Rules For A Dadless Dad:

Rules for a Dadless Dad Kevin Nordbrock, 2004-12-01 I thought about what a parent is to a child and I came up with this thought Parent Artist Sculpture When children are small they are a lot like clay no form no shape like personality values and ideals not knowing what is right or wrong It is the parent s job as the artist to mold and sculpt that clay into a lifelong beautiful piece of work so that when the clay has been sculpted the artist can stand back and look at the figure before them and admire it with pride and joy as the whole world admires enjoys and appreciates it The clay changes over time as you mold and shape it Sometimes it is difficult and it doesn t hold its shape When you step back and look at the piece of work you start to think what you can do Over time just by working with the clay before you it becomes a masterpiece that is truly priceless fatherless due to death divorce neglect and outright abandonment the authors have found that fatherless daughters tend to push their emotions underground These issues in turn become distinct patterns in their relationships as adult women and they often can't figure out why Delivered with compassion and expertise this book allows readers support and understanding they never had when they first needed it and it encourages the conversation to continue Library of Congress Subject
