Irfan,UNESCO,2003-12-31 The period treated in this volume is highlighted by the slow retreat of nomadism and the progressive increase of sedentary polities owing to a fundamental change in military technology Furthermore this period certainly saw a growing contrast in the pace of economic and cultural progress between Central Asia and Europe The internal growth of the European economies and the influx of silver from the New World gave Atlantic Europe an increasingly important position in world trade and caused a major shift in inland Asian trade Thus 1850 marks the end of the total sway of pre modern culture as the extension of colonial dominance was accompanied by the influx of modern ideas Oriental Rugs and Carpets from Persia, Central Asia, Asia Minor, Etc Sotheby's (Firm),1943 admirers are rapidly increasing and with this increased interest there is naturally an increased demand for more reliable information regarding them. The aim of the present writer has been practical: no such systematized and tabulated information regarding each variety of rug in the market has previously been attempted. The particulars on identification by prominent characteristics and detail of weaving the detailed chapter on design illustrated throughout with text cuts thus enabling the reader to identify the different varieties by their patterns and the price per square foot at which each variety is held by retail dealers are features new in rug literature. Instructions are also given for the selection, purchase, care and cleaning of rugs as well as for the detection of fake antiques, aniline dyes etc. In furtherance of this practical idea the illustrations are not of museum pieces and priceless specimens in the possession of wealthy collectors but of fine and attractive examples which with knowledge and care can be bought in the open market to day. These illustrations will therefore be found of the greatest practical value to modern purchasers. In the chapter on famous rugs some few specimens illustrative of notable pieces have been added. In brief the author has hoped to provide within reasonable limits and at a reasonable price a volume from which purchasers of Oriental rugs can learn in a short time all that is necessary for their guidance and from which dealers and connoisseurs can with the greatest ease of reference refresh their knowledge and determine points which may be in question.

Rug Making Dorothy Drage, 1929      Kipling and Afghanistan Neil K. Moran, 2005-10-11

Alive with adventure rich with exotic detail the voice of Rudyard Kipling carried readers to faraway locations and brought new exciting scenes to their doorsteps. Born and raised in India Kipling became the voice of the eastern British Empire and his writing extensively covered Central Asia. Early in his career Kipling drew inspiration not from travels of his own but from working with far flung correspondents at the Civil and Military Gazette in Lahore, Pakistan where he served as assistant editor. One of his chief correspondents was Dr Charles Owen a close friend of his father's who served a tour of duty with the Afghan Boundary Commission between 1884 and 1886 addressing the border dispute between Great Britain and Russia. This historical biography provides a new perspective on Kipling's days as an employee of the Civil and Military Gazette. Information garnered from newly uncovered letters and diaries of Dr Owen acquired by the National Army Museum in 1998 gives personal insight into Kipling's life as well as firsthand perceptions of the Boundary Commission's work. In addition appendices provide a wealth of information regarding articles by Kipling, articles attributed to Kipling or his supervisor Wheeler, Kipling's translations of Russian dispatches and Boundary Commission reports.
