Rumour Of Calcutta Tourism Charity And The Poverty Of Representation:

The Rumour of Calcutta John Hutnyk, 1996-10-01 An extraordinary study of the politics of representation this book explores the discursive construction of a city of intensities The author analyses representations of Calcutta in a wide variety of discourses in the gossip and traveller lore of backpackers and volunteer charity workers in writing from classic literature to travel guides in cinema photography and maps The book shows how the rumours of westerners contribute to the elaboration of an imaginary city and in doing so circulate in ways fundamental to the maintenance of international order A provocative and original reading of both Heidegger and Marx the book also draws upon writers as diverse as Spivak Trinh Jameson Clifford Virilio Bataille Derrida Deleuze and Guattari As such it is essential reading for students and scholars in cultural studies anthropology development and sociology The Affective Negotiation of Slum Tourism Tore

Holst, 2018-01-29 Each year approximately a million tourists visit slum areas on guided tours as a part of their holiday to Asia Africa or Latin America This book analyses the cultural encounters that take place between slum tourists and former street children who work as tour guides for a local NGO in Delhi India Slum tours are typically framed as both tourist performances bought as commodities for a price on the market and as appeals for aid that tourists encounter within an altruistic discourse of charity This book enriches the tourism debate by interpreting tourist performances as affective economies identifying tour guides as emotional labourers and raising questions on the long term impacts of economically unbalanced encounters with representatives of the Global North including the researcher This book studies the feeling rules governing a slum tour and how they shape interactions When do guides permit tourists to exoticise the slum and feel a thrilling sense of disgust towards the effects of abject poverty and when do they instead guide them towards a sense of solidarity with the slum's inhabitants What happens if the tourists rebel and transgress the boundaries delimiting the space of comfortable affective negotiation constituted by the guides This book will be essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working within the fields of Human Geography Slum Tourism Research Subaltern Studies and Development Studies Urban Development in India Pablo Shiladitya Bose, 2015-03-05 Indian diaspora has had a complex and multifaceted role in catalyzing justifying and promoting a transformed urban landscape in India Focussing on Kolkata Calcutta this book analyses the changing landscapes over the past two decades of one of the world's most fascinating and iconic cities Previously better known due to its post Independence decline into overcrowded poverty pollution and despair in recent years it has experienced a revitalization that echoes India's renaissance as a whole in the new millennium This book weaves together narratives of migration and diasporas postmodern developmentalism and neoliberal urbanism and identity and belonging in the Global South It examines the rise of middle class environmental initiatives and Kolkata's attempts to reclaim its earlier global status It suggests that a form of global gentrification is taking place through which people and place are being fundamentally restructured Based on a decade's worth of field research and investigation in multiple sites metropolitan centers connected by long histories of empire migration economy and culture it employs a multi methods approach and uses ethnographic semi structured interviews as well as archival research for much of the empirical data collected Addressing urban change and policies as well as spatial and discursive transformations that are occurring in India it will be of interest to researchers in the field of urban geography urban and regional planning environmental studies diaspora studies and South Asian studies

Critique of Exotica John Hutnyk,2000-11-20 In this book John Hutnyk questions the meaning of cultural hybridity Using the growing popularity of Asian culture in the West as a case study he looks at just who benefits from this intermingling of culture Focusing on music race and politics Hutnyk offers a cogently theorised critique of the culture industry He looks at artists such as Asian Dub Foundation FunDaMental and Apache Indian to see how their music is both produced and received He analyses world music festivals racist policing and the power of corporate pop stars to market exotica across the globe Throughout Hutnyk provides a searing critique of a world that sells exotica as race relations and visibility as redress

Traveling India in the Age of Gandhi Jeffrey N. Dupée,2008-04-15 Traveling India in the Age of Gandhi is a study of armchair travel writers who journeyed to India during what has often been termed the Age of Gandhi placed between 1914 1948 Most of the travel writers surveyed understood this era to be a unique time in world history in India and elsewhere on the globe The lingering trauma of World War I the rise of radical state ideologies in Russia Italy Japan and Germany world wide depression in the 1930s along with a host of other unsettling political cultural and technological realities revealed a world of bewildering complexity and uncertainty For many of the travel writers surveyed in this work India was the main drama in a shifting global landscape Moreover many viewed it as the ultimate travel experience a journey that tested one s capacity to fully engage the earth s most compelling forms of human diversity and suffering Although a few notable figures are included most of the authors in the study constitute a breed of largely forgotten travel writers This work is an attempt to extract the core of their observations impressions and conclusions concerning what they saw and experienced particularly concerning Indian aspirations for independence and India as the world s most exotic human landscape

Doing Cultural Geography Pamela Shurmer-Smith,2002-03-28 Doing Cultural Geography is an introduction to cultural geography that integrates theoretical discussion with applied examples The emphasis throughout is on doing Recognizing that many undergraduates have difficulty with both theory and methods courses the text demystifies the theory informing cultural geography and encourages students to engage directly with theory in practice It emphasizes what can be done with humanist Marxist poststructuralist feminist and postcolonial theory demonstrating that this is the best way to prompt students to engage with the otherwise daunting theoretical literature

Diaspora and Hybridity Virinder Kalra,Raminder Kaur,John Hutnyk,2005-09-20 Diaspora Hybridity deals with those theoretical issues which concern social theory and social change in the new millennium The volume provides a refreshing critical and illuminating analysis of concepts of diaspora and hybridity and their impact on multi ethnic and multi cultural societies Dr Rohit Barot Department of Archaeology and Anthropology

University of Bristol What do we mean by diaspora and hybridity Why are they pivotal concepts in contemporary debates on race culture and society This book is an exhaustive politically inflected assessment of the key debates on diaspora and hybridity It relates the topics to contemporary social struggles and cultural contexts providing the reader with a framework to evaluate and displace the key ideological arguments theories and narratives deployed in culturalist academic circles today The authors demonstrate how diaspora and hybridity serve as problematic tools cutting across traditional boundaries of nations and groups where trans national spaces for a range of contested cultural political and economic outcomes might arise Wide ranging richly illustrated and challenging it will be of interest to students of cultural studies sociology ethnicity and nationalism

Engaging Film Tim Cresswell, Deborah Dixon, 2002 Engaging Film is a creative interdisciplinary volume that explores the engagements among film space and identity and features a section on the use of films in the classroom as a critical pedagogical tool Focusing on anti essentialist themes in films and film production this book examines how social and spatial identities are produced or dissolved in films and how mobility is used to create different experiences of time and space From popular movies such as Pulp Fiction Bulworth Terminator 2 and The Crying Game to home movies and avant garde films the analyses and teaching methods in this collection will engage students and researchers in film and media studies cultural geography social theory and cultural studies

Travel Worlds Raminder Kaur, John Hutnyk, 1999 Everyone s Got a Traveller s Tale but Travel Worlds tells them with a sting African American musicians head East for Kung Fu kicks while paedophiles go for cheap sex pilgrimage Western bible bashers adopt missionary positions in India while heroic Saint George signs on as an Arab soldier in Britain the scars of Partition mock the protocols of transit while nomadic insurgents resist the Bangladeshi nation state with lyrical persuasion Kula Shaker and Madonna trinketize the Orient while dead tourists exchange values with travelling terrorists British Mirpuris and Black women travel back to the Old Country and beyond in ways that are not quite as they seem and ethnographers collide with tourists in the carousel of Goa s resorts Including poetry and fiction alongside academic essays this book refuses simplistic dichotomies of north south and east west and confronts head on existing conventions of writing about travel in post colonial literary and cultural studies

Bushmen in the Tourist Imaginary Roie Thomas, 2016-12-14 This book is a semantic and semiotic analysis of tourism texts that represent specific groups of San or Bushmen in modern Botswana and is framed by postcolonial theory post tourism and resistance theories Critically the book demonstrates the power that both written and visual language can have upon consumers of texts It provides a case study of neo colonial exploitation and conversely reveals the efficacy of self representation for tourist consumption with an increasing number of San offering alternatives to an entrenched ethnic hegemony effecting gradual political and social recognition and autonomy As such the book is written in a spirit of optimism for the burgeoning self determination of a long marginalised group

Visiting the Neighbours Agnieszka Sobocinska, 2014-09-01 A million Australians went to Bali last year following the millions of others who have made their way across Asia over the past century

Many travellers returned thinking they knew Asia and their personal experiences helped shape popular attitudes This absorbing book unpacks their experiences showing how their encounters changed the way Australians thought about themselves in the world Visiting the Neighbours tells the story of Australian relations with Asia from the bottom up examining the experiences of some of the millions of travellers and tourists who headed to the region over more than a hundred years Merchants missionaries pilgrims soldiers hippies diplomats backpackers all had an impact on diplomacy and international relations Agnieszka Sobocinska's book is a bold and important step in understanding the intersection between popular opinion prejudice and international relations as Australia stands at the precipice of the Asian Century Sets out a range of fascinating and different roles played by Australians in Asia Michael Wesley author of There Goes the Neighbourhood Australia and the rise of Asia Puts travel to Asia firmly on the Asia literacy map This is not only a richly detailed subtly argued and historically informed study of the Australian traveller in Asia It is also smart sharp and a very good read David Walker BHP Billiton Chair of Australian Studies Peking University

The Nomads of Mykonos Pola Bousiou, 2008 This is the ethnography of the Mykoniots d lection a gang of romantic adventurers who have been visiting the island of Mykonos for the last thirty five years and have formed a community of dispersed friends Their constant return to and insistence on working acting and creating in a tourist space offers them an extreme identity which in turn is aesthetically marked by the transient cultural properties of Mykonos Drawing semiotically from its ancient counterpart Delos whose myth of emergence entails a spatial restlessness contemporary Mykonos also acquires an idiosyncratic fluidity In mythology Delos the island of Apollo was condemned by the gods to be an island in constant movement Mykonos as a signifier of a new form of ontological nomadism semiotically shares such assumptions The Nomads of Mykonos keep returning to a series of alternative affective groups largely in order to heal a split between their desire for autonomy rebellion and aloneness and their need to affectively belong to a collectivity Mykonos for the Mykoniots d lection is their permanent stopover their regular comings and goings discursively project onto Mykonos space an allegorical discordant notion of home

The New Expatriates Anne-Meike Fechter, Katie Walsh, 2013-09-13 While scholarship on migration has been thriving for decades little attention has been paid to professionals from Europe and America who move temporarily to destinations beyond the West Such migrants are marginalised and depoliticised by debates on immigration policy and thus there is an urgent need to develop nuanced understanding of these more privileged movements In many ways these are the modern day equivalents of colonial settlers and expatriates yet the continuities in their migration practices have rarely been considered The New Expatriates advances our understanding of contemporary mobile professionals by engaging with postcolonial theories of race culture and identity The volume brings together authors and research from across a wide range of disciplines seeking to evaluate the significance of the past in shaping contemporary expatriate mobilities and highlighting postcolonial continuities in relation to people practices and imaginations Acknowledging the resonances across a range of geographical sites in Asia

Africa and the Middle East the chapters consider the particularity of postcolonial contexts while enabling comparative perspectives A focus on race and culture is often obscured by assumptions about class occupation and skill but this volume explicitly examines the way in which whiteness and imperial relationships continue to shape the migration experiences of Euro American skilled migrants as they seek out new places to live and work This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
