Creating Family-School Partnerships Sandra Webster, 2023-12-22 Introducing a new model of family school partnership entitled Pathways to Partnership Sandra presents a template to teachers and school leaders for developing authentic genuine family school partnerships that reflect contemporary global thinking and practice She offers a new perspective on the family school partnership and provides support and guidance to school leaders to move away from outdated but ingrained approaches to more effective family school partnerships Globally schools are becoming less an education centre and more of a hub that integrates health and social services With this change the way schools regard family involvement has also shifted with family involvement being viewed as a strategically critical role This shift has been influenced not just by the recent pandemic but also by the global trend towards decentralisation and democratisation of the decision making power in schools in which parent empowerment is implicit However many schools have not followed a modern engagement model in the way they approach partnership with the family and still espouse approaches that are school centric and outdated in their orientation Pathways to Partnership helps move leaders from talking to towards learning with parents Using case studies and the voices of parents and teachers to bring the content to life Sandra provides strategies for school leaders and teachers to use to establish contemporary partnerships with families ones that reflect current thinking that leads schools into authentic collaboration with their most important partners

Who Owns Whom, 2007 Hit It with a Bigger Hammer Kevin Boyle, 2014-10-30 I did not set out to change the way the world manages crime and corruption but that is the potential outcome of the successful prevention solution I founded 25 years ago in commerce Be careful what you look for I have been obstructed within and outside the security industry from further employing and developing the solution and this book is written to tell its story so that you can decide on its merits and future After a brief 5 year career in policing I transferred the best practice policing methods into proprietary security management in commerce and quickly found that they did not prevent offending and indeed probably aggravated it When highlighting this with peers I was told I was going soft and told to get tougher which simply posed more questions than answers so I began to answer those questions I discovered that since policing was inception over 2000 years ago it has been society's expert purveyor of crime prevention method and advice and this has gone unquestioned and unchallenged over that time What has evolved is that policing is the fence at the top of the cliff of societal crime management as well as the ambulance at the bottom creating a serious conflict of interest that has allowed the anomaly to be perpetuated and manifest itself into the systemic failure of our criminal justice system This failed ideology has inexorably crept into the private security industry as best practice in prevention management that now manages crime and corruption in commerce and sports and other areas where it achieves the same failed prevention outcomes Whether you are an athlete in sport an employee in commerce or a citizen of society you will recognize this truth and this book gives you the opportunity to build a fence at the top of the cliff for the first time in the history of crime and corruption management Commercial Law in the South Pacific Mohammed L. Ahmadu, Bridget Fa'amatua'inu, 2024-09-25 This book provides a detailed examination of the core areas of commercial law in common law jurisdictions across a range of South Pacific countries Cook Islands Fiji Islands Kiribati Marshall Islands Niue Nauru Samoa Solomon Islands Tonga Tuvalu and Vanuatu Commerce is an area of central importance to the South Pacific region Although the countries in question are small it is widely acknowledged that their need to promote and develop commercial enterprise is crucial for their future sustainability With a focus on case law and legislative provisions in individual jurisdictions it sets out the framework of legal principles that regulate commercial activity within the South Pacific region highlighting the common patterns and principal differences between countries of the region It includes a discussion of PACER Plus post Cotonou discussions and the EU OACPS Partnership Agreement as well as key amendments and challenges to commercial law in the region It explores the legal structures of commerce control and management of commercial entities banking and transactions and termination Importantly the book has two new chapters on digital currency and e commerce in the South Pacific reflecting the increasing use of technology in financial and commercial transactions Offering a detailed analysis of the legal principles that regulate commercial activity within the South Pacific region this book will be a useful resource for students academics and practitioners working on commercial law in the South Pacific region
