Art and the Religious Impulse Eric Michael Mazur,2002 This collection explores the relationship between religion and the arts and challenges presumptions held in society about these two fields Topics covered include church architecture folk art nineteenth century classical music contemporary fiction recent film performance art and the battles over public funding of the arts Connecticut Needlework Susan P. Schoelwer,2012-01-01 Winner of the Connecticut Book Award 2011 Winner of the Connecticut League of History Organizations Award of Merit 2012 Connecticut women have long been noted for their creation of colorful and distinctive needlework including samplers and family registers bed rugs and memorial pictures crewel embroidered bed hangings and garments silk embroidered pictures of classical or religious scenes quilted petticoats and bedcovers and whitework dresses and linens This volume offers the first regional study encompassing the full range of needle arts produced prior to 1840 Seventy entries showcase more than one hundred fascinating examples many never before published from the Connecticut Historical Society s extensive collection of this early American art form Produced almost exclusively by women and girls the needle arts provide an illuminating vantage point for exploring early American women s history and education including family based traditions predating the establishment of formal academies after the American Revolution Extensive genealogical research reveals unseen family connections linking various types of needlework similar to the multi generational male workshops documented for other artisan trades such as woodworking or metalsmithing Photographs of stitches reverse sides sketches design sources and related works enhance our understanding and appreciation of this fragile art form and the talented women who created it An exhibition of needlework in this book will be held at the Connecticut Historical Society in late fall 2010 Funding for this project has been provided by the Coby Foundation Ltd and the National Endowment for the Arts Navajo Textiles Laurie D. Webster,Louise Stiver,D. Y. Begay,Lynda Teller Pete,2017-08-15 Navajo Textiles provides a nuanced account the Navajo weavings in the Crane Collection at the Denver Museum of Nature Science one of the largest collections of Navajo textiles in the world Bringing together the work of anthropologists and indigenous artists the book explores the Navajo rug trade in the mid nineteenth century and changes in the Navajo textile market while highlighting the museum s important though still relatively unknown collection of Navajo textiles In this unique collaboration among anthropologists museums and Navajo weavers the authors provide a narrative of the acquisition of the Crane Collection and a history of Navajo weaving Personal reflections and insights from foremost Navajo weavers D Y Begay and Lynda Teller Pete are also featured and more than one hundred stunning full color photographs of the textiles in the collection are accompanied by technical information about the materials and techniques used in their creation An introduction by Ann Lane Hedlund documents the growing collaboration between Navajo weavers and museums in Navajo textile research The legacy of Navajo weaving is complex and intertwined with the history of the Din themselves Navajo Textiles makes the history and practice of Navajo weaving accessible to an audience of scholars and laypeople both within and outside the Din community

Hooked Rugs Cynthia Fowler, 2017-07-05 Through a close look at the history of the modernist hooked rug this book raises important questions about the broader history of American modernism in the first half of the twentieth century Although hooked rugs are not generally associated with the avant garde this study demonstrates that they were a significant part of the artistic production of many artists engaged in modernist experimentation Cynthia Fowler discusses the efforts of Ralph Pearson and of Zoltan and Rosa Hecht to establish modernist hooked rug industries in the 1920s uncovering a previously undocumented history The book includes a consideration of the rural workers used to create the modernist narrative of the hooked rug as cottage industries were established throughout the rural Northeast and South to serve the ever increasing demand for hooked rugs by urban consumers Fowler closely examines institutional enterprises that highlighted and engaged the modernist hooked rugs such as key exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the 1930s and 40s This study reveals the fluidity of boundaries among art craft and design and the profound efforts of a devoted group of modernists to introduce the general public to the value of modern art

University High School Journal, 1929 The Cumulative Book Index, 1922 Practical Druggist and Pharmaceutical Review of Reviews, 1924 Celebration of Hand-Hooked Rugs XXI Rug Hooking Magazine, 2011-08-31 The only juried exhibit of the year s best hand hooked rugs Full page color spreads of 62 beautiful rugs Readers Choice ballot vote for your favorite rugs Three distinct categories of rugs original designs commercial designs and adaptations Each year expert judges choose the best hand hooked rugs from the many rugs entered into the annual juried competition known as Celebration of Hand Hooked Rugs Now in its 21st year the competition showcases rugs from all over the US and Canada Each winning rug is presented as a 2 page spread that includes a photo of the rug a close up detail highlighting fine workmanship and comments from the artist and the judges Celebration is eagerly awaited each year and is overflowing with inspiration for all who are interested in fiber arts

European Vintage Rugs 1920's - 1950's - by Nader Bolour Nader Bolour, Rugs, Guitars, and Fiddling Chris Goertzen, 2022-10-21 What do exotic area rugs handcrafted steel string guitars and fiddling have in common today Many contemporary tradition bearers embrace complexity in form and content They construct objects and performances that draw on the past and evoke nostalgia effectively but also reward close attention In Rugs Guitars and Fiddling Intensification and the Rich Modern Lives of Traditional Arts author Chris Goertzen argues that this entails three types of change that can be grouped under an umbrella term intensification First traditional creativity can be intensified through virtuosity through doing hard things extra fluently

Second performances can be intensified through addition by packing increased amounts of traditional materials into the conventionally sized packages Third in intensification through selection artistic impact can grow even if amount of information recedes by emphasizing compelling ideas e g crafting a red and black viper poised to strike rather than a pretty duck decoy featuring more colors and contours Rugs handwoven in southern Mexico luthier made guitars and southern US fiddle styles experience parallel changes all absorbing just enough of the complex flavors dynamics and rhythms of modern life to translate inherited folklore into traditions that can be widely celebrated today New mosaics of details and skeins of nuances don t transform craft into esoteric fine art but rather enlist the twists and turns and endless variety of the contemporary world therapeutically helping transform our daily chaos into parades of negotiable jigsaw puzzles Intensification helps make crafts and traditional performances more accessible and understandable and thus more effective bringing past and present closer together helping folk arts continue to perform their magic today Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
