Textological Aspects of Musicology in Russia and the Former Soviet Union Tatyana Naumenko, 2018-03-29 In this monograph Tatyana Naumenko Doctor of Arts and a professor at Moscow's Gnessin Russian Academy of Music looks at modern Russian musicology through the prism of texts representing it. She mentions subjects addressed in musicological studies, names genres of music that scholars prefer to explore and describes modern methods of research and criteria of assessment largely with the aim of overcoming Soviet era dogmatism. Special consideration is given to the writing of academic degree dissertations on music in the former Soviet Union and post Soviet Russia. The Annex lists dissertations approved between 1970 and 2013.

Rethinking J.S. Bach's The Art of Fugue Anatoly Milka, 2016-09-13 The enigmatic character of The Art of Fugue became apparent as early as in its first edition printed more than a year after the composer's death. Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach who published both the first and the second editions raised several unsolved questions regarding this opus. Anatoly P. Milka presents a consistent and coherent solution to the unresolved questions about the history, structure and appearance of J. S. Bach's The Art of Fugue, opening new perspectives for further exploration of this musical masterpiece. Milka challenges the present scholarly consensus that there exist two different versions of The Art of Fugue: the Autograph and the Original Edition, and argues that Bach had considered four versions of which only two are apparent and have been discussed so far. Only Bach's illness and death prevented him from fulfilling his plan and publishing a fourth conclusive version of his opus.
