Ruined Map A Novel:

The Ruined Map Kobo Abe, 2001-12-04 Of all the great Japanese novelists Kobo Abe was indubitably the most versatile. With The Ruined Map he crafted a mesmerizing literary crime novel that combines the narrative suspense of Chandler with the psychological depth of Dostoevsky. Mr. Nemuro, a respected salesman, disappeared over half a year ago, but only now does his alluring yet alcoholic wife hire a private investigator. The nameless detective has but two clues: a photo and a matchbook. With these, he embarks upon an ever more puzzling pursuit that leads him into the depths of Tokyo's dangerous underworld where he begins to lose the boundaries of his own identity. Surreal, fast-paced and hauntingly dreamlike, Abe's masterly novel delves into the unknowable mysteries of the human mind. Translated from the Japanese by E. Dale Saunders. The ruined map Kōbō Abe, 1969 The Ruined Map Kōbō Abe, Ernest Dale Saunders, 1971-01-01 Murder Most Fair Michael Cohen, 2000 The treatment of formal features is historical. Jacket Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality. As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular, the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other. With the advent of modernity, the stranger, the monster, and the spectre became interconnected. Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society, all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed. Yet these figures can also become re-appropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability. The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian, and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity's denial of its own hybridization. This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger, a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society, deals with the dangers of failing to be re-assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality, a state that can ultimately lead to boredom, alienation, nihilism, and failure. These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints, enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality, past and future, nature and artificial. In many ways, the modern stranger, as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination, has become more complicated and challenging in the post-modern contemporary age, both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society. However, while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing of the figure, could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality. The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any

Secret Rendezvous Kobo Abe, 2002-07-09 From the acclaimed author of Woman in the Dunes comes Secret Rendezvous the bizarrely erotic and comic adventures of a man searching for his missing wife in a mysteriously vast underground hospital From the moment that an ambulance appears in the middle of the night to take his wife who protests that she is perfectly healthy her bewildered husband realizes that things are not as they should be His covert explorations reveal that the enormous hospital she was taken to is home to a network of constant surveillance outlandish sex experiments and an array of very odd and even violent characters Within a few days though no closer to finding his wife the unnamed narrator finds himself appointed the hospital's chief of security reporting to a man who thinks he's a horse With its nightmarish vision of modern medicine and modern life Secret Rendezvous is another masterpiece from Japan's most gifted and original writer of serious fiction

Residual Futures Franz Prichard, 2019-04-23 In the postwar years an eruption of urbanization took place across Japan from its historical central cities to the outer reaches of the archipelago During the 1960s and 1970s Japanese literary and visual media took a deep interest in cities and their problems and what this rapid change meant for the country In Residual Futures Franz Prichard offers a pathbreaking analysis of the works wrought from this intensive urbanization mapping the ways in which Japanese filmmakers writers photographers and other artists came to grips with the entwined ecologies of a drastic transformation Residual Futures examines crucial works of documentary film fiction and photography that interrogated Japan's urbanization and integration into the U S dominated geopolitical system Prichard discusses documentary filmmaker Tsuchimoto Noriaki's portrait of the urban traffic war and the remaking of Tokyo for the 1964 Olympics; novelist Abe Kōbō's depictions of infrastructure and urban sociality and the radical notions of landscape that emerge from the critical and photographic work of Nakahira Takuma. His careful readings reveal the shifting relationships among urban materialities and subjectivities and the ecological, political and aesthetic vocabularies of urban change. A novel cultural history of critical urban discourse in Japan, Residual Futures brings an interdisciplinary approach to Japanese literary and visual media studies. It provides a vital new perspective on the infrastructural aesthetics and entangled urban and media conditions of the global Cold War.

Ruined by Design Inger Sigrun Brodey, 2013-01-11 By examining the motif of ruination in a variety of late eighteenth century domains, this book portrays the moral aesthetic of the culture of sensibility in Europe, particularly its negotiation of the demands of tradition and pragmatism alongside utopian longings for authenticity, natural goodness, self-governance, mutual transparency and instantaneous kinship. This book argues that the rhetoric of ruins lends a distinctive shape to the architecture and literature of the time and requires the novel to adjust notions of authorship and narrative to accommodate the prevailing aesthetic. Just as architects of eighteenth century follies pretend to have discovered authentic ruins, novelists within the culture of sensibility also build purposely fragmented texts and disguise their authorship, invoking highly artificial means of simulating nature. The cultural pursuit of human ruin, however, leads to hypocritical and sadistic extremes that put an end to the characteristic ambivalence of sensibility and its unusual structures.

Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction Anita Higgin, Linda Martz, 2009-03-26 With essays by an international group of scholars, Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction delves into the ways in which this genre, given its status as popular yet marginalized literature, allows for the exploration of a wide range of meanings. Contributors examine how the genre both mirrors and focuses the personal, sexual, ethnic, spiritual, how it interfaces with national literatures and histories and how the generic identity of detective fiction has evolved over time. Chapters include discussions of novels and short stories from American, Argentine, British, Canadian, French, German and Japanese national literatures ranging from the mid 19th century to the early 21st century.

Sublime Voices Christopher Bolton, 2020-03-17 Since the 1950s, Abe Kōbō (1924-1993) has achieved an international reputation for his surreal or grotesque brand of avant-garde literature. From his early forays into science fiction to his more mature psychological novels and films, and finally the complicated experimental works produced near the end of his career, Abe weaves together a range of voices, the styles of science and the language of literary forms. In Abe's oeuvre, this stylistic interplay links questions of language and subjectivity with issues of national identity and technological development in a way that ultimately aspires to become the catalyst for an artistic revolution. While recognizing the disruptions such a revolution might entail, Abe's texts embrace these disjunctions as a way of realizing radical new possibilities beyond everyday experience and everyday values. By arguing that the crisis of identity and postwar anomie in Abe's works is inseparable from the need to marshal these different scientific and literary voices, Christopher Bolton explores how this reconciliation of ideas and dialects is for Abe part of the process whereby texts and individuals form themselves a search for identity that must take place at the level of the self and society at large      The Art of Fiction John Gardner,2010-08-18 This classic guide from the renowned novelist and professor has helped transform generations of aspiring writers into masterful writers and will continue to do so for many years to come John Gardner was almost as famous as a teacher of creative writing as he was for his own works In this practical instructive handbook based on the courses and seminars that he gave he explains simply and cogently the principles and techniques of good writing Gardner s lessons exemplified with detailed excerpts from classic works of literature sweep across a complete range of topics from the nature of aesthetics to the shape of a refined sentence Written with passion precision and a deep respect for the art of writing Gardner s book serves by turns as a critic mentor and friend Anyone who has ever thought of taking the step from reader to writer should begin here      A History of the

Surrealist Novel Anna Watz,2023-02-16 A History of the Surrealist Novel offers a rich long and elastic historiography of the surrealist novel taking into consideration an abundance of texts previously left out of critical accounts Its twenty thematically organized chapters examine surrealist prose texts written in French English Spanish German Greek and Japanese from the emergence of the surrealist movement in the 1920s and 1930s through the post war and postmodern periods and up to the contemporary moment This approach extends received narratives regarding surrealism s geographical locations and considers its transnational movement and modes of circulation Moreover it challenges critical biases that have defined surrealism in predominantly masculine terms and which tie the movement to the interwar or early post war years This book will appeal both to scholars and students of surrealism and its legacies modernist literature and the history of the novel

Kangaroo Notebook Kobo Abe,1997-04-29 In the last novel written before his death in 1993 one of Japan s most distinguished novelists proffered a surreal vision of Japanese society that manages to be simultaneously fearful and jarringly funny The narrator of Kangaroo Notebook wakes on morning to discover that his legs are growing radish sprouts an ailment that repulses his doctor but provides the patient with the unusual ability to snack on himself In short order Kobo Abe s unraveling protagonist finds himself hurtling in a hospital bed to the very shores of hell Abe has assembled a cast of oddities into a coherent novel one imbued with unexpected meaning Translated from the Japanese by Maryellen Toman Mori

Prier,Gerald Gillespie,2023-04-12 This volume focuses on the flourishing of irony as a primary characteristic of the great era of European narrative sophistication from the Goethezeit to Modernism Its eighteenth essays explore varieties of ironic consciousness associated with texts especially of northern Europe and the ways they established a dialogue with and on literature and culture at large As the volume shows this interrogation of Europe s self awareness of cultural identity bound up in reading and writing habits gained a new post Cervantine complexity in Romanticism and has been of lasting significance for literary theory down to postmodernism By its comparativistic framing of the issues raised by ironic consciousness Narrative Ironies duly serves as a Festschrift honoring Lilian R Furst Among major writers treated are Sterne Goethe Godwin Schlegel Hoffmann Poe Stendhal Kierkegaard Disraeli Keller Maupassant Zola Huysmans Wilde Tolstoi Hofmannsthal Strindberg Proust Mann Musil Kafka Joyce Faulkner and Szczypiorski     Chinese Theories of Fiction Ming Dong Gu,2007-06-01 In this innovative work Ming Dong Gu examines Chinese literature and traditional Chinese criticism to construct a distinctly Chinese theory of fiction and places it within the context of international fiction theory He argues that because Chinese fiction or xiaoshuo was produced in a tradition very different from that of the West it has formed a system of fiction theory that cannot be adequately accounted for by Western fiction theory grounded in mimesis and realism Through an inquiry into the macrocosm of Chinese fiction the art of formative works and theoretical data in fiction commentaries and intellectual thought Gu explores the conceptual and historical conditions of Chinese fiction in relation to European and world fiction In the process Gu critiques and challenges some accepted views of Chinese fiction and provides a theoretical basis for fresh approaches to fiction study in general and Chinese fiction in particular Such masterpieces as the Jin Ping Mei The Plum in the Golden Vase and the Hongloulou The Story of the Stone are discussed at length to advance his notion of fiction and fiction theory
