book offers a nuanced strongly historicized perspective in which African popular cultures are regarded as vehicles through which we can document ordinary people's vitality and responsiveness to political and social transformations The Seine from Havre to Paris Thomas Edward Thorpe, 1913 Contemporary African Cinema Olivier Barlet, 2016-08-01 African and notably sub-Saharan African film's relative eclipse on the international scene in the early twenty-first century does not transcend the growth within the African genre This time period has seen African cinema forging a new relationship with the real and implementing new aesthetic strategies as well as the emergence of a post-colonial popular cinema Drawing on more than 1 500 articles reviews and interviews written over the past fifteen years Olivier Barlet identifies the critical questions brought about by the evolution of African cinema In the process he offers us a personal and passionate vision making this book an indispensable sum of thought that challenges preconceived ideas and enriches an approach to cinema as a critical art U.S. Army Special Forces Language Visual Training Materials - FRENCH - Plus Web-Based Program and Chapter Audio Downloads , Now included at the end of the book is a link for a web-based program PDFs and MP3 sound files for each chapter Over 3 700 pages Developed by I Corps Foreign Language Training Center Fort Lewis WA For the Special Operations Forces Language Office United States Special Operations Command LANGUAGE TRAINING The ability to speak a foreign language is a core unconventional warfare skill and is being incorporated throughout all phases of the qualification course The students will receive their language assignment after the selection phase where they will receive a language starter kit that allows them to begin language training while waiting to return to Fort Bragg for Phase II The 3rd Bn 1st SWTG A is responsible for all language training at the USAJFKSWCS The Special Operations Language Training SOLT is primarily a performance-oriented language course Students are trained in one of ten core languages with enduring regional application and must show proficiency in speaking listening and reading A student receives language training throughout the Pipeline In Phase IV students attend an 8 or 14 week language blitz depending upon the language they are slotted in The general purpose of the course is to provide each student with the ability to communicate in a foreign language For successful completion of the course the student must achieve at least a 1 1 1 or higher on the Defense Language Proficiency Test in two of the three graded areas speaking listening and reading Table of Contents Introduction Introduction Lesson 1 People and Geography Lesson 2 Living and Working Lesson 3 Numbers Dates and Time Lesson 4 Daily Activities Lesson 5 Meeting the Family Lesson 6 Around Town Lesson 7 Shopping Lesson 8 Eating Out Lesson 9 Customs and Courtesies in the Home Lesson 10 Around the House Lesson 11 Weather and Climate Lesson 12 Personal Appearance Lesson 13 Transportation Lesson 14 Travel Lesson 15 At School Lesson 16 Recreation and Leisure Lesson 17 Health and the Human Body Lesson 18 Political and International Topics in the News Lesson 19 The Military Lesson 20 Holidays and Traditions Ethics and Aesthetics in Contemporary African Cinema James S. Williams, 2019-03-21 Since the beginnings of African cinema the realm of beauty on screen has been treated with suspicion by directors and critics alike James S Williams explores an exciting new generation of African directors including Abderrahmane Sissako Mahamat Saleh Haroun Fanta Regina Nacro Alain Gomis Newton I Aduaka Jean Pierre Bekolo and Mati Diop who have begun to reassess and embrace the concept of cinematic beauty by not reducing it to ideological critique or the old ideals of pan Africanism Locating the aesthetic within a range of critical fields the rupturing of narrative spectacle and violence by montage the archives of the everyday in the afropolis the plurivocal mysteries of sound and language male intimacy and desire the borderzones of migration and transcultural drift this study reveals the possibility for new non conceptual kinds of beauty in African cinema abstract material migrant erotic convulsive queer Through close readings of key works such as Life on Earth 1998 The Night of Truth 2004 Bamako 2006 Daratt 2006 A Screaming Man 2010 Tey Today 2012 The Pirogue 2012 Mille soleils 2013 and Timbuktu 2014 Williams argues that contemporary African filmmakers are proposing propitious ethical forms of relationality and intersubjectivity These stimulate new modes of cultural resistance and transformation that serve to redefine the transnational and the cosmopolitan as well as the very notion of the political in postcolonial art cinema Making and Remaking Mosques in Senegal Cleo Cantone, 2012-04-03 This book constitutes a seminal contribution to the fields of Islamic architectural history and gender studies It is the first major empirical study of the history and current state of mosque building in Senegal and the first study of mosque space from a gender perspective The author positions Senegalese mosques within the field of Islamic architectural history unraveling their history through pre colonial travelers accounts to conversations with present day planners imams and women who continually shape and reshape the mosques they worship in Using contemporary Dakar as a case study the book's second aim is to explore the role of women in the making and remaking of mosques In particular the rise of non tariqa grass roots movements i e the Sunni Ibadou movement has empowered women particularly young women and has greatly strengthened their capacity to use mosques as places of spirituality education and socialization The text is aimed at several specialized readerships readers interested in Islam in West Africa in the role of women in Islam as well as those interested in the sociology and art history of mosques The Abandoned Baobab Ken Bugul, 2008 Despite its unflinching look at our darkest impulses and at the stark facts of being a colonized African the book is ultimately inspirational for it exposes us to a remarkable sensibility and a hard won understanding of one's place in the world CARAF Books Caribbean and African Literature Translated from French
