The Law of Targeting William H. Boothby,2012-08-16 Targeting is the primary method for securing strategic objectives in an armed conflict Failure to comply with the law of targeting jeopardizes the achievement of those aims It is therefore essential that all those involved in or studying issues surrounding targeting have an accurate and complete understanding of this area of law This book offers the definitive and comprehensive statement of all aspects of the law of targeting It is a one stop shop that answers all relevant questions in depth It has been written in an open accessible yet comprehensive style and addresses both matters of established law and issues of topical controversy The text explains the meanings of such terms as civilian combatant and military objective Chapters are devoted to the core targeting principles of distinction discrimination and proportionality as well as to the relationship between targeting and the protection of the environment and of objects and persons entitled to special protection New technologies are also covered with chapters looking at attacks using unmanned platforms and a discussion of the issues arising from cyber warfare The book also examines recent controversies and perceived ambiguities in the rules governing targeting including the use of human shields the level of care required in a bombing campaign and the difficulties involved in determining whether someone is directly participating in hostilities This book will be invaluable to all working in this contentious area of law

A History of the French Revolution Henry Morse Stephens, 1891

Conflict, Power, and the Landscape of Constitutionalism Gilles Tarabout, Ranabir Samaddar, 2020-11-29

The book seeks to critically examine the implication of a constitution of law for a political society It presents a collection of essays that seek to investigate how power acts on power how limits produce excess how separation of powers produces the union of powers sanctified by the very constitution that had guaranteed the division in the first place and how the theory of separation is at the same time a myth and a reality At the backdrop of the book of course is the theory that every good constitution rigorously separates the legislature the executive and the judiciary from one another to guarantee the independence of each of these powers such that this separation results in life liberty and security If a constitution however symbolises and produces power precisely because it separates one site of power from another it follows that it is power itself that is the limit of power Constitutionalism as a political culture of laws therefore must explain the dynamics of power The book addresses both constitutions and the societies in which they emerge Many of the essays in this collection show how institutional practices originating from a legal text create a matrix of power that owes its life neither to a contract between men nor between the state and men nor even between the society and men but rather to relations established organized and formalized by laws The collection is significant because it gives colonial and post colonial experiences a justified place in studies of law and constitutionalism for it shows that while Montesquieu Kant and Burke each in their own way were promoting the spirit of laws a more significant history of law making was being enacted in order to defend a particular rule and a particular type of government on another side of the world Based on comparative studies in several countries across three continents the book centrally deals with issues of constitutionalism politica
