Why Nothing Works Marc J. Dunkelman,2025-02-18 A provocative exploration about the architecture of power the forces that stifle us from getting things done and how we can restore confidence in democratically elected government the best book to date on the biggest political issue that nobody is talking about Matthew Yglesias America was once a country that did big things we built the world's greatest rail network a vast electrical grid interstate highways abundant housing the Social Security system the Tennessee Valley Authority and more But today even while facing a host of pressing challenges a housing shortage a climate crisis a dilapidated infrastructure we feel stuck unable to move the needle Why America is today the victim of a vetocracy that allows nearly anyone to stifle progress While conservatives deserve some blame progressives have overlooked an unlikely culprit their own fears of The Establishment A half century ago progressivism's designs on getting stuff done were eclipsed by a desire to box in government Reformers put speaking truth to power ahead of exercising that power for good The ensuing gridlock has pummeled faith in public institutions of all sorts stifled the movement's ability to deliver on its promises and most perversely opened the door for MAGA style populism A century ago Americans were similarly frustrated and progressivism pointed the way out The same can happen again Marc J Dunkelman vividly illustrates what progressives must do if they are going to break through today's paralysis and restore once again confidence in democratically elected government To get there reformers will need to acknowledge where they've gone wrong Progressivism's success moving forward hinges on the movement's willingness to rediscover its roots      Foo Fighters , Voyages ,1970      Life after Ruin Noam Leshem,2017 Noam Leshem examines the radical transformation of Arab landscapes seized by Israel in the 1948 war By looking at the spatial history of Arab villages Leshem highlights the intricate and often intimate engagements between Jews and Arabs in the present day
